Mrs. Bennett Officiates

Everything now being in readiness, Mrs. Bennett took in hand a silver trowel and spread the mortar that was to hold firmly in place the copper box, after which the great stone, bearing the inscription "1933," was lowered into place. This accomplished, the Rev. Mr. Hindley pronounced the benediction, the band struck up the national anthem, to the strains of which the crowd dispersed, and the event passed into history.

AUGUST SPECHT INJURED
