HISTORY LOOKS AHEAD

We are the citizens of tomorrow! We are the bankers, lawyers, presidents, and cabinet members of future years. We are the ones who will model the government and be the law makers. We are the ones who will run our governments into fame and fortune, or into oblivion. Can't we, the youth of today and the hope of tomorrow, prepare ourselves in some measure for the experiences we are bound to meet? All the activities of today, every accomplishment is a challenge to youth. The stupendous World's fair is a challenge to all youth everywhere, to advance civilization in the next 100 years as it has been advanced in the past.

Probably one of the best things we can undertake to be ready to meet the crises of the future is the study of history, for history is a systematic record of past events. In order to cope with the events of the present and future we must know what preceded them and how it was handled by others. History, therefore, should be of paramount importance to those of us who aspire to political undertakings, even more so than to those of us who only wish to fulfill our duties as a good citizen as well as possible.

Everything we do affects us some way or other, subtly or obviously. Let us remember this as we go on and think of how we may take an active part in our governments as citizens of village, township, county, state and country.

Logic Club One of New Groups at High School

One of the newest clubs of New Trier High school is sponsored by C. O. Waters. It is called the Logic club and is organized for boys above freshman year who are interested in scientific discussion. The club meets every Wednesday and at present has a membership of eight. The constitution limits the number of members to fifteen. Although the club was organized about a month ago, the officers have not yet been chosen; the temporary chairman is Don Rogers.

French Club Likes Talk Given by Jessie Sentney

The members of the French club spent an enjoyable afternoon in the Girls' Clubroom, Thursday, March 2, when Miss Jessie Sentney gave an entertaining French talk. She related

Here and There

Now that the snow has melted slowly away and a few faint warblings may be heard from the still cold throats of our feathered songsters, many a New Trierite wishes he were like a river so that he might lie in his bed and still follow his course.

Customer: "I'd like a loaf of bread."
 Baker: "White or graham?"
 Customer: "It doesn't matter. It's for a blind man."

Doctor: "Your cough is better this morning."
 Patient: "It ought to be; I practiced it all night!"

M. P.: "Didn't you get my letter?"
 O. K.: "Yes; inside it said I was expelled, and on the outside it said, 'return in five days.'"

Would-be-crooner: "Would you call me a tenor or a baritone?"
 Audience (in unison): "NO!"

Housewife: "I want to buy some lard."
 Grocer: "Pail?"
 Housewife: "I didn't know it came in two shades."

First traveler: "Is there running water in this hotel?"
 Second ditto: "Yes, if you tilt the pitcher."

Dentist: "Which tooth hurts you, Moe?"
 Pullman porter: "Lower five, suh."

"Egbert, I'm riding to hounds."
 "Yes, milord; I'm going to the dogs myself."

There has been some discussion lately as to whether the radio will take the place of the newspaper. It is our belief that it will not and we have one good substantial reason: You can't swat a fly with a radio!

"Lend me a quarter for a minute?"
 "Wait a minute and you won't need it."

"Little girl, who put all those tattoo marks on you?"
 "My father did."
 "Oh, I see; illustrated by the author."

He: "I'm going to marry a girl who can take a joke."
 She: "Don't worry; that's the kind of a girl you'll have to marry!"

Dora says the scales in the girls' gym are no good; she weighs as much when she stands on one foot as when she stands on two feet... (That's the trouble with most jokes; you've either seen them before or you don't see them yet.)

Like the man who drank a bottle of shellac, this colyum at least ought to have a nice finish. A poet has been using our typewriter and in spite of its asbestos ribbon and water-cooled type, it's still too hot to continue, so we'll let you write your own ending. We'll make it easy for you; all you have to do is fill in the blanks. Go to it!

some of her experiences in France in the summer, and with her discussion, she exhibited attractive postal cards and tiny dolls wearing characteristic costumes of sections of the country. Many members said that they enjoyed Miss Sentney's talk and that they hoped to hear her again soon.

New Trier Places Second in Annual Track Competition

Oak Park thin-clads were victorious last Saturday in the Suburban League Indoor Track meet held in their own field house. This gave the west-side team its fifth consecutive title in the history of the league. New Trier was second with 33, 20 points behind the leaders; Evanston was third, 15 points behind the second-place winners.

Two meet records were broken in the night's competition, one tied, and one new field-house record established. Oak Park men were responsible for the first three. Johnson ran the mile in the exceptional time of 4:39.2, bettering the league record by 6.2 seconds. This is the fastest time ever made in the field house in which many championship meets such as the C. A. A. U. relays have been held. The other distance event, the 880-yard run, was the next to fall when Tipshus of Oak Park ran the distance in 2:03, one and one-half seconds better than the former league record. In the 50 yard dash Newton of New Trier and O'Brien of Oak Park ran their trials in the record time of :05.5. The finals was practically a dead-heat, but O'Brien received the decision.

Newton Sets Record

Newton in the 60 yard hurdles established the next record, :07.2 seconds. As this race was formerly only 50 yards in length, this will become the new league record and also the field house record, bettering the time of Polleid of Senn and other well-known prep hurdlers by two-tenths of a second.

New Trier's other firsts came in the pole vault, shot put and the high jump. Jimmie Kingsley was by far the best in the pole vault, beating his team-mate Ballenger, Rice of Oak Park, and Sethness of Evanston, who were tied for second, by six inches. Capt. Schuman had no competition in the weight event although he was three inches short of his own Suburban league record of 47 feet, 6 3/4 inches. The next place was taken by Nordberg of New Trier, almost a full five feet behind Schuman. Ballensen of the Grey-Green tied with Bechol of Oak Park for first in the high jump with the bar at 5 feet, 8 7/10 inches.

Oak Park won the relay in the fast time of 1:23. Evanston was second and New Trier, third. The Grey-Green team of Newton, Blades, Martin and Seiler won its heat against Proviso and Deerfield by a quarter of a lap, but their time was seven-tenths of a second slower than that of Evanston, running in Oak Park's heat.

Meet Deerfield Saturday

The next meet for the Grey-Green is against Deerfield's juniors and seniors at Winnetka on Saturday morning.

Girls' Cage Tournament Being Played This Week

The girls' basketball tournament began the first of this week. There are four senior teams: Karst-Cole, Maloney, Banker-Walkup, and Mickey. The juniors have had to combine only two rooms, Burchard and Cook, making six teams. The two under classes did not have to do any combining. The teams were combined only in the event that there had not been nine players out at least once for practices. The basketball tournaments being carried on in the junior and senior classes are progressing very well, according to the teachers. The coaching and refereeing is being done by the leaders and some assistants chosen by the teachers.

Third of Parliamentary Lectures Given Mar. 10

Do you know how many motions there are? Do you know what motions take a two-thirds vote? None of the sophomores knew what these meant until they heard two out of the three lectures that Mrs. M. H. Lieber, of Winnetka, has given them. Mrs. Lieber, an expert on parliamentary law, will present the last of her series of lectures at New Trier, March 10. She will explain the difference between by-laws, standing laws, and a constitution. Do you know the difference?

INQUIRING REPORTER

Last week this column carried some suggestions from seniors for the class gift; here are some more. Everyone in last week's column had different ideas and it looks as if the senior class will have a big job on its hands when it comes to the final decision. The question: "What gift would you suggest for the senior class to give?"

Sam Smale: "At reasonable cost the Class of '33 could equip the room at the entrance to the big gym with trophy cases and make it an attractive room in which to put the trophies won by the school."

Doris Bell: "I suggest a gift of money from the '33 class, to be set aside for the purpose of having more assemblies and more speakers. I think that school would be more interesting if more speakers such as Mr. Beebe and Admiral Byrd could be procured. Any fund the seniors can give for such a cause will surely be appreciated by the other classes and that is what I understand to be the purpose of a class gift."

Bill Doty: "I think the best practical gift the Class of '33 could give, is some money to buy some new equipment for the chemistry and physics 'labs'."

Margaret Loomis: "I think the seniors should give some money to be set aside until the new building is opened, and then I'm sure it will be a very great help and much appreciated."

Victor Hanson: "I believe that a trophy case for the main hall would be a good gift. It would add to the attractiveness of our hall and also show any visitor how many trophies New Trier has won."
