For Boys and Girls Who Like Picture Books

The Story About Ping ... Story by Marjorie Flack, lithographs in color by Kurt Wiese. Ping is a Peking duckling on a house boat, on the Yangtze River. It will greatly amuse the picture book age, 3 to 5. $1

Get-a-Way and Hány János ... Stories and lithographs by Maud and Miska Petersham. Get-a-way is a worn-out toy horse and Janos is an old wooden soldier doll from Hungary. The story takes place in a land where old toys become new and gay. The illustrations are exquisite. Picture book age, 5 to 8. $2

The ABC Bunny ... Illustrated by Wanda Gag. A delightful alphabet book of action and suspense. For the child ages 2 to 6. $2

Nancy ... A photographic story by Ruth Alexander Nichols. A little girl between three and four years old has been photographed as she goes through her day; and what a beautiful and delightful little girl she is you will see from the many photographs of her. $1.75

Ola and Blakken... Ingri and Edgar Parin D'Aulaire. Charmingly presented against the friendly setting of a real farm in Norway. Magnificent illustrations in color. $1.75

Little Faces from Far Places ... Julia Nordell. A book of travel for little children, including seven pages of cut-out dolls in full color showing the authentic costumes of the boys and girls whose countries the heroine visits. $2

Spunky ... The Story of a Shetland Pony. Written and illustrated in color by Berta and Elmer Hader. Undoubtedly one of the most beautiful juveniles of this year or any other year. Illustrated as it is with six large pictures in full color, and black and white pictures on every page. $2

All Around the Alphabet ... Lena Towsley. In a delightful little book, just big enough for a youngster to hold and treasure, the author of the highly successful Peggy and Peter has made a photographic alphabet for the nursery or pre-school child. $1
