Wilmette Patrons Will See Janet's New Leading Man

For the first time in more than two years Janet Gaynor is "all dressed up" in "Adorable," her latest Fox film production in which she is co-starred with Henry Garat, charming young international favorite. The picture is to be presented at the Wilmette theater Friday and Saturday of this week.

Not since "Sunny Side Up," in which she played the role of a working girl who was introduced to exclusive Long Island society, has Miss Gaynor had a role with a wardrobe that could compare with the two dozen elaborate costumes she wears in her new romantic comedy with music. She has costumes for the street, for skating, tea gowns, dinner gowns, ball gowns and breath-taking negligees which a princess would envy.

In "Adorable" Miss Gaynor has the role of a lovely girl who does the wooing and the winning of a handsome soldier of the guard. Henry Garat's role is said to give him a splendid occasion for his American motion picture debut.

In connection with the showing of "Adorable," the Wilmette theater also will present this Friday and Saturday a comedy, "The Plumber and the Lady."

Film Broadway Play

"I Loved You Wednesday," the Fox screen presentation of the successful Broadway play of the same name, with a cast of notable screen personalities, will have a one-day showing at the Wilmette on Sunday, September 3. Henry King, director of the sensation-ally popular "State Fair," is said to have duplicated his success with this film, in which his all-star cast includes Warner Baxter, Elissa Landi, Miriam Jordan, Victor Jory and Laura Hope Crews.

The story revolves around the glamorous figure of a ballet dancer in Paris who, seeking to heal the wounds left by an unfortunate love affair, goes to South America to launch on a professional dancing career. There she meets a handsome engineer who falls in love with her. Their work separates them, but they meet later in New York, each of them having a measure of fame. They are about to embark on a honeymoon trip aboard his yacht, when her Paris lover puts in a sudden appearance and complicates matters.

Two unusual features of the film are the Dance of the Maidens and a dramatization of the work at Boulder dam. The dance, participated in by hundreds of Hollywood beauties, is said to be the most elaborate of its kind ever presented in a screen story.

Powell Is Detective Again

"Private Detective 62" will be the Labor day attraction at the Wilmette next Monday. It is also to be shown on Tuesday, September 5. William Powell has the stellar role in the film.

The plot concerns a love racket in which a private detective deals with the methods used by an unscrupulous private detective agency to obtain or manufacture evidence for the divorce courts, at the instigation of jealous husbands and wives. Powell, as a discredited secret service operative, carries on his nefarious distasteful business for want of a better job until he is ordered to frame a woman with whom he falls in love. Thereupon he quits his job and devotes his time and

Varsity Theater in Evanston to Present "Heroes for Sale" Friday and Saturday of This Week

"Heroes for Sale," "Strangers Return" and "Storm at Daybreak" will be the three motion picture offerings at the Varsity theater in Evanston during the week starting Friday, September 1.

The first of these films, "Heroes for Sale," is to be shown on Friday and Saturday, September 1 and 2. Richard Barthelmess, veteran actor whose popularity continues with the years, is the star of this picture.

The story is just one bit of "hard" luck after another for Barthelmess. In the war, instead of winning justly deserved medals, he gets the dope habit. His mother commits suicide. His wife is killed in a riot, and Dick is unjustly jailed for it. Things get worse, and—well, the film unreels an interesting story. Barthelmess does his usual fine acting.

On Sunday and Monday, September 3 and 4 (Labor day) the Varsity will present "Strangers Return." The fact that Lionel Barrymore heads the cast of this production should be enough of an inducement for north shore theatergoers to visit the Varsity on Sunday or Monday. Miriam Hopkins and Franchot Tone also appear in the picture.

"Storm at Daybreak" will begin a three-day showing at the Varsity on Tuesday, September 5. Kay Francis has the leading feminine role. Other principals in the cast include Walter Huston, Nils Aster and Phillips Holmes.

efforts to rescue the girl from an extremely delicate situation.

Margaret Lindsay, former stage favorite who made a sensational hit on the screen in "Calvacade," plays the leading feminine role opposite Powell.

Labor Day Matinee

The management of the Wilmette has announced that there will be a matinee performance of "Private Detective 62" on Labor day. A Harry Gribbon comedy will be shown as an added feature of the program.

Beautiful scenery, good acting and excellent singing, with Jan Kiepura, the tenor, as the featured player, will delight patrons of the Wilmette theater, when "Farewell to Love" ("City of Song") is presented on Wednesday and Thursday, September 6 and 7.

Competent continental critics have hailed Kiepura as a successor to Caruso. In "Farewell to Love" he has the role of a gay Neapolitan guide, loved by many maids, and in love with pretty Carmella who keeps house for an English sculptor.

Warmly Colorful Film

The story of the film is warmly colorful in interpretation. It is set against a background of beautiful scenery. Naples, Pompeii, the grottos of Capri, and vision after vision of shores and waters, make one's throat ache with their beauty.

A Charlie Chase comedy also is to be shown at the Wilmette next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Professional Sweetheart," with Ginger Rogers, Norman Foster, Zasu Pitts and Frank McHugh, has been booked for a two-day showing at the Wilmette starting Friday, September 8.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horsting, James, Margaret and Robert, 1103 Elmwood avenue, are visiting in Castle Park, Mich.

Mrs. E. A. Kuehnsted of 815 Forest avenue, has as her guest this week her son and her two great-grandchildren of Oconomowoc, Wis.

Ruth Kilbourne from Virginia has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford S. Goodman, 1121 Lake avenue.

The Tuesday club will be entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Benjamin T. Roodhouse, 427 Laurel avenue, Tuesday of next week.

Verus Ritter of Philadelphia who is the guest of Robert Simmons, 1141 Chestnut avenue, returned Monday from Green Bay, Wis.

Mrs. Rufus B. Stolp and Miss Katherine Stolp, 336 Warwick road, Kenilworth, returned Saturday from a few days spent at Tomahawk, Wis.

Jane Bignell, 312 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, left this week to visit the C. L. Fredericks at their summer home at Delavan Lake, Wis.
