

Gordon Wilson Dies; Former Trustee Here

Gordon Wilson, former Village trustee, died Wednesday, March 22, at Lakeland, Fla., where he and Mrs. Wilson were spending the winter. Mr. Wilson served one term of two years on the Village board. He was elected in the spring of 1928. While on the board he served as chairman of the judiciary committee.

During the war Mr. Wilson was controller of the Emergency Fleet corporation. He received the Distinguished Service medal.

Mr. Wilson was an industrial engineer. He was a member of the Society of Industrial Engineers. He also held a membership in the Union League club.

Surviving him are his widow, two sons, Jerry and Tom, and a brother, Alan F. Wilson of Evanston.

The funeral services were held last Friday at Orlando, Fla. Cremation took place there and the remains were sent to Woodstock, Ontario, Can., Mr. Wilson's birthplace, for burial.

Glencoe Players Enter Drama Tournament

The Epworth league of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church in Glencoe has entered "The Blue Tea Pot" in the finals of the drama tournament conducted for the North district Epworth league at the Wheadon Methodist Episcopal church in Evanston at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening of this week. A small admission charge will be made at the play which is open to the public.

It is the first of three plays to be presented in the finals of the drama tournament. Others entered are "The Lord's Prayer," by the Hebron, Ill., Methodist church, and "Dust of the Road," entered by the Libertyville Methodist church.

These were the three winners among the eight entered in three eliminations tournaments two of which were held in March at the Wheadon church and the third at Hebron.

This is the second year the contest has been conducted for Epworth leagues of the North district. Next year it is planned to hold them again and to enter the winner in the Chicagoland Drama festival for church groups of all denominations throughout the Chicago area.

Former New Trier Girls Win Letters at Rockford

Miss Janet Hall and Miss Olive Brower have both been awarded letters by the Women's Athletic association at Rockford college, where they are students. The wards were made recently at the annual basketball and swimming banquet given by the association at the conclusion of the two sport seasons.

Miss Hall was awarded a large R for having received 1,000 points for participation in sports. Points are given on the basis of consistent participation, skill and sportsmanship.

Miss Brower has been named on the varsity swimming team, although this is only her first year at the college. Both are graduates of New Trier High school.

Clyde P. Ross of Kenilworth is spending a week in New Orleans on business.

Maternity Center to Be Given Tea April 5

Mrs. Charles Edwin Galloway, 940 Private road, Hubbard Woods, will open her home to a tea on Wednesday, April 5, for members of the North Shore auxiliary of the Chicago Maternity center, and their guests who have not seen the film, "Safeguarding Motherhood."
