Wilmette Women Register for B. P. W. C. Convention

Lured by a program which makes a serious study of business trends for women, and a round of entertainment which varies from trips to A Century of Progress exposition to tours of Chicago's night clubs, the business and professional women of this community are planning to be in Chicago the week of July 9 to 15.

The event which draws them is the biennial convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Among those who already have made reservations at the Stevens hotel headquarters are Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Florence Freund, Miss Esther Hoffman, Miss Lillian Leaf, Miss Ann Phillips, Miss Ruth Slown, Mrs. Harry Smoot, and Mrs. Esther Stone.

Women's changing place in the business world during the past fifty years is to be reviewed, her special difficulties during the years of depression are to be studied, and a new course for her future is to be charted, according to Mrs. E. Pearl Warwick of Champaign, Ill., convention chairman.

The women on the above list are serving on convention committees and acting as hostesses to 5,000 business and professional women who are expected to attend the convention.

VACATIONING IN COLORADO

Miss Isabel Macalister, daughter of the J. Nye Macalisters, 918 Ashland avenue, has finished her first year of nurse's training at the Evanston hospital and is taking a month's vacation at Boulder, Colo. Miss Macalister attended the University of Colorado there for two years and will return for the June week festivities.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger P. Behan of Auburndale, Mass., arrived Friday from Ottawa, Kas., where he had been visiting his paternal grandparents, to join his mother, who is visiting her parents, the Kelso Farleys of 300 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth. Mr. Behan came on Sunday and will stay a week to visit A Century of Progress exposition. They all will return home together.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison Welsh and her daughter, Jane, of Fall River, Mass., arrived Sunday on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris of 944 Sheridan road. Mrs. L. E. James, mother of Mrs. Harris, returned last week from a visit in Aurora, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ortseifen and daughter, Marion, 337 Essex road, Kenilworth, returned Tuesday of last week from Beaver Lake, at Hartland, Wis., where they went to open their summer home.

Laura Louise Reichmann, 600 Central avenue, is graduating from the University of Illinois on June 12, and returns home shortly afterwards. Her brother, Albert, also a student at Illinois, returned Monday for his summer vacation.

Mrs. J. Backus of Hamilton, Ohio, left Sunday after a two weeks' visit with the W. W. Wheelocks of 132 Oxford road, Kenilworth. Mrs. Backus is visiting her sister in Chicago before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burge, 924 Forest avenue, entertained at a family tea Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCormack and their baby, of Aurora, Ill., came out to assist the Burges on their wedding anniversary. Mrs. McCormack is their daughter.

Randle-Young Wedding Takes Place in Wilmette

The H. C. Carroll home at 1041 Ashland avenue was the scene of a small informal wedding Monday afternoon of this week, when Miss Barbara Randle became the bride of Alfred Young. The Rev. John G. Hindley read the services at 4:30 o'clock and a small reception followed. The bride, who has been a teacher in South Bend schools, was in a frock of white mousseline-de-soie, and carried Johanna Hill roses and valley lilies. Her only attendant, Miss Gladys Bower of South Bend, wore blue crepe and had a corsage bouquet of white roses and blue flowers. Arthur Hempker of Evanston served as best man.

Mr. Young, an electrical engineer with the Public Service company in Evanston, and his bride have gone to Delavan Lake, Wis., on their honeymoon. They will return to live on the north shore.

TOURING IN EAST

Mrs. William J. Benner of 1420 Maple avenue, accompanied by Joan and Billy, and Mrs. Benner's mother Mrs. Charles Pfanschmidt of Evanston, have left for an extensive motor tour of the east. They will visit Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, New York, Boston, and several other points of interest before returning to Wilmette. Mr. and Mrs. Benner Joan, and Billy expect to spend several weeks fishing up in the northern woods of Minnesota upon Mrs. Benner's return from the east.

RECOVERS FROM ILLNESS

Bernard Meier, 2117 Lake avenue, who has been taking treatments for kidney trouble at the Chicago Memorial hospital, has almost fully recovered and has returned to his work at the Wilmette Ice company. His brother, Frank Meier, is also back at work at the ice company after undergoing observation at the Sacred Heart sanitarium in Milwaukee.

RECEIVES MASTERS DEGREE

Miss Alice King, daughter of the Karl D. Kings, 914 Greenwood avenue, received her Masters degree this June from Teachers college, New York City. While she was there she stayed at the International house. Miss King returned to Wilmette last Saturday. Her brother, Bob, who is completing his junior year at Dartmouth, is returning to his home on June 15.

David Weimar, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Weimar, 240 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, will return June 13, from Northwestern Military academy. Patricia Raab of Los Angeles, a niece of Mrs. Weimar, arrived Tuesday and will attend the commencement ball at the academy.

Mrs. J. Herbert Wilkins, Jr., of Denver, Colo., spent several days last week with Mrs. John Welton Fisher Jr., 826 Greenwood avenue. Mrs. Wilkins had been a delegate to the Junior league convention in Philadelphia and stopped in Wilmette on her way home.

Jack Stebbins, 329 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, will be home from Phillips Exeter about June 25. He is staying to take the college board examinations.

Paul Philips is returning to his home at 625 Brier street, Kenilworth on June 10, from the University of Michigan.

Miss Lorraine Moore, 534 Essex road, Kenilworth, left last Saturday to attend the senior ball at the University of Illinois.

Miss Esther Sprenger to Join June Brides

Miss Esther Sprenger, daughter of Mrs. William T. Sprenger of 537 Earlston road, Kenilworth, has selected Saturday evening, June 24, for her marriage to Dr. Willard McEwen of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen of St. Louis. Dr. Herbert L. Willett will read the service at 8:30 o'clock in the Kenilworth Union church and a reception for seventy-five guests then will follow at the family residence.

Miss Marion Sprenger will be her sister's maid of honor and Lorin McEwen of Chicago will be best man for his brother. After Dr. McEwen and his bride return from their wedding trip, they will live in Evanston.

The bride-to-be's sister, Mrs. Fred Tuttle of Oak Park, is giving an afternoon bridge Saturday of this week in Miss Sprenger's honor, the hostess inviting as her guests, a number of her old friends.

ATTENDS DOUBLE FUNERAL

Mrs. C. J. Nylund, 1634 Forest avenue, Wilmette, returned on Tuesday of last week from Melvin, Ill., where she had attended the double funeral on May 29, of Dr. and Mrs. Horatio N. Boshell who were killed in a tragic auto accident Thursday night, May 25, on Governor's highway, six miles from Kankakee. Dr. Boshell had been widely known in his profession as a surgeon, and had a number of friends on the north shore. Over 2,000 people attended the funeral.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Jimmie Fudge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Fudge of 527 Park avenue, celebrated his eighth birthday on Thursday, June 1. He had as his guests La Verne Engelbright, Sheldon Vance, John Ward Heffernan, Bruce Borre, Rose-Marie Kussell, Arthur Wendall, June McDaniel, and John Voss. Refreshments consisting of a huge birthday cake, sandwiches, cocoa, candy, cookies and ice cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott and their sons, Hugh and Paul, 1723 Elmwood avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William MacNichols of Kenilworth, Mrs. Lillian Darrow (a daughter-in-law of Clarence Darrow), Miss Jessie Barry of Chicago, and Miss Nellie Carlin of Wilmette, are leaving Saturday to motor to Wooster, Ohio, to see Martha Johnson Scott graduate from the College of Wooster.

Mrs. L. B. Green of Louisville, Ky., left last Sunday for her home after a week's visit with her brother's family, the E. B. Snyders, 1444 Lake avenue. This Sunday Mrs. Snyder's brother and wife and their two children, the G. W. Smiths of Bastrop, La., are coming for an indefinite visit. They are going to attend the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Andrews and children, Barrett and Nancy, of Bronxville, N. Y., arrived Sunday to spend the summer with Mrs. Andrews' parents, the M. J. P. Barretts of 533 Forest avenue.

Gordon Cutler, 207 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, who is finishing his freshman year at Princeton, will visit a friend in Baltimore for a short time before coming home for the summer.

Harriet Webster, 1601 Tenth street, a student at Connecticut college, will be in the Court of Honor at commencement. She does not return to Wilmette until next week.
