St. Joseph's School
Graduation June 18

The graduating class of St. Joseph's school has announced that its class play and commencement exercises will be held Sunday evening, June 18, at 8 o'clock at the school hall. Forty pupils are to be graduated. They are:

The program for the exercises will include the play, "Tom Playfair," by the eighth grade boys, "The Five Wise and the Five Foolish Virgins," by the eighth grade girls, and "Ben Hur," by the boys.

The motto of this year's graduating class is, "Build for Character. Not for Fame." Blue and white are the class colors, and the lily of the valley is the class flower. "The Song and the Breeze" (Humoresque) by Dvorak is the class song.

On Thursday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock the primary and intermediate grades at St. Joseph's school will present a program consisting of the following numbers:

The Chinamen	Little 'Tots'

Herbert and Jane Lundahl, 224 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, will be home from Williams and Wellesley on June 19. They will attend the Yale-Harvard boat races and then motor home from there.

Dedicate Echoes,
N. T. Senior Book,
to Wm. H. Ellis

The Echoes, New Trier High school senior class yearbook, just off the press, is dedicated to William H. Ellis of Wilmette, until recently a member of the New Trier board of education.

The dedication to Mr. Ellis reads as follows:

"The class of 1933 has prospered much in both physical and mental advancement while in New Trier. To one man in particular the class owes a debt of gratitude which it can never repay; to a man whose unceasing efforts as a school board member have in no small measure been responsible for keeping the doors of New Trier open during a period of financial chaos; to a man who is chiefly responsible for the erection of our new buildings; to a man whose unselfish labor has brought about his ill health and enforced resignation from the board.

"With a sense of gratitude that mere words cannot express, the class of 1933 dedicates their 'Echoes' to a loyal leaders and a kind friend, William H. Ellis."

Echoes this year is about the same size as last year's book. It contains 168 pages and is profusely illustrated with pictures. The general makeup of the annual is similar to that of last year.

Emma Bickham of Wilmette and Victor Hanson of Hubbard Woods were co-editors of Echoes this year, and Dwight Green of Winnetka was the business manager. Robert Carpenter of the New Trier faculty directed the students in the publication of the book.

The 1933 Echoes was printed in the plant of Lloyd Hollister Inc., in Wilmette.

Kenilworth Beach Plans
in Hands of Committee

The question of the operation of the Kenilworth beach during the coming season has been referred to the water supply and beach committee of the Kenilworth Village board, of which Walter A. Knoop is chairman. In the past the beach activities have been conducted by the Kenilworth club, but whether or not the club will again take over this work has not been definitely decided. A definite announcement on the matter is expected to be forthcoming next week. The members of the water supply and beach committee of the Village board besides Mr. Knoop, the chairman, are Harry V. Crooks and Richard Wolfe.
