

Zeta Phi Eta to Hold Convention During Next Week

Zeta Phi Eta, national speech sorority, will have its national bi-annual convention in Evanston next week with headquarters at the Alpha Chi Omega house. More than a hundred out-of-town officers and delegates are expected to attend. The convention will be held from Sunday to Friday, and an extensive program has been arranged for those attending.

On Monday afternoon Miss Lois McSloy will give a demonstration and lecture on the Speech Correction clinic at Northwestern university. This will be followed by a lecture-program with choral reading by Miss Kennedy, also of the university. That night there will be a dinner at the Moraine hotel in Highland Park, at which Miss Mary Agnes Doyle of the Goodman theater will give a reading. The guest of honor for the evening will be Thornton Wilder.

A radio program will be given on Tuesday afternoon at the Goodman theater with such artists as Clara, Lu, and Em, Joan Blaine, radio announcer, Judy Barker, and Alice Schonlau on the program. All are members of Zeta Phi Eta. Miss Doyle will conduct the group through the theater. Dinner will be at the World's Fair, and guests of honor then will be Katherine Krug and Ashton Stevens.

Winifred Ward will give a lecture and demonstration on creative drama at Annie May Swift hall, following which Dean Ralph B. Dennis will give a reading entitled "Salvaging Beauty." A hundred outstanding people on the north shore have been invited to this program, the only one open to outsiders. The sorority's formal banquet will be held that evening at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Thursday morning at the Congregational church in Evanston the National Poetry Speaking contest will be held with Thornton Wilder, Miss Doyle, Miss Editha Parsons of Syracuse, N. Y., and Lois Secor of Breman college, Georgia, as judges.

There will be a luncheon and round table discussion which will be attended by Lew Sarett, and that afternoon Mr. Sarett will give a program at the School of Speech.

The closing meeting on Friday evening will be a banquet on the Orington hotel roof at which the final awards of the poetry contest will be made and various other awards for distinguished service in the sorority will be made. Mrs. Ralph Dennis, wife of Dean Dennis, will be made an associate member.

League Study Class to Discuss Institute

The Wilmette League of Women Voters study group will hold the third of its meetings for the study of the causes of war, in the home of Mrs. G. T. Hellmuth, 1700 Forest avenue, on Friday afternoon, June 30, at 2:30 o'clock. "Under the able leadership of Mrs. Lawrence Cole of Winnetka, an enthusiastic and interested group," the publicity chairman announces, "is to hear the lectures in connection with the Mid-West Institute of International Relations, a twelve-day course conducted in Evanston at Northwestern university, and report back to the Wilmette group. General discussion of these reports will then follow." Mrs. John Clark Baker is chairman of the department sponsoring this study class.

Mrs. Edwin Hedrick, 304 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, will give a kitchen shower on Monday, June 26, for Miss Marjorie Oleson, who is to be married in August.

Marjorie Smith Will Be Married Saturday

The chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Evanston, will be the scene of the marriage this Saturday afternoon of Miss Marjorie Colborne Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wood Smith of 337 Washington avenue, Wilmette, and Edward L. Goff. The ceremony will be performed at 2 o'clock by Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle. Only relatives and a few close friends of the families will attend the marriage and the reception following in the church parlors.

The bride will have as her maid of honor Miss Elizabeth Peoples of Cincinnati, and as her bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Lawson and Miss Lenore Rennert of Wilmette. Three college friends of Mr. Goff will attend him. They include Herbert Cockerell, best man, and Steven Gaskin and Oliver Hall, ushers, all of Evanston. Before the wedding service Mrs. Harold R. Sherman of Wilmette, contralto, will sing several selections.

During their honeymoon the bride and bridegroom will go on a motor trip in Wisconsin and will later make their home in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will give the bridal dinner at the Georgian hotel on Friday.

Opens Home and Garden to Aid Hoosier Salon

Mrs. Ross J. Beatty, 260 Ravine drive, Highland Park, will open her home on Tuesday, June 27, at 12:30 o'clock, for a benefit luncheon, garden party and bridge for the Hoosier Salon Patrons association of which she is a very active member. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, after which a tour of the garden will be made.

Mrs. Mary Ann Kaufman Brown, widely known concert singer from Cincinnati, will give a short program of songs depicting those of one-hundred years ago, closing her program with modern music. Herman Devries, music critic, says of Mrs. Brown, "I have not often heard a soprano voice that pleases me more than that of Mrs. Mary Ann Kaufman Brown. She has temperament, talent, expression and style."

Following the program, bridge will be played. North shore residents are invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Edgar C. Carter of 504 Sheridan place, Highland Park.

Junior Dance Chaperons

Sunset Ridge club holds its first of a series of four junior formal dances Saturday evening of this week under the direction of Miss Jessie L. Pock of Evanston. Four Winnetkans, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Gooder and Mr. and Mrs. John Lindeman, have consented to be chaperons for this party.

The Sunset Ridge Country club "get acquainted tournament," to be held Saturday, will consist of four-somes playing only two balls each, and is open only to the men at the club. The next important event on the Sunset Ridge calendar, aside from the bridge tournament each Friday and women's golf day Tuesday, is the Fourth of July dinner dance, to take place July 1.

Hostess to Club Group

Mrs. Harvey A. Bush of 721 Greenwood avenue was hostess to the subcommittee of the membership committee of the Woman's Club of Wilmette at luncheon and bridge Tuesday of last week. This group consists of the last five presidents of the club.

Only Immediate Families at Haack-Rowland Wedding

A quiet home wedding last Saturday afternoon united Miss Elizabeth Haack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Haack, 1228 Gregory avenue, and Clarence Rowland, Jr., of Chicago. The bride wore a white organdie afternoon dress and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, white roses, and lilies of the valley with long, white satin streamers. Her only attendant, her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Haack of Niles Center, wore pale blue organdie and held a bouquet of gardenias. Raymond Nylan of Chicago served Mr. Rowland as best man.

The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John G. Hindley, took place in the library before the bay window. A background of garden flowers formed the improvised altar. Only the immediate families attended the marriage and the informal reception held afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland are on a motor trip in the East and Canada. They will be at home after July 10, at 538 Michigan avenue, Evanston.

Women Voters Attend Mid-West Institute

The Mid-West Institute of International Relations, a twelve day course for public and private school teachers, ministers, field, and local peace workers, college students, and others interested in promoting world peace, is being held at Northwestern university in Evanston from June 19-30.

Classes will be held in the morning, round tables in the afternoon, and lectures in the evening. Two similar institutes will be held at Duke university and at Wellesley college.

Enrollment is limited to two hundred.

Evening lectures will be held in the Great hall of the Methodist church in Evanston, and are open to the general public. Mrs. Shelby Singleton, Mrs. John Clark Baker, Mrs. H. T. Reiling, Mrs. John Behr, Mrs. Ralph Potter, Mrs. J. Melville Brown, Mrs. Ira Reynolds, Mrs. G. T. Hellmuth, and Mrs. Donald Maxwell of the Wilmette League of Women Voters, will attend some of the evening sessions.

Celebrate Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Driver, 423 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth, gave a dinner for twenty-two guests Saturday evening at the Vista del Lago in celebration of Mrs. Driver's birthday. Their daughter, Beatrice Driver, came home from Wellesley Wednesday of last week.

Sponsors Garden Party

The philanthropy committee of the North Shore Woman's club is sponsoring a garden party at the home of Mrs. Owen O'Malley, 5856 Forest Glen avenue, Chicago on Thursday, June 22, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Alfred A. Kanberg is philanthropy chairman.

DINNER DANCE AT SKOKIE

Skokie Country club's opening dinner dance of the season will be held Saturday evening, June 24. Other dances will follow, every Saturday throughout the season. Dinner is served from 7 until 9 o'clock. Wade Coffing's Arcadians will supply the music.

Mrs. Thomas White, 310 Richmond road, Kenilworth, entertained a bridge foursome at luncheon Wednesday.

Mrs. George Bird, 1010 Chestnut avenue, entertained an eight-some on Tuesday at the bridge luncheon at Skokie Country club.

Names Patronesses of Lecture-Recitals on Favorite Operas

Miss Rutheda L. Pretzel 1035 Bluff road, Glencoe, will give a lecture-recital on Massenet's opera, "Manon," Monday morning, June 26, at her home, at 10:45 o'clock. Miss Helen Hedges, soprano, and Ludlow White, baritone, are the assisting artists. This is the first of a series of seven lecture-recitals to be given on consecutive Monday mornings.

Miss Hedges (Mrs. Herbert W. Stoetzel of Glencoe) has been enthusiastically praised by critics throughout the country for the unusually beautiful quality of her lyric voice, and for her charming personality. She is to sing three of Manon's arias. Mr. White, who made his debut recital in Chicago last month, is said by critics to be a young artist of exceptional talent.

Patronesses for the series are Mrs. A. I. Appleton and Mrs. William H. White of Evanston; Mrs. George M. Adams, Mrs. Winifred Townsend Cree, Mrs. R. V. Robinson, Mrs. Roland D. Whitman, of Winnetka; Mrs. Amuel B. Spach, of Kenilworth, and Mesdames Frederick E. Clarke, William A. Fox, John A. Grant, H. W. Guettler, F. E. Hubbard, Walter C. Hughes, Walter L. Jackson, Ivor Jeffreys, Charles S. Lewis, Jr., W. B. Manchester, Victor Nelson, Warner R. Nelson, Dwight C. Orcutt, George E. Orr, H. M. Paynter, C. F. Pearce, Jr., George J. Pope, Sperry B. Pope, Gordon Ramsay, E. J. Sherwin, Gordon L. Sibley, Thomas I. Simpson, John R. Smith, Howard F. Spurgeon, Charles J. Stromberg, Ernest E. White, of Glencoe.

Lincolnwood O. E. S. Gives Carnival June 24

Lincolnwood chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is celebrating its tenth birthday anniversary by giving a carnival Saturday afternoon and evening, June 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil W. Coel, 2230 Central street, Evanston. The other members of the committee are Mrs. C. J. Schmidt and Mrs. G. H. Flanningam, Mrs. J. Benton Schaub, matron, and Claude A. McJohnston, patron, assisted by other members of the organization.

There will be no entrance fee to the grounds and everyone is cordially invited to attend. Various kinds of entertainment, including fortune teller, games, and dancing, will be offered. Hot and cold beverages will be served and a plate dinner will be offered at a reasonable price. There will be booths displaying various articles, including fancy work, food, and candy.

The committee hopes to make this an occasion both enjoyable and profitable, it announces.

Fete Bride-to-Be

Miss Elizabeth Sackett of Evanston, whose marriage to David Crocker, also of Evanston, takes place Tuesday, June 27, is being entertained by friends in Wilmette prior to her wedding. Mrs. Franklin Bowes of 1140 Greenwood avenue is giving a small tea for Miss Sackett Friday afternoon of this week, and Miss Genevieve Smithers of 711 Lake avenue was hostess at a lingerie shower and tea in her honor Wednesday, June 7.

Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Perkins of Endeavor, Wis., are visiting their daughter's family, the Knight Blanchards of 1015 Chestnut avenue. On Friday of this week Mrs. Blanchard is giving a luncheon.