

Woman's World Cook Book Is Offered at Remarkable Value

Christmas Gift Par - Excellent Is Now Available at Money-Saving Price

During the past year your home paper, WILMETTE LIFE, has made available from time to time unusual values which its publishers were able to pass on to the readers. Among these offers, readers will recall, were A Century of Progress spoons, special ticket books to the World's Fair and an unusual value in a new Webster's Dictionary.

Now again it is the privilege of WILMETTE LIFE to make a special Christmas offer to its friends in a new and complete Woman's World Cook Book. The regular retail price for this exceptional book is $2.50, but this special Christmas offer places it within the reach of everyone for only $1.45.

Outstanding Authority

The Woman's World Cook Book is the work of Lily Haxworth Wallace, who has no superior as a practical dietitian and domestic scientist. Mrs. Wallace, through thirty years' experience in this field, both in Europe and America, enjoys the finest standing in the National Home Economics Association of America. Her views and ability are respected by all of her associates. She has been active for years as a lecturer, writer, author and editor of cook books, and today holds the responsible position of food editor of the Woman's World magazine.

Mrs. Wallace spent many months in collecting, testing and compiling the material included in the 468 pages of this fine book.

1,250 Tested Recipes

Included in this material are 1,250 tested recipes and 325 complete menus. There are 30 pages of scientific, proved diets for old and young, stout and thin. Also will be found complete tables of food values, refrigerator menus, time and temperature charts, menus for reducing and for increasing weight, diets for ill and convalescent and the feeding of children. Pages are devoted to such important matters as planning, marketing and the care of foods, balanced, tested menus and recipes, the mechanics of cooking, with sure rules for success and the use of the tools of the profession.

Hints for All Occasions

The north shore hostess will find a vast array of information to assist in making receptions, parties, dinners, bridges, etc., the successes she desires. Among the related subjects covered are "Entertaining through good cooking," "Service for every occasion," "The art and science of carving," "Table decoration" and "Maid service."

There are numerous full page illustrations, many in four colors.

The pages are printed in large type, easy to read and lie flat open in use. The cover is washable, for the removal of spots and the usual kitchen soil.

It has been said that this new cook book is "the greatest contribution to the American housewife since the development of electricity."

This unusual book, at its money-saving price, will make a Christmas present par-excellent. It is also suggested as a novel bridge prize.

You may secure the Woman's World

Cook Book at the offices of WILMETTE LIFE, 1232 Central avenue, or at the places of business of the merchants listed in a full page advertisement about this book, elsewhere in this issue.

Remember, in this special Christmas offer the price is only $1.45 for a book regularly retailing for $2.50.

Congregation Groups to Sponsor "Winter Frolic"

The Sisterhood and the Men's club of the North Shore Congregation Israel are sponsoring a "Winter Frolic and Chanukah Party" for the benefit of the B'nai B'rith Hillel foundation of Northwestern university to be held at the Orrington hotel Roof Garden, Evanston, Saturday evening, December 9. There will be dancing, cards, and refreshments. Tickets may be purchased at the temple office, the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation office, 615 Davis street, Evanston, or from Mrs. Franklin E. Cohn, 975 Oak street, Winnetka.
