

Arrange Open House at Highcrest School

An open house will be held at the Highcrest school Thursday night, June 15, for parents and friends of the school. L. Raymus Murphy, the principal, announced this week. On the following night, June 16, ten of the Highcrest pupils will receive their diplomas together with other graduates of the Wilmette Public schools at exercises to be held at New Trier High school. Exhibits of school work will be on display at the open house. It is also planned to have a program. Included in the program will be the awarding of boys' and girls' basketball letters.

GIVES UP TOUR

The Kenilworth Garden club had to give up its trip to Lake Geneva Friday on account of rain. Its members were going there to study wild flowers on the Hutchinson estate. The tour already had been postponed from the week before.

GET SCHOLARSHIPS

June Kehl and Frances Mills each were awarded a $200 scholarship for Rockford college for the year 1933-34. These scholarships were awarded because of the high school record of these girls.

The Town club of Wilmette will hold its monthly dinner dance, the last of the season, on Saturday evening at the Kenilworth club. There are forty couples who are members. Mrs. George Edward Walk is chairman of this party, assisted by the wives of the board who are Mesdames J. Nye Macalister, Roy Marquardt, George Redding, H. C. Toepfen, C. M. Burlingame, of Wilmette and Mrs. Franklin Ellis of Glencoe.

Mrs. Henry W. Drucker of 1125 Mohawk road, accompanied by three guests, Mrs. Moritz Loeb of Winnetka, Mrs. Fanny Fox of Wilmette, and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell of Wilmette, drove to Michigan last week to see the tulips in bloom. They also visited Mrs. Drucker's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Deursen, 440 Elder lane, Winnetka, have rented their home for the summer and are now at 1101 Forest avenue with Mr. Van Deursen's mother, Mrs. Matilda Van Deursen.

Frank T. Wolfe of Burlingame, Cal., recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wolfe, 718 Sheridan road, for ten days while here on a business trip.

Mrs. Edward W. Thomas, and children, 1136 Chestnut avenue, are leaving Friday for Browns Lake, Wis., to be gone over Memorial day.

Wilmette
Post No.

46

Wilmette Post No. 46, American Legion, will be host, Wednesday, June 21, to the Seventh district, at a meeting in Odd Fellows hall, Wilmette.

All the drum and bugle corps in the district participated in an impressive parade which featured the Seventh district meeting at Glenview, Wednesday, May 17, when Sesterhenn post entertained the legionnaires. Approximately sixty Sea Scouts, comprising the drum and bugle corps of the Junior Legion of Rogers Park, took part in the parade.

Have Surprise Party

The Charles C. Hendersons have leased their home at 1630 Forest avenue to the W. A. Kellings, and are now occupying their other home at 1405 Forest avenue. On the evening of May 12, sixteen friends gave the Hendersons a surprise housewarming party.

Miss Anna Margaret Stansell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stansell of Dixon, Ill., formerly of Wilmette, who is making a remarkable recovery after a serious illness, was the week-end guest of Miss Harriet Mons, 157 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth.

Mrs. Gordon Coleman of Smethport, Pa., with her two children, Donna and Mary Beth, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lea O. Orr of 1002 Greenleaf avenue, for a month or more.

Mrs. Mathilda Van Deursen of 1101 Forest avenue, and her daughter, Mrs. John D. Flint of Dixon, Ill., who is her house guest, spent last week-end visiting in Morgan Park and Flossmoor.
