

devotional, and Miss Brownlee will bring the last message of the study on "Youth Looks at China." All the young people are invited.

The united choirs which are to sing at the evening service are urged to be at the club rooms promptly at 7 o'clock for final rehearsal.

The Union Evening service of the five cooperating churches will be held in the Woman's club rooms at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. John G. Hindley will preach the sermon on the theme, "The Great Quest of Life." The other ministers will participate. It is hoped that there will be a large choir composed of all the members of all the choirs of five churches. Miss Erma Rounds, director of music at the Presbyterian church will direct.

The music for the evening service will be as follows: Prelude, "Meditation," Tchaikowsky; Anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul," Shelley; Postlude, "Grand Choeur" (Gregorian), Guilmant.

Spoke No. 3 of the Woman's society will meet with Mrs. Harry Neal, 507 Washington avenue, at 11 o'clock on Tuesday.

Spoke No. 11 will meet with Mrs. Harper Osborn, 715 Linden avenue for an all day meeting.

The prayer-meeting will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the Woman's club rooms. We will study together "The Disciples at the Cross." We invite you to join us.

March 31 is the end of the church year. All funds for the expenses of the church, for benevolences, and for the various organizations must be in before that time to be included in this year's annual reports.

The annual meeting of the church and congregation will be held Wednesday evening, April 5, at the Woman's club rooms. Supper will be served at 6:30 by the Woman's society. Annual reports will be made by the church officers and church organizations. Three elders, three deacons, and three trustees will be elected to take the place of those whose terms expire.

Those who wish to join the church at Easter are requested to interview the pastor as soon as possible.

The choir will rehearse at the home of Mrs. Eager, 1312 Elmwood avenue, Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

less to try again. But upon the Lord's command Peter said: "nevertheless at Thy word I will let down the net." A little boy had five loaves of bread and two fishes. Five thousand hungry people were waiting for something to eat. Some said: what is that among so many. Others had faith in the mercy and power of Jesus. This faith was vindicated when Jesus miraculously fed them all. Our great prayer should not be: "Lord, provide us with a greater amount of material things," but rather: "Lord, increase our faith."

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE MIDWEEK LENTEN SERVICE on Wednesday evening at 8. The attendance last Wednesday evening was 196, the highest number reached in the midweek services this year. You and your family and friends are invited to the services. The subject of the sermon will be: "Jesus and the Crossbearer on the Way of Sorrows. The choir will sing the chorale: "O bleeding Head and wounded."

At next Sunday morning's service the mixed choir of our church will sing the anthem "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach. Among the organ numbers to be played by Mrs. Electa Austin Gamron at this service are Andante by Saint Saens, Pastorella by Wareing and a Postlude by Rogers.
