

Dr. John A. Lapp to Speak at College Club

Dr. John A. Lapp, secretary and special mediator of the Chicago Regional Labor board, will speak on "Politics and Economics at Washington," Friday evening of this week at the Chicago College club. Dr. Lapp begins his talk at 8 o'clock. He recently published a book, "The First Chapter of the New Deal," and brought about the conferences which settled the Nash Motor strike.

Saturday the members of the club are having a bridge party at 2 o'clock. Both auction and contract will be played, and tea will be served.

"Investment Financing under the New Deal" will be the subject of Prof. Herbert E. Dougall's third lecture in his course on banking and finance. It will be given Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Frances E. Watson, a member of the club, will talk on "Linens," at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, and will show a Christmas dinner table. Mrs. Albion S. Webbe and Mrs. Ernest C. Davies will be the hostesses.

Dr. George Halperin, a native Russian who has made a lifelong study of Russian literature, will speak on the life and works of Dostoevsky at the Library Coffeehouse, at 7:45 Friday evening, December 15, at the College club. Dr. Halperin is a professor of surgery at Northwestern university.

Give Thanksgiving Cheer

The North Shore Junior Welfare league's Thanksgiving baskets were most abundant. Its members delivered baskets to needy families in Evanston, Wilmette, Winnetka, and Highland Park and supplied Fideles Inn, a home for unemployed professional women, with a basket large enough for several days, and many other necessities as well. The young women of the Welfare league express their appreciation to the merchants of Evanston, Wilmette, Winnetka, and Highland Park who enabled them to make their baskets so plentiful.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Matson, 616 Fifteenth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne Elizabeth, to Kurt Ferdinand Friedeberg of Mount Clemens, Mich. The wedding is to take place on December 23. Mr. Friedeberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friedeberg of Magdeburg, Germany.

Garden Club Conference

The Garden Club of Illinois will hold a round table conference Monday, December 11, at 1:30 o'clock, in Room 10, third floor of the Palmer House, to discuss plans for the annual Flower Show at the Navy Pier April 7-15.
