

Skokie Cardinals Lose Slugfest to Rogers Park Nine

The Wilmette Skokie Cardinals lost last Sunday to their ancient rivals, Rogers Park, by a score of 14 to 12. It was the first defeat the local baseball team suffered in the last four meetings with the Rogers Park club. It was a long, grueling contest and the heat had telling effect on both players and spectators.

Schlueter started for Wilmette and Rogers Park opened the first inning with a barrage of hits that netted six runs and gave them a lead which they held throughout the entire contest. Schlueter then held the opposition in check until the fourth inning. Wilmette came back in the second and third innings to score four runs and Rogers Park retaliated with three runs in the fourth. At this point Schlueter withdrew in favor of Lindquist, going to right field to replace Davidson. Walters started for Rogers Park and stayed until the fifth inning when he lost his effectiveness and his control began to waiver and Johnny Roemer, formerly with Wilmette, was rushed to the rescue. Roemer finished the contest and managed to hold the lead that had been gained in the early innings of the contest.

Kilby, Wahl, and Rudolph did the heavy hitting for Wilmette supported by Nord who collected the longest hit of the day with a hard drive in to left field which was good for a triple.

No games have been scheduled for the coming Sunday and July 4 as traveling games are being contemplated for these dates.

Rose Bampton, Opera Star, to Sing Friday

Rose Bampton, young star of the Metropolitan Opera company, makes her first local appearance this Friday when she is heard in a song recital in the Summer Artists series under the auspices of the University of Chicago in Leon Mandel hall.

A voice of phenomenal beauty and range, plus an artistry which few attain at any years, have brought this singer, who is still in her early twenties, to the very top of the musical ladder in this country during the past season. Engagements with the leading opera, oratorio, and symphony organizations in America have been hers.

During her Chicago stay, Miss Bampton will be the guest of the Ernest Fleischmanns of Leicestershire road, Kenilworth.

RECIPE for a nice 'lazy evening on your porch:
A good smoke, your favorite magazine, and plenty of light beside your easy chair.

THE COST: Only 16 cents. (Just a penny of this total pays for the electricity that lights the reading lamp for 2 hours.)

This little recipe may be varied in a number of pleasant ways. Substitute a table of bridge, a jigsaw puzzle, a new book. But always the ingredient of good light is necessary. And always it costs remarkably little. One or two or three cents' worth of electricity will illuminate your porch or your living room for an entire evening.
