Artists on Program for Benefit Dinner

Woman's Club Committee Selects Novel After Dinner Program for Open Event

By L. M. C.

A dinner and entertainment will be given on the evening of October 5, for the benefit of the Woman's Club of Wilmette under the auspices of the ways and means committee, of which Mrs. Clifton L. Darling is chairman.

After the dinner hour a delightful and varied program will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and Mrs. Rex Elton Fair, all artists of rare ability and well known on the north shore.

Mrs. H. Otto von der Hoff has charge of the tickets and table reservations may be made with Mrs. George D. Conlee. Mrs. Carl J. Nylund is dinner chairman and other women assisting Mrs. Darling with her arrangements are: Mrs. Albert G. Ackerman, Mrs. George B. Knepfer, Mrs. William H. Hayt, Mrs. J. Melville Brown, Mrs. Stanley D. McPherron, Mrs. Arthur H. Howard, Mrs. J. A. Pancoast, Mrs. Fred L. Rice, Mrs. Robert H. Bacon, Mrs. R. F. Eccles, Mrs. David P. Moreton, Mrs. Raymond Rapp, Mrs. Albert N. Page, Mrs. Richard J. Mulvey, Mrs. Harry E. Rohrer, Mrs. A. J. Kuelzow, Miss Laura A. Davy, Mrs. A. V. Gruhn, Mrs. Charles H. Kraft, Mrs. John Bartholemew, Mrs. Bertram M. Colvin, and Mrs. Edward Lilienfeld.

A cordial invitation is given to all, regardless of whether they are members or not, and the committee in charge promises both a fine dinner and a splendid entertainment. The date is October 5, and the dinner hour is 6:30 o'clock.

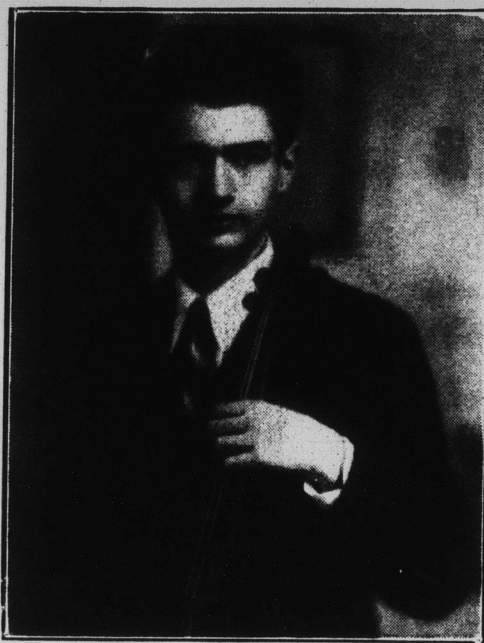

Mr. and Mrs. George Allen will be assisted by Agnes Bodholdt Conover, accompanist. They promise a "very different" program. Mrs. Allen (Ada Tilley) teaches singing at Northwestern university and is a member of the staff of the Cosmopolitan School of Music in Chicago. She has done a great deal of concert and church work and has given numerous piano recitals. Known at the age of 12 as a "child prodigy," she, herself, gave a concert at that time. She has toured the country over, giving solo numbers with the Ruth St. Denis dancers.

Mr. Allen, known especially as a producer, has been connected with radio programs for the last eight years. He produced the Northern Trust company bank program broadcast over WMAQ every Friday evening last year and arranged the well known "Roses and Drums" and the popular Wrigley "Lone Wolf" Indian programs. He, too, has done extensive recital work in and around Chicago, and has appeared on church programs.

Mrs. Converse, who has played with the Symphony orchestra under the direction of Frederick Stock this summer, is well known in Chicago.

Mrs. Fair, reader, who lives in Wilmette, and whose husband is director of bands in the Wilmette Public schools, is in charge of the drama department of the Rex Elton Fair studio school in Chicago. She came here in 1929 from Lincoln, Neb., after having been associated with the work in coaching at the University of Nebraska. She taught public speaking and play producing in the
