

Texas Polo Team Meets Army Men at Fort Sunday

Commencing Sunday, July 2, will see one of the biggest week-ends of polo and horse activities that has ever been seen at Fort Sheridan. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the famous El Ranchito polo quartet from Arlington, Texas, will play the first of a three-game series with Fort Sheridan. This Texas team has been playing Oak Brook for the past two weeks where it was victorious in both games, and the Fort Sheridan team, which will compete with the Texans Sunday is also undefeated. In other words, this match will put two of the highest goal undefeated teams in the middle west on the field, and will undoubtedly be a battle from start to finish.

The El Ranchitos have come to Chicago with about fifty head of their very best polo ponies, and, needless to say, they have no desire of facing defeat.

Monday morning, Monday afternoon, Tuesday morning, and Tuesday afternoon, will be the much heralded and welcomed Sixth Corps Area Horse show on the beautiful Fort Sheridan Horse Show grounds facing Lake Michigan. Following the Fourth of July afternoon horse show, the second of the three-game series between Fort Sheridan and the El Ranchitos will be played on the Fort Sheridan polo field commencing at 6 o'clock. These three big days will give all horse loving people an opportunity to see some of the best horses in the country in action.

The lineup will be:

El Ranchito—A. B. Wharton; Fort Sheridan—Lt. G. S. Smith.

El Ranchito—Alfred House; Fort Sheridan—Capt. C. A. Wilkinson.

El Ranchito—Cecil Childers; Fort Sheridan—Capt. C. E. Davis.

El Ranchito—D. H. Stevens, Jr.; Fort Sheridan—Lt. L. G. Smith.

TO ADOPT ORPHAN

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morgan 925 Forest avenue, will be among twenty people on the north shore who will attend the graduation exercises today at the Orphanage at Mooseheart, Ill. The Morgans will "adopt" Harold Beckwith, 18, who is among the graduates, and who will make his future home with the Morgans. On Sunday Mrs. Morgan, her daughter, Miss Esther, and Harold will motor to Doniphan, Mo., to make a three weeks' visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Eva Stillwell.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Schwartz of Flushing, N. Y., returned Monday after spending six weeks with Mrs. Schwartz' sister and family, the Louis Suekoffs of 819 Chestnut avenue. They came to attend the confirmation of Rosehelen Suekoff early in May. They attended A Century of Progress quite often.

Noel Statham of New York, who has been visiting A Century of Progress the past ten days, was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harris of 944 Sheridan road. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Patterson and children, Doyle, Elaine, and Harris, will be their guests this week-end.

Mrs. A. T. Pyfer, 524 Fifteenth street, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Pyfer of Oak Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Pyfer of Evanston attended the Pyfer reunion at Polo, Ill., on June 18. Sixty were there.

Mrs. R. L. Ebbert, 211 Seventeenth street, entertained at a baby shower Wednesday of last week in honor of Mrs. W. W. Harris, 832 Greenwood avenue. The party was given at Mrs. Harris' home.

HAS HOUSE GUESTS

Miss Betty Mulford of 835 Elmwood avenue has as her house guests Miss Elinor Blackburn of Coco Solo, Panama Canal Zone, daughter of Capt. Paul Blackburn, U. S. N., and Miss Eileen McCann of Boston. Both girls were Wellesley college friends of Miss Mulford. Miss Blackburn will spend about six weeks in Wilmette and Miss McCann will be here for a week.

Miss Phyllis Moulton of Lexington, Mass., has been a recent guest of Margaret Korrady of 430 Essex road, Kenilworth.
