Adopt Novel Plan to Secure Funds for Church Needs

Out of the economic depression is coming a more effective business organization for the churches and a more aggressive financial system. This was revealed with the announcement from the office of Bishop George Craig Stewart of a novel plan for reinforcing the financial status not only of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago as a whole but of all of the approximately 150 churches in the diocese individually, including St. Augustine's church in Wilmette, Christ church in Winnetka and St. Elisabeth's church in Glencoe.

The plan is to be known as the "Bishop's Pence" and will center around the distribution of small banks or containers to each family in the diocese. Into these banks the family is asked to deposit one cent at each meal; three cents per day or approximately $11 per year. The deposit is intended as a thank offering. On the basis of estimates drawn up by Bishop Stewart, it will be possible to obtain approximately $400,000 per year through this method. The contributions, under terms of the plan worked out, will be distributed equally between the city-wide and the parish organizations, after administrative costs have been deducted.

The pence plan will be formally inaugurated in September when some 25,000 containers will be distributed as the first allotment. To make certain of support for the plan, Bishop Stewart discussed it with clergy of the diocese, with his city-wide council and with other groups.

The Rev. Hubert Carleton, rector of St. Augustine's church in Wilmette, and R. W. McCandlish, of Wilmette, president of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Chicago, are members of the Bishop's Pence commission which is in charge of the enterprise.

TO TRADE

Valuable Corporation Stock for Equity or Rental

Valuable Corporation Stock exchanged for equity or rent. I own 50% of the stock in a $15,000 corporation. All during this depression this corporation has carried itself. It will not be necessary to make any financial investment. The corporation is practically clear of all indebtedness. It is an item sold through the drug stores, the large chain stores and practically every good golf club in the Illinois district. If you have a boy 23 or 24 years old here is an opportunity to put him in a business in which only his efforts are necessary. After three weeks this business will pay him a nice living. I cannot work it because of other interests but I want to trade it for an equity in a house or rental. The house must be near a school. Address Howard Black, Room 700, 54 W. Illinois Street, Chicago.
