Open Home for Sunday Recital by Lyric Trio

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

Guests invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Cochran at 370 Chestnut street, Winnetka, last Sunday enjoyed a recital by the Lyric trio. Their graceful light program was aptly chosen for a summer afternoon. Miss Marjorie Day of Wilmette, second soprano; Miss Anne Post of Austin, contralto, and Miss Maude Whitlock of Chicago, first soprano, form a group that appears professionally and has broadcast programs over station WGN. Florence Godard Hoyle of Chicago is their accompanist.

Varied was their program. Some of their songs were by classic composers; some by modernists, some were old ballads, and others were popular favorites. One aria from an opera and a lilting song from an English revue were among the solos.

Some songs were in French, others in German. Some were serious, some were gay; others, amusing. To add color and entertainment to their program the singers gave some of their numbers in costume. These were folk songs, some imitative of English street songs; others were French and Irish.

The young women sang together as a trio, Miss Day and Miss Post appeared in duets, and each of the trio sang solos. Their able accompanist played piano selections as part of the program.

As a trio the voices are well balanced in tone, are clear in diction, accurate in pitch, and well harmonized. The lyric quality of the two sopranos is rounded and enriched by the tone of the contralto. Their voices blend well in ensemble. Miss Whitlock has just returned from the east, and Sunday's recital was the trio's first program in about six months.

During a short intermission many of the guests sauntered through the garden or chatted in small groups. After the program they all were invited to remain for refreshments. Mrs. John Vennema of Winnetka, wife of the consul from the Netherlands, served punch in the dining room at a table with its large bowl of pink and lavender lupin.
