

Army Polo Teams to Clash This Sunday

The out-door polo season is officially open at Fort Sheridan. Last Sunday saw the first of a multitude of polo fans wending their way northward.

Sunday, June 11, at 3:30 o'clock on the Fort Sheridan polo field Maj. Gen. Frank Parker's famous Sixth Corps Area team will play its initial out-door game of the season against Brig. Gen. F. C. Bolles' Fort Sheridan quartet. The Sixth Corps Area team will be remembered for the gallant way it defended its rights by being runner-up in the National Indoor Open championships, against Winston Guest's Optimist team of New York. Many followers of Maj. C. C. "Squire" Smith, Capt. C. A. "Doc" Wilkinson, and Capt. C. E. "Stub" Davis, will remember their spectacular games, and this trio augmented by Capt. P. B. "Pete" Rodes, internationally famous outdoor star, will give the Sixth Corps Area one of the strongest teams in the country. This game will undoubtedly be very fast and exciting as these two army teams take the field with much at stake.

The public address system has been perfected this year and a running account of the games will be given by Bill Bishop. It is expected that the Drum and Bugle corps of the American Legion post of Highland Park will be on hand to enliven the day.

The lineup for Sunday will be:

Six Corps Area: Capt. C. A. "Doc" Wilkinson 1—Fort Sheridan: Major C. K. Rhinehart 1.

Six Corps Area: Capt. C. E. "Stub" Davis 2—Fort Sheridan: Capt. C. B. Cole 2.

Six Corps Area: Capt. P. B. "Pete" Rodes 3—Fort Sheridan: Lt. G. S. "Budge" Smith 3.

Six Corps Area: Major C. C. "Square" Smith 4—Fort Sheridan: Lt. L. G. "Larry" Smith 4.

"We wish you all the happiness in the world!"

THERE are times when you are unable to attend weddings or other social functions, but there is seldom a time when you can't "drop in" on the event by telephone! The thoughtfulness of a telephone call on such occasions is always appreciated by those called and, of course, "The gift is to the giver!" Wherever you call, the cost is small.
