

May Is Month of Weddings, Benefits, Golf Club Openings

Evening Style Show and Bridge Charity Benefit

The final event of the Catholic Juniors of Wilmette, the early summer fashion show and bridge party Wednesday evening, May 17, at the Wilmette Woman's club, is fast approaching. It is being hailed with a great deal of enthusiasm.

The fashion showing, it is announced, will be most complete. It will include sport dresses, afternoon and Sunday evening frocks, tea gowns and formal attire. There will also be a showing of beach fashions. Hats will be supplied by Miss MacMahon. All costume jewelry and accessories will be shown by J. E. Worthen, who is exhibiting all the dress fashions.

Among the reservations for tables which have been received are those by Miss Vivienne Morin, Mrs. George Ortseifen, Miss Marion Ortseifen, Mrs. S. Morand, Mrs. William P. Kinsella, Mrs. George McCarthy, Mrs. Peter McNamee, Mrs. Daniel Cunningham, Mrs. Robert Markham, and Mrs. Alfred Rohol.

Those who have reserved two tickets are Mrs. William Genner, Edward Schager, Mrs. Arthur Hughes, Mrs. Peter Barton, Mrs. J. J. Janette, Mrs. Otis Rich, and Mrs. Henry Marten. Mrs. George Ortseifen and Mrs. Charles Barton will pour.

Cocktail Bridge Musicale Planned by Women Voters

Mrs. Oscar Hebel will open her home at 1210 Sheridan road, on Monday, May 22, at 1:30 o'clock, for an afternoon of bridge and music for members of the Wilmette League of Women Voters and their guests. There will be a limited number of tables with a prize for each table. Alice Ebeling, Charlotte Wachs, Arthur Katzel and Bertil Hillner, known as the New Trier Gondoliers, will entertain with vocal numbers, and two talented young musicians, Russell M. Pelton and Richard Bireley, Northwestern university students, will present accordion music.

Mrs. Lewis B. Ermeling and Mrs. Oscar Hebel, who have had charge of the programs of the Wilmette League of Women Voters, Mrs. William Rehfeld, league finance chairman, and Mrs. W. S. Hedges, social chairman, have charge of arrangements for the cocktail bridge.

The annual business meeting of the league will precede the afternoon's entertainment.

Honors Bride-to-Be

Miss Elizabeth Alger, 154 Warwick lane, Kenilworth was hostess at a luncheon, bridge, and shower, for eight in honor of Miss Isabel McKenney of Evanston, who is to be married in Kenilworth Saturday. Cigarette girls play by no means an unimportant part in any society benefit. Chosen for their attractiveness, they lend color to those affairs where they vend their wares. Two, whose pleas to buy cigarettes will be heard at the gay carnival and dance Saturday evening of this week for the benefit of the Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago will be Miss Betty Bayliss of Wilmette, at the left, and Miss Helen Holden of Kenilworth.

A suggestion of that alluring Casino in the principality of Monaco whose shores are lapped by the bright blue waters of the Mediterranean, will be in its simulated Monte Carlo games which will transform Shawnee Country club with a form of entertainment whose popularity seems to remain unceasing. Dancing and refreshments will give added zest to the event.

Tickets, nominal in price, may be obtained from Mrs. T. E. Thompson and Mrs. A. E. Beirnes. Mrs. J. J. Johnson is chairman of the carnival.

Boys Hosts at Shawnee

A group of four Kenilworth boys will be hosts at dinner on Friday at Shawnee Country club preceding the Junior dance at the club. The hosts will be Bill Stebbins, Bert Smith, Benjamin MacKinnon, and Arthur Bonnett. They will entertain about thirty-five members of the eighth grade at the Joseph Sears school.

Dessert Bridge Benefit

A dessert bridge will be given Tuesday, May 23, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Kibby, 835 Lake avenue, at 1:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the Neighborhood circle of the Congregational church guild.

O. of M. to Sew

Invitations Out for Anne Boddie's Wedding

Miss Anne Boddie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett Boddie of Rogers Park, formerly of Wilmette, has chosen Friday, May 19, as the date of her marriage to Gordon Boice Shattuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Shattuck of Springfield, Mass.

The ceremony will be performed in the evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church, Evanston with the Rev. Dr. Hubert Carleton of St. Augustine's Episcopal church Wilmette, and the Rev. Dean Gerald Moore of St. Luke's officiating. A reception in the church house will follow the wedding.

Miss Mary Best of Minneapolis will be Miss Boddie's maid of honor and Miss Kathryn Castor of Evanston will attend as bridesmaid. All were classmates at Carleton college. Edmond Benoist of Winnetka will serve Mr. Shattuck as best man, and the ushers will be the bride's two brothers, John and Oliver Boddie, and Edward Cronwall of Oak Park. Katherine Ellis of Wilmette will be soprano soloist before the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom will go to Michigan on a brief honeymoon, postponing their real wedding journey until June when they will take a motor trip through the east, particularly the White Mountains and the Berkshires. They will make their home in Rogers Park.

Infant Welfare Head to Be at Wilmette Center

The regular meeting of the Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago will be held Monday, May 15, at the Woman's club as usual. Mrs. Ralph Horween as hostess chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Barnhill, Mrs. H. G. Bersie, Mrs. Harry Craig, Mrs. H. A. Finney, Mrs. M. C. Hecht, Mrs. E. Earl McDow, and Mrs. Lester E. Mee.

Mrs. Telifer MacArthur, president of the Woman's auxiliary of the Infant Welfare society, will be the guest of honor and speaker, telling of the aims and needs of the organization she represents.

Congregational Guild Plans Program Friday

The Woman's guild of the Congregational church is having its regular luncheon meeting Friday, May 12. Plans for the afternoon program include singing by Carolyn Fuermann (Mrs. F. W. Fuermann of 835 Greenwood avenue), and a review by Mrs. Frederick R. Kilner of Kenilworth, who will comment upon "Life Begins at Forty." Mrs. Fuermann's songs will be the cycle, "In a Brahmin Garden," by Frederick Knight Logan, including "Lo, 'Tis the Hour," "Fair Radha," and "Krishna's Lament." Ernau Akely will be her accompanist.

Garden Tea and Tour May 19 for N. U. Settlement

The Winnetka board for the Northwestern University settlement is giving a garden tea Friday, May 19. Four gardens that have never before been open to the public will be seen. The four hostesses, and the special features of their gardens, are: Mrs. Carl Miner, 344 St. Palos road, Glencoe, rare and beautiful rock garden; Mrs. Walter Primley, 125 Mary street, Glencoe, a green garden, evergreens and rare shrubs; Mrs. Lansing B. Warner, 201 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, beautiful woods and lovely Italian gardens on the lake; Mrs. Frank Payne, 191 Wentworth avenue, Glencoe, spring gardens with tulips and apple blossoms. Tea will be served after 4 o'clock in Mrs. Payne's garden. The gardens in the tour are within a short walking distance of Mrs. Payne's and will be opened at 2 o'clock. Tickets for the garden visits and for tea may be bought at the gate of any of the four, or may be purchased from any member of the board.

Hill-King Wedding Is Event of May 10

The marriage of Mrs. Maud Sippy Hill of Chicago and Thomas Ross King, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. King, 611 Forest avenue, took place Wednesday afternoon, May 10, at the home of bride's mother, Mrs. Bertram Welton Sippy, 5615 Woodlawn avenue, Chicago.

The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by Dr. Horace J. Bridges. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Bertram Welton Sippy, Jr., had as her only attendant her small cousin, Nona Ann Sippy of La Grange, while her twin cousins, Kenneth and Francis Sippy, and the bridegroom's nephew and niece, Paul and Katherine Knaplund of Madison, Wis., were ribbon bearers.

John W. Cullen, Jr. of Wilmette served Mr. King as best man. The wedding was attended by only the families and a few intimate friends. A small reception followed.

The bride and bridegroom have departed on a honeymoon by motor through the south and the east. They will be at home to their friends after June 1, at 125 Kedzie street, Evanston.

A round of parties was held last week, Miss Betty Wales of Winnetka being hostess on May 3, at a dinner, kitchen shower, and treasure hunt on roller skates. Last Saturday Mr. Cullen was host at a formal dinner and bridge at his home; Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Seibold, Jr. of Evanston entertained at a supper party, and on Monday of this week Mrs. Tim Lowry of Evanston gave a shower in the bride's honor. Others who entertained were Robert Porter and Sheldon Vanzwoll of Chicago.
