

To Have Luncheon Friday for Girls Entering Rockford

Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCulloch, who has just returned from a month in Russia, a month in Scandinavia, and a month in Germany and Poland, will be hostess at a luncheon at 1 o'clock Friday, September 15, in the Chicago Bar Association rooms at 160 North La Salle street, in honor of the girls from the Chicago metropolitan area who are entering Rockford college this fall. Mrs. McCulloch is a graduate and trustee of the college. Miss Jane Addams, who graduated in the class of '82, is expected to be present with several of her classmates.

On the reception committee welcoming the guests will be Mrs. Andrew MacLeish, Dean Mary E. Mutschler, Miss True Kimball, acting president of the Chicago Rockford Alumnae, Miss Marion Hanna, Mrs. Arthur L. Tucker, Miss Helen English, Miss Margaret Ellen How, Prof. Lorena M. Church, Mrs. Blanche E. Burpee, Mrs. Charles E. Herrick, Mrs. Logan McMenemy, and Mrs. H. M. Lautmann.

The guests who leave for college next Monday include:

Miss Eleanor Edwards, Miss Elizabeth Highfield, Miss Marie Klopsteg, Miss Irene Levis, Miss Jessie Steele and Miss Mary Belle Woodley of Evanston, all graduates of Evanston Township High school; Miss Katharine Thompson of Wilmette, graduate of New Trier High school; Miss Lucille Brenner of Kenilworth, New Trier graduate; Miss Martha Skillings of Winnetka, graduate of Melrose High school, Melrose, Mass.; Miss Jeanne Stout of Winnetka, who won the honorary scholarship for Rockford from New Trier, and Miss Nancy Rutledge of Glencoe, graduate of New Trier.

Choose Wedding Days

Winnetka weddings of general north shore interest have just been announced. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Lynde have issued invitations for the wedding, September 16, of Mr. Lynde's daughter, Margaret Emily, to Eugene V. O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. O'Brien, also of Winnetka.

The wedding of Miss Louise Farson Clabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Graves Clabaugh, to Milton Emrich, son of Mrs. George L. Emrich of Glencoe, will be solemnized September 30, at the residence of the bride's parents, the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard of Christ church, Winnetka, officiating.

Plays at Club

Frances Akely, thirteen-year-old Wilmette violinist of 615 Lake avenue, was soloist at the meeting of the Northridge Woman's club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward J. Devlin, 2015 Thornwood avenue. Her program included the "Allegro" movement of the Bach concerto; an "Andante" by Carl Bohm, and "Rondino", by Eddy Brown. Her accompanist was her mother, Ernau Akely.

SUNDAY TEA FOR VISITOR

Dr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Stolp, 336 Warwick road, Kenilworth, entertained some Kenilworth friends at tea on Sunday evening, September 10, to meet Mrs. Alex Hannah, who is visiting here from Pasadena.

A subscription dance was given at the Kenilworth club last Friday evening, September 8, by Carleton Ross of Kenilworth and the boys of his orchestra. There will be a series of these dances given during the winter.

Win Women's Golf Events at Mission Hills Club

September 1 found women golfers at Mission Hills making enthusiastic plans for the last month of official play for women.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week the club and class championships were decided. Mrs. J. LeGrand is club champion, with Mrs. C. H. Kreger as runner-up. Mrs. C. B. Scott is champion of Class B, with Mrs. D. P. Skinner the runner-up. Class C championship was won by Mrs. H. J. Jensen, with Mrs. C. G. Foster the runner-up.

The July tournament was most interesting and presented the following winners: Class A—Mrs. C. H. Kreger, Mrs. LeGrand runner-up; Class B—Miss Betty Hurtt, Mrs. C. H. Hurtt runner-up; Class C—Mrs. H. J. Jensen, Mrs. C. G. Foster runner-up.

On Friday, September 15, the last Ladies' Guest day of the season will be held. Golf on that day will consist of an 18-hole flag event, with prizes for members and guests.

The final Ladies' day, September 25, is expected to be a gala one. It is to be a costume party, and with everyone back in town from vacations, will it be prophesied, be well attended. Following a one-ball four-some golf event, luncheon will be served, the annual business meeting will be held, and the season prizes awarded.

Dinner Hosts Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery of 640 Gregory avenue are giving a dinner party tonight at Westmoreland Country club in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmer of Franklin, Ind., formerly of Chicago, and Mrs. E. L. Sawyer of Clinton, Mo.

Surprise Dinner Ends Silver Wedding Day

Dr. and Mrs. Martin Hayes Bickham of 429 Ninth street celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 9. The festivities in honor of their silver wedding day were completed with a surprise dinner party given them by their daughters, the Misses Margaret Emma and Frances Bickham. The dinner guests were Dr. and Mrs. Horace Greeley Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomas Olson of Wilmette. The Bickhams' son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. James C. Bean of Poneta, Ind., celebrated their second anniversary the same week.

Entertain Head of Smith

The Chicago Smith club and the Evanston-North Shore club will give a dinner at the Union league club Tuesday of next week for President William Allan Neilson of Smith college. With his daughter, Caroline, President Neilson will arrive Sunday to stay until Thursday, seeing A Century of Progress. He is especially interested in the Smith college booth at the Fair, and in meeting members of the Smith clubs at the dinner they are giving in his honor.
