

tember 25, J. F. Comfort; September 26, R. N. Wade; September 27, J. J. Walworth; September 28, Randolph W. McCandlish; September 29, G. G. Hartman; September 30, Henry Fowler.

The rector has tickets for the services for the people of the whole diocese to be held in the Chicago Stadium September 29, at 7:30 P. M., with Bishop Manning of New York as speaker. Ten thousand reservations have already been made. The choirs of the diocese will attend in a body as well as the clergy and acolytes from each parish. Members of the congregation should make application promptly for tickets.

The Boy Scouts meet each Wednesday evening in the Parish House at 7:30 o'clock.

The Boy choir will practice each Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the Parish House. Boys 8 years of age and upward wishing to join the choir should apply at that time.

The vestry meeting called for to-night (Thursday) has been postponed to a later date.

Church Doctrine Course New Sunday School Study

Beginning the fall term on September 17, the English Lutheran Sunday school has added a new course in church doctrine and its application to the life of today. This class was organized primarily for young people of high school age, but is open to all who may be interested in the subject, it is explained.

The Rev. David R. Kabele, pastor of the church, who will instruct the group, was formerly professor of church history at the Chicago Bible school.

The following is a list of other classes and teachers: cradle roll, Mrs. Ada Knudtson; nursery class, Mrs. Dorothy Lineberger; beginners, Mrs. Gertrude Dorband; first grade, Mrs. Henrietta Hayson; second grade, Mrs. Dorothy Kabele; junior boys, Robert Fisher; junior girls, Miss Caroline Eichstedt.

THREE FIRE CALLS

The Wilmette Fire department made two runs to extinguish prairie fires and responded to one other alarm in the week ending Tuesday, September 19. The prairie fires occurred at 621 Elmwood avenue last Thursday afternoon and at Sheridan road and Washington avenue Sunday afternoon. Neither resulted in any damage. The firemen also were called to 1307 Elmwood avenue last Friday shortly before noon when a radio transformer burned out. The damage was confined to the radio. Fire Chief Walter Zibble reports

Janet Healy, 205 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, left Monday for New York where she attends Manhattanville college. Her sister, Virginia, returned Wednesday after a six weeks' visit in various eastern points.

Mrs. J. K. Houston of Salt Lake City, was the guest of the William H. B. Stephens of 619 Central avenue recently. Mrs. Houston had been visiting at her old home in Lockport, N. Y., and old eastern friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horsting, 1103 Elmwood avenue, returned Tuesday from St. Louis where she went to visit her brother who was ill.

W. J. Hartmans Renew Vows at Silver Wedding

A silver wedding ceremony took place in Wilmette Saturday evening, September 16, when Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hartman of 104 Central Park avenue, renewed their marriage vows with the Rev. James E. Congdon, Jr., pastor of the Northminster church, officiating at the ceremony which took place in the Hartman home in the presence of forty guests.

Mrs. Hartman's oldest sister and her husband, who were matron of honor and best man at the Hartmans' marriage twenty-five years ago, served them again in the same manner upon the occasion of their silver wedding. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of garden flowers tied with silver ribbon, and Jean Nickel, daughter of a cousin of Mrs. Hartman, was the sweet little flower girl, carrying a silver basket of garden flowers.

Mrs. Hartman's niece, Mrs. Clark Reed, played the wedding march.

Louise Hartman, whose parents were celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, passed a memory book among the guests who wrote messages in it.

Following the service, a reception was held. Many gifts, flowers, and telegrams were showered upon the Hartmans on their silver wedding day.

Entertains College Girls at Luncheon

Miss Martha Tencher, 828 Ashland avenue, entertained at a small luncheon last Tuesday for the girls who represented their various colleges in the College Wardrobe in one of the large downtown department stores. Luncheon guests were Miss Helen Dawes, who represented Vassar; Miss Mary Elizabeth Townsend, Northwestern; and Miss Kathleen Harvey, St. Mary's of Notre Dame. Miss Tencher represented Smith. Miss Tencher is leaving this Sunday for college. She will be a senior this year. Last week-end she had as her guest, her roommate, Miss Patricia Jones of Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Hattie A. Arnold of San Diego, Cal., is the guest of her son and family, the Arthur J. Lindsleys, 260 Oxford road, Kenilworth. Miss Anne Stewart of Huntsville, Ala., stopped on her way to Principia in St. Louis recently to visit the Lindsleys.

Mrs. James C. Murray, 433 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, last week motored to her farm in Lincolnville, Maine, where she will stay about six weeks. Her friend, Mrs. E. P. Bartlett of Winnetka, accompanied her. Mr. Bartlett is staying at the Kenilworth inn.

ANTIQUES A NEW SHOP

filled with fine pieces of genuine old American chairs, tables, poster beds and Hepplewhite chests, mirrors, glass, china, silver and brass. It will pay you to make a visit and get acquainted with real values.

IRVIN'S SHOP NO. 2

820 Dempster St., Evanston, Ill.

FATHER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Henry Brandt and children, Katherine, Jane, and John, 1530 Washington avenue, returned Sunday from Beatrice, Neb., where they were called by the death of Mrs.

Brandt's father, William Atwater. Mrs. Brandt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Atwater of Springfield, Mass., also attended the funeral and returned home with Mrs. Brandt and the children.

Only a personnel highly efficient and conscientious has the privilege of serving Almer Coe patrons.

Almer Coe & Company

PRESCRIPTION OPTICIANS

Optical, Photographic & Meteorological Instruments

1645 ORRINGTON AVE., EVANSTON

CHICAGO STORES:

105 N. WABASH AVE. • 18 S. LA SALLE ST. • 78 E. JACKSON BLVD.

SEPTEMBER

English China

Sterling Silver Flatware

Crystal Drinking Glasses for every use

Foreign Novelties

Beautiful Lamps

The New and Popular Chrome Plates,

Relish Dishes, Vases, Etc.

Modern Silver Platters, Vegetable Dishes, Trays, Etc.

Old English Sheffield

the authenticity of which is beyond question

Leather Bags

Library Sets

Address Books

Diaries, Etc.

Small Tables

Trays

Suit Case Stands

Plant Stands, Etc.

TATMAN

517 Davis Street
EVANSTON

Gifts
of quality-- Treasures for the years to come.

625 N. Michigan Ave.
CHICAGO

North Shore Montessori School

761 CHERRY ST., WINNETKA

For children from 3 to 7 years of age, will begin its 18th year on Monday the 2nd of October, 1933.

MISS DOROTHY SEARS
TELEPHONE WINNETKA 2896

