A DULL CHILD? NO. JUST AN INDIVIDUAL--NEEDING INDIVIDUAL TRAINING

Some children are quick to learn. Some absorb knowledge more slowly. All minds do not work alike. The same is true of adults. One man has a "quick trigger" mind; another is given to slow deliberation. Both may achieve equal success. What, then, does it matter if your child is "slow?" There is no cause for worry in that fact—provided you overcome its drawbacks, in time, by proper training.

In the formative years of childhood and youth, one kind of training cannot develop both types of minds. The standardized methods of large classes cannot bring out the best in all children. Individual training, alone, can do this. Correct habits of study and concentration must be developed. This, above all else, is vital. And this is the basis of our teaching at the North Shore School of Concentration.

Many times there have come to us children who were considered dull by their teachers—some, alas, by their parents, too. We have taken them under our wing. And we have found that instead of being dull, they had minds which were unusually keen. Under our training they have risen to proud success. Seemingly impossible problems have become easy of achievement. Their agony of mind and dread of failure have disappeared. Their mental and bodily energy has been released for happy, constructive work. And many have revealed special talents, hitherto undreamed of.

We shall be pleased to discuss our methods with you or send you some literature regarding the school

Fall Term Begins September 25th

Citizens Witness Laying of Waterworks Corner Stone

About 300 villagers and visitors from neighboring communities attended the corner stone laying ceremonies last Saturday at the site of the new Wilmette municipal waterworks on the lake front at the foot of Lake avenue. Elaborate plans were made to accommodate the guests. Village officials and official guests from nearby towns, including Mayor Bartlett of Evanston and President William B. Moulton of Winnetka were on the speakers' roster. The corner stone was put into place by Mrs. Stacy C. Bennett, the widow of a former member of the Village board. The ceremonies at the waterworks was preceded by a street procession.
