Show in July Open to All North Shore

The nine committee chairmen for the flower show sponsored by the Winnetka Garden club met Tuesday morning at the home of the general chairman, Mrs. Robert H. Gardner, 94 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, to complete plans for the approaching exhibition. The show is to take place Saturday and Sunday, July 8 and 9, at the James Kellogg estate, 80 Locust road, and the club hopes that garden lovers from all north shore towns will take advantage of the invitation to exhibit, as all classes will be open to everyone interested. Entry blanks may be secured from Mrs. Gardner, the club announces.

The various committee heads are: Mrs. William O. Green, publicity; Mrs. William D. Truesdale, boxes; Mrs. Willoughby Walling, arrangement of exhibits; Mrs. Roger Sherman, receiving of exhibits; Mrs. Austin Jenner, gate admissions; Mrs. Samuel McCaulley, checking out; Mrs. Charles Strong, carts; Mrs. Rudolph Matz, printing; Mrs. Alice Drake Miller, judges.

The board members of the club also are working for the success of the flower show which will this year, at least, replace the Garden market of former summers. Serving on the board this season are Mrs. Langdon Pearse, Mrs. Rudolph Matz, Mrs. Arch Shaw, Mrs. Hallett Thorne, Mrs. Robert Gardner, Mrs. Alice Drake Miller, Mrs. Frederick Scott, and Mrs. Harold S. Dorothy Graham Sets

July 12 for Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stevens Graham of Glencoe have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Thomas Rogers Wigglesworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wesley Wigglesworth of Kenilworth, on Wednesday, July 12.

The ceremony will take place at the Glencoe Union church at 8:30 in the evening, with the Rev. Douglas Hawley Cornell officiating. The reception is to be held at Skokie Country club.

Miss Graham's list of attendants is not as yet completed, but will be announced at a later date.

"Share Your Flowers"

Is Garden Club Plea

The Evening Garden club of Wilmette, which cooperates with the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit guild in its efforts to supply flowers to the hospitals of Chicago and to other places where they are needed and appreciated, has appointed Mrs. Wilfred Gillies of 1729 Washington avenue chairman of this work.

"The guild," the club announces, "is an organization which systematically collects these gifts of flowers, fruits, and vegetables, and distributes them so they are shared by those who will most appreciate them. Receiving booths are maintained at the railroad stations and other places in the city. For Wilmette and other north shore people, there is a booth at the North Western station at the east end of the train shed. Or if you do not go down to the city, the flowers may be left at the North Western station in Wilmette and trainmen will see that they are taken care of.

"Tuesdays are especially designated as Wilmette day. If you have surplus flowers, this is wonderful use to make of them."

June 24 Is Wedding Day of Three N. S. Girls

Three among other north shore weddings taking place Saturday, June 24, are those of Miss Esther Sprenger of Kenilworth, Miss El-Nora Weld of Winnetka, and Miss Elizabeth Pearson of Wilmette.

Miss Spenger will be married to Dr. William McEwen at 8:30 o'clock in the evening in the Kenilworth Union church, with a small reception following at the home of her mother, Mrs. William T. Sprenger, 537 Earlston road.

Miss Weld will also be an evening bride. She will marry Lewis Vernon Trabert of Evanston at the North Shore Methodist church in Glencoe, and her parents, the Chester H. Welds, will hold the reception at their home immediately afterwards.

Miss Pearson will be married to Henry George Ronald White, son of Major and Mrs. H. H. R. White of London, England, and Lougheske Castle, Donegal county, Ireland, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pearson, 2009 Thornwood avenue.

Entertain at Vista

Mr. and Mrs. Carbon P. Dubbs, 1004 Michigan avenue, entertained a group of friends at the dinner dance at Vista del Lago club last Saturday night. Their guests were Judge and Mrs. Oscar Hebel, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guthridge, and Mr. and Mrs. John Brashears. At the same time, their son, Carbon, Jr., was host to ten of his friends.

Entertains Athletes

Miss Sally Clark, 418 Ninth street, was hostess at a tea last Sunday in honor of three athletes from Leland Stanford university who were competing in the Intercollegiate track meet at Soldier field. The guests of honor were Bill Miller, Gus Meier, hurdler, and Henri LaBorde, discus thrower.

Luncheon for Visitors

Mrs. W. Whitaker Baer, 2115 Beechwood avenue, entertained at a luncheon Friday, June 16, for Mrs. Omer Dahm, a former resident now living in St. Louis. Mrs. Dahm is visiting her mother in Chicago.

Helps With Show

Mrs. Langdon Pearse, pictured in the garden of her home at 3 Golf lane, Winnetka, is serving her second term as president of the Winnetka Garden club, which is sponsoring a flower show to take place Saturday and Sunday, July 8 and 9.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kellogg have given the club permission to hold the show on the grounds of their estate at 80 Locust road. Entry in the exhibition is open to gardeners from the entire north shore, and blanks may be secured from the general chairman, Mrs. Robert Gardner, 94 Indian Hill road, Winnetka.

Dunshee-Bower Wedding to Take Place Saturday

The wedding of Miss Esther A. Dunshee and Lorin A. Bower, both of Wilmette, will take place Saturday afternoon, June 24, at the Bower residence, 1216 Ashland avenue. The Rev. John G. Hindley of the Congregational church will read the marriage service at 4 o'clock.

There will be only two attendants, the bride's sister, Miss Marion E. Dunshee, and Miss Helen Bower.

Last Sunday afternoon Mrs. James L. Surpluss of 212 Eighteenth street was hostess at a tea from 4 until 6, in honor of Miss Dunshee and Mr. Bower. Pouring during the tea hours were Mrs. James Surpluss, Mrs. L. R. N. Sweet, Mrs. Charles Eldridge, Miss Helen Bower, Miss Virginia Bixby, and Miss Ruth Shellman.

For Bride-to-Be

Miss Dorothy Wiedlin of 120 Park avenue entertained Wednesday, June 14, at an evening bridge and miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Dorothy Boyington of Winnetka who will be married soon.

HOSTESSES AT SKOKIE

Mrs. Elizabeth Klotz Bennett and Mrs. May C. Petersen are hostesses for the month of June at Skokie Golf club. Guest day will be the last Friday in the month.

Women Golfers to Qualify Soon for July Tournaments

July will be tournament month for women golfers at several of the north shore golf clubs, with qualifying rounds for the July trophy starting within the next few weeks.

At the North Shore Golf club the qualifying round for the July match will be played off Tuesday, June 27, the last Tuesday of the month. The event will be match play. Tuesday of this week was guest day at North Shore, with a special buffet luncheon served. Mrs. William H. Molter and Mrs. Robert J. Fellingham, both of Evanston, are chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of women's golf events.

Players in the qualifying round for next month's trophy at the Wilmette Golf club will tee off the second Tuesday in July, with all three classes the entrants. Guest day at the club is Friday, June 23. A special guest at that time will be Mrs. E. C. Bedell, now of Akron, Ohio, a former member and a former woman's golf title holder at the Wilmette Golf club.

She is visiting Mrs. Harriet Shipp of 1226 Maple avenue, chairman of women's golf, and holder of the present title. Before moving to Akron, Mrs. Bedell won the woman's championship match from Mrs. Shipp.

Westmoreland sets apart the last Friday in the month for guests. Today at the club mixed foursome events are scheduled, with special prizes for men and women players. Mrs. Arthur J. Lindsley of Kenilworth is chairman of women's golf events.

Flower Guild Seeking Donations From Wilmette

Flowers or plants, or fruits or vegetables, or all of these, are eagerly desired in Wilmette every Tuesday for the Flower, Plant, and Fruit guild, for distribution among the wards in city hospitals, to charitable institutions, and to underprivileged homes in Chicago. All residents of the village are invited by the guild to share the products of their gardens with those who have none, or are asked to make gifts of either canned or fresh fruits and vegetables. Their donations may be left at the North Western station here not later than 8:30 o'clock every Tuesday morning.

If those having gifts to offer are unable to deliver them to the station, they may notify Mrs. W. Wallace Kerr of 707 Forest avenue on Monday, and she will collect them. Mrs. Kerr is Plant, Fruit, and Flower guild chairman for the Wilmette Garden club which acts as a Wilmette agent for the guild in collecting and sending the donations into the booth at the North Western terminal in Chicago, where they are distributed.

Guests of Honor

Mrs. Walter D. Launder, 230 Oxford road, Kenilworth, will be hostess at a dinner on Saturday evening, June 24, for Mrs. Catherine Boettcher Owen and her brother, Henry Boettcher of Chicago. Mrs. Owen is a composer and pianist and Mr. Boettcher is here on a short vacation from Yale university and is on his way to Cape Cod, where he is assisting director of the Cape Cod Little theater. There will also be music at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Cline, 304 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, later in the evening.
