There were several short talks by the outgoing and incoming officers, and a general discussion of many topics of interest, such as taxes, park tax, etc.

The club is now starting its third year and is bigger and stronger than ever. People of that section, the northwest section of Wilmette, are realizing that the Northwest Men's club of Wilmette is doing things, and they are getting behind it. The new officers pledge themselves to work for the good of all and for the section particularly. There will be many good fellowship meetings.

The next meeting will be held April 4 at the home of William Edmonds, 1935 Greenwood avenue.
