

Eastern Colleges Give Scholarships to New Trier Grads

Announcement was made at New Trier High school this week that already several of the seniors to be graduated next month have been notified that they will be admitted to eastern colleges without taking the college board examinations. Announcement also was made of the awarding of scholarships to New Trier students from two eastern schools.

Harry Weese of Kenilworth will be admitted to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology without taking the examinations because of the fact that his scholarship ranking at New Trier places him in the highest one-fifth of his class. This is the first year that this regulation has been in effect, and Harry Weese is the first boy from New Trier to be admitted to the Massachusetts school on that basis.

Wins Olin Scholarship

Charles Knapp of Wilmette has been awarded the Olin scholarship of $500 a year for four years at Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn.

The Olin scholarships are awarded annually to those candidates from six districts of the United States who give the most promise of exemplifying the traits of scholarship, character, manhood and interest in the various activities of the college course which characterized Stephen Henry Olin, '66, in whose honor they were founded.

C. Knight Aldrich of Hubbard Woods, a sophomore at Wesleyan, won the Olin scholarship from the Chicago district two years ago.

Honored by Vassar

Two New Trier senior girls, Betty Sheldon of Glencoe and Catherine Hepburn of Kenilworth, have been notified that they will be admitted to Vassar without taking the college board examinations. Both rank in the upper one-seventh of their class in scholarship, and it is this high scholarship ranking which makes them eligible for admission without taking the examinations.

Lillian Noyes of Kenilworth will be admitted to Radcliffe on the same basis. In addition, she has been awarded a scholarship at this school.

Mrs. S. A. Williams and daughter, Betty, 515 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth, recently returned from a trip to New York and Washington. They were interested in visiting eastern schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Robson, 1529 Forest avenue, left Wednesday to motor to Elizabethtown, Ky.

St. Francis P. T. A.

A large number of mothers whose children are fourth grade pupils in St. Francis school enjoyed the tea given in the home of Mrs. Horace Grignon Monday afternoon. The assisting hostesses were: Mrs. R. Markham, Mrs. John Dowdle, Mrs. T. J. Lucas, Mrs. P. J. McGurk, Mrs. W. Krippes, and Mrs. E. Heffernan.

Mrs. Frank L. Kaye sang two songs, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," and "Who Knows." Mrs. John J. Tracey was the accompanist.

Marjorie Grignon, fourth grade pupil, played a violin solo, with Mrs. Tracey as accompanist.

Mrs. Ray Zaher also sang two solos, the first one, "Missouri, My Home Sweet Home," written by Mr. Zaher, and the second, "Have You Ever Been Lonely."

Miss Natalie Brown, nature teacher at the Central school in Wilmette, was the speaker and gave a description of the birds which are frequenting the north shore at this season and of those to arrive later. She gave several typical bird calls and recommended several good books on the study of bird, plant and insect life. She advised the study of nature as a pleasant pastime. Children who make a hobby of this subject always have something to absorb their interest, she asserted.

A variety of spring flowers decorated the tea table.

The card party planned for at the last P. T. A. meeting has been postponed, the date to be announced later.

The annual spring luncheon for the St. Francis school P. T. A. will be held May 19 at 1 o'clock in the school hall.

Mrs. Winifred Robinson Is Taken by Death May 6

Mrs. Winifred Beatrice Bilsland Robinson, wife of Hugh Mackellar Robinson, died of pneumonia early last Saturday morning at Los Angeles. Mrs. Robinson, who was 27 years old, had been ill for several months. She was a graduate of New Trier High school and attended Pine Manor at Wellesley, Mass. Besides her husband, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Bilsland of Wilmette.

Miss Florence and Miss Dorcas Branson, 817 Central avenue, will spend the week-end visiting at the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Roth, 1124 Forest avenue, motored to Martinsville and Brown county, Ind., last week.
