

Former Residents Are Given Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gustafson, formerly of 233 Wood court, Wilmette, were surprised with a housewarming party at their new residence, 582 Provident avenue, Winnetka, recently by seventy-five members of the First Evangelical church of Winnetka. Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson moved from Wilmette the middle of May. Mrs. Gustafson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilbert of Wilmette, were the guests of honor.

The party was an expression of appreciation for the many services rendered the church by Mr. Gustafson, and a means of welcoming him and his family into the community. Mr. Gustafson has been actively affiliated with the church for some time, and for the past few years has given his services as choir director. As a result of his leadership the choir has grown steadily, and in addition to its regular choir work has presented several very successful concerts.

TO WIN DOCTOR'S DEGREE

Miss Thelma Beatrice Mancinelli of 1010 Sheridan road, will receive her Doctor's degree in optometry on Friday, June 9, from the Northern Illinois College of Optometry. Miss Mancinelli formerly attended Northwestern, at which university she received her preparatory work. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and is also past president of her optometric sorority, Pi Kappa Rho.

DEMONSTRATE PLANE

A new Kinner with collapsible wings dropped in at Sky Harbor airport last week for demonstration purposes. The ship had come from the Kinner factory.

FLIES TO RACES

M. C. Meigs of the American Weekly went to Indianapolis for the races on Memorial day. He made the trip in a Stinson rented from Sky Harbor airport.

Harvey A. Craig, 716 Lake avenue, sailed Friday on the Volendam of the Holland American line from New York for London. His daughter, Daphne, will leave June 26, for Camp Nagawicka at Delafield, Wis., where she will spend the summer. James Craig will spend his third summer at Owakonz camp, leaving June 18. The younger boys, Norman and Roger, are leaving the end of June for St. John's camp at Delafield, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Schwartz of New York are guests of Mrs. Schwartz' sister and family, the Louis Suekoffs of 819 Chestnut avenue. They came to Wilmette to attend the confirmation of Rosehelen Suekoff and were guests, with the 150 others, at the buffet supper which the Suekoffs gave in honor of Rosehelen.

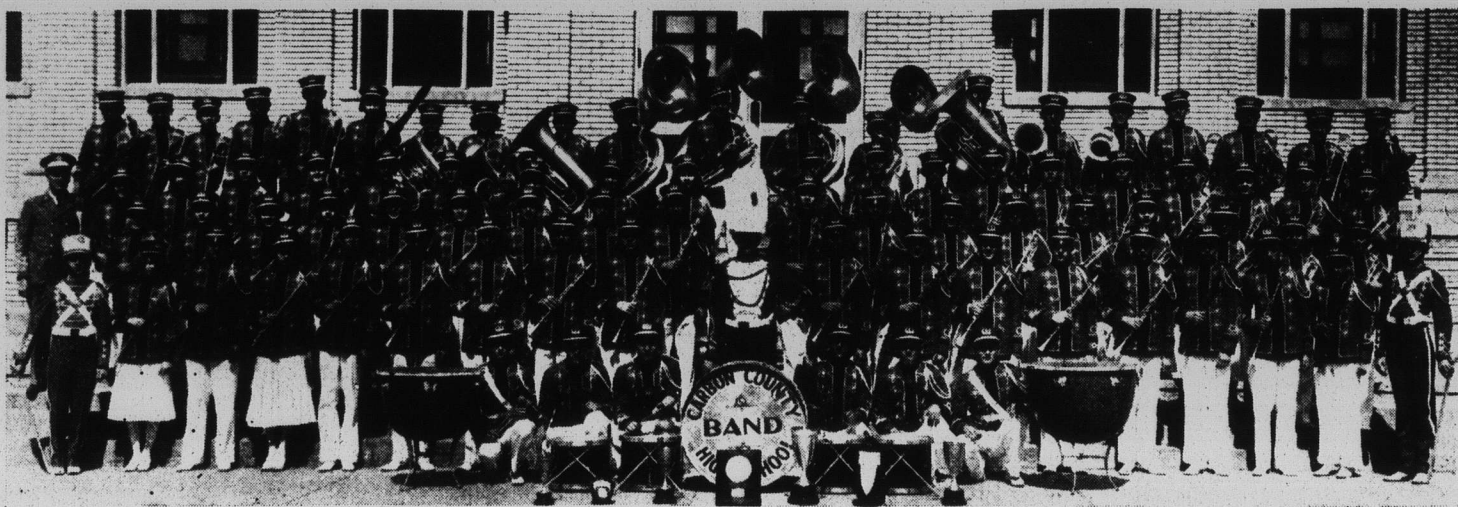

Miss Barbara Crowe, 234 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, is home for the summer. She recently graduated from Briarcliffe school, Briarcliffe Manor, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Hutson, 1112 Elmwood avenue, returned last Friday from a week's motor trip through Indiana, visiting Turkey Run and French Lick Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Loucks, 234 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, entertained their bridge club at dinner Tuesday.

Gordon Cutler, 207 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, will visit a classmate in Baltimore before returning from his summer vacation from Princeton.

Utah Town Sends Champion Band From Greatest Distance

This band from Price, Utah, has the distinction not only of holding the championship of its state but also of coming the greatest distance to take part in the national contest in Evanston. It represents the Carbon County High school of Price, and it will compete in class A. Its membership of 82 is coming nearly 1,500 miles.

To Visit Wellesley on Motor Trip Through East

Mrs. William Balhatchet, 725 Tenth street, is leaving Thursday of this week to motor to Wellesley college to meet her daughter, Elizabeth, who is completing her freshman year. Driving east with Mrs. Balhatchet are Charlotte and Jane Waltz of Glencoe, Margaret Boynton of Winnetka and Betty Mulford of Wilmette, Wellesley alumnae who are returning for their class reunion. Betty Mulford will remain in the East to visit a classmate of hers in Boston. The other members of the party, together with Elizabeth Balhatchet and Anne Boyd Linn of Wilmette who is a freshman at Vassar, will return with Mrs. Balhatchet. The party will go east by way of Canada, and will motor home leisurely through the states, visiting the various college campuses.

HONORS BRIDE-TO-BE

Mrs. Frank Stoerp of Prairie View, Ill., entertained at a miscellaneous shower and bridge tea on Tuesday of last week in honor of Miss Verna Iverson of Winnetka who is to be married on June 10, to Anthony Ludovice of Kenilworth.

Mrs. George Fraser, Mrs. Boyd Anderson (Helen Fraser), Doris, and Agnes "Babe," 645 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth, left Friday of last week to motor to Annapolis to attend June week. They will also visit New York and spend several weeks in Boston, visiting Lieutenant and Mrs. John H. Spiller and children. Mrs. Spiller is the former Hazel Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Coté, 323 Oak circle, are leaving today by motor for Omaha, Neb., to attend the marriage of their niece, Miss Lucille Coté, and Herbert Hudson, both of Omaha. They will be home next Tuesday.

Mrs. Ella Ambuhl, who makes her home with her daughter, and family, the Staver Mouldings of 934 Oakwood avenue, returned Tuesday from a four weeks' visit with another daughter and family, the Harold Johnsons, in Omaha.

Robert Welterer, nine-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Frederic Welterer, 220 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, is in the Children's Memorial hospital, having undergone an operation for appendicitis on Monday.

Richard Cooke, 355 Kenilworth avenue, returned Friday from Bethlehem, Pa., where he attends Lehigh university.

Legion Auxiliary

Wilmette Unit 46

Monday evening, June 12, at 8:15 o'clock, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, 322 Fourteenth street, will be hostess at the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. E. V. Cullison, fidac chairman, has arranged a most interesting program. One of our members, Mrs. Haig Kashian, will give a talk on Turkey. Mrs. R. H. A. Green has sent us a fascinating account of her recent trip through French Morocco, which will be read by Mrs. C. B. Cochran. This is the last meeting until fall and all members are urged to attend.

The last sewing meeting until September is to be at Mrs. O. G. Daily's, 618 Tenth street, Thursday evening, June 15.

Mrs. B. C. Wilson of Morgantown, W. Va., left Saturday after a visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bayliss of 610 Central avenue. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bayliss of Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. W. G. Bayliss of Charleston, W. Va., left Tuesday, motoring home after a visit with the Bayliss family.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hemmelmann of St. Louis, Mo., spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, the Laurence Schwabs who have recently moved from Chicago to 627 Warwick road, Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Newport of 520 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth, and their two grandsons, Charles, Jr., and David Rockcastle, returned Friday motoring home from Seneca, Ill., where they visited Mr. Newport's sister, Miss Ida Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baumbogger and two children of Chicago have leased the Carl Huck home at 605 Essex road, Kenilworth, for the summer. The Hucks have gone to their summer home at Trout Lake, Wis.

Mrs. E. O. Essig and her daughter, Mary Isabel, of Berkeley, Cal., will spend several weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of 925 Greenwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Allen, 258 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, have as their house guest, Mrs. William Allen of Davenport, Iowa.

The Ralph T. Huff family of 706 Washington avenue are leaving next week for their summer place at Delavan Lake, Wis.

R. M. Johnston Speaker at N. W. Men's Club Meeting

R. M. Johnston, Wilmette realtor, addressed the Northwest Men's club at its regular meeting Monday evening, June 5, held at the home of Anthony Kyle, 1931 Schiller street, on the general subject of the mortgage situation as it applies to the small home owner. He explained legislation now pending in Congress relative to loans on small homes. His talk concluded with an open forum discussion.

Plans for a club picnic were arranged at the meeting this week.

The club is organizing a soft ball team which expects to find competition with other groups in the village.

GOING TO SCOTLAND

Last Monday evening a few friends and acquaintances gathered at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Wiseman, 726 Eleventh street, to bid bon voyage to Mrs. J. Mackill, 1343 Ridge road, who sails this Saturday for a visit to her former home in Scotland. Mrs. Mackill is returning to Wilmette the last of August.

Harry Weese, Jr., 141 Kenilworth avenue, entertained his orchestra, the Weese-Holmes orchestra, at dinner Saturday. Harry's young brother, Benny, also entertained on Saturday a group of neighbor children in honor of his fourth birthday.

Mrs. O. P. Olson, 736 Roger avenue, entertained at a bridge luncheon Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. I. Vogel of Saginaw, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snell of Wilmette were dinner guests of the Olsons on Tuesday.

Miss Louise Humphries of 519 Gregory avenue, who is a student in the Training School for Nurses at St. Francis hospital, has passed her probation period. Her sister, Miss Olive is entering training at the same hospital on June 19.

Jane Nystrom, 714 Central avenue, entertained at tea Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Charles Long of Framingham, Mass., who is visiting her mother in Ravinia.

Lawrence Lawson of Los Angeles, Cal., and William Stockton of Geneva, Ill., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fatch of 611 Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Hillsberg, 1220 Gregory avenue, spent the week-end and Memorial day with friends in Madison, Wis.