CWA Men Renovate High School Rooms

Fifteen men are being employed at New Trier High school under the Civil Works administration program, and another project, on which approval is expected shortly, will give employment to an additional ten men.

The fifteen men now working at the school are painting halls, classrooms, and metal sash inside and outside the building, building shelves for storage, rebuilding the tennis courts, relaying the brick walks, rebuilding the pent house on the boiler room and doing work of a similar nature in the school and on the grounds surrounding it.

The project awaiting approval is the rehabilitation of the stage lighting system and installation of a new switchboard. This will give work to ten more men.

These Sears School Boys Promised Drums by Santa

A number of Kenilworth boys will be getting drums as Christmas presents as a result of the organization recently of the Kenilworth Drum and Bugle corps, composed of boys who are members of the Kenilworth Scout and Cub organizations. Between thirty-five and forty boys are enrolled in the corps now. They work under the direction of Haskell W. Horr.

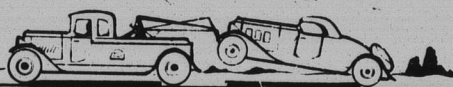

HOLIDAY PLANS DIFFER

George H. Darling, who is a senior at University of Rochester, will be home this week to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Darling. He is serving his second year as a member of the Board of Control of the University and is president of the Hellenic council. Clifton L. Darling, Jr., who graduated in June, will not be able to return home for the holidays. He is with the Standard Oil company of New York at Rochester and sings every Sunday evening with the Campus Men, an octet, over station WHAM. Both young men are members of Alpha Delta Phi.

PLANS SKI TRIP

Robert W. Townley, director of physical education at the Joseph Sears school in Kenilworth, is planning a ski trip to the hills in the vicinity of Cary and a skating and ice boat trip to Lake Geneva during the Christmas vacation, which starts Friday afternoon of this week. Both trips are dependent on favorable weather. Mr. Townley expects to take several Kenilworth boys along on each trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Branch, with their two children, from Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Shipman, Jr., from Muskegon, Ore., are arriving the last of this week to spend Christmas with their family, the George E. Shipmans of 432 Warwick road, Kenilworth.

Highcrest P. T. A. News

The monthly meeting of the Highcrest Parent-Teacher association, held Tuesday of last week, opened with all the members singing "Jingle Bells." The New Trier High school octet, directed by Winifred Mickey von Meding, sang three selections before the meeting because they had another engagement for the evening. Following a short business meeting Mrs. George Simons and Mrs. Paul Drebes sang Christmas carols—"O Come All Ye Faithful" and "Silent Night." Norman E. Watson, superintendent of the Northbrook school, who was to have been the speaker, could not come on account of illness. His place was taken by J. R. Harper, superintendent of the Wilmette schools, who spoke on "Functions of the Public Schools." During the social hour that followed Mrs. Peter Carlson and Mrs. Anthony McDermott, served coffee and a variety of homemade cookies. There was a grab bag filled with gifts contributed by the members and distributed by Santa Claus.

Offer Christmas Story Sunday in Novel Pantomime

The Christmas story will be presented in a series of artistic pantomimes at the annual Christmas vespers in the First Congregational church Sunday, December 24, at 4 o'clock.

The presentation will be given by members of the Church school, under the direction of Mrs. Marguerite Calkins Taylor, with a musical setting taken from Dudley Buck's "The Coming of the King," sung by the Senior choir and quartet. Participants in the pantomimes will be:

The Virgin Mary—Hope Carroll
The Angel—Nancy Pierson
The Three Magi—Douglas Hindley, Paul Hoffman, Douglas Stevens.

The Attendants to the Magi—Betty Butler, Jean Gordan, Eleanor Speredes, Charles Gregory, Dean Kludy, James McIlraith, George Putnam, Lawrence Schuber, Cushing Smith.

The Shepherds—John Adams, Norman Fifer, Frank Huffman, Edward Mee, Rodney Perrill, George Redding, Donald Toeppen, Gordon Wells.

The Light and Gift Bearers—Albert Carpenter, William Knepper, Evan McIlraith, Jack Randall, Ashton Taylor.

Solo parts in the musical score will be taken by Beulah Casler Edwards, soprano; Ethel Heide Wishover, contralto; Walter Tenney, tenor, and Carmen Learn, bass. Miss Emily Roberts is the organist and musical director.

Dr. Lee C. Grassle Opens Dental Office

Dr. Lee C. Grassle, dentist, has opened an office at 400 Linden avenue, Wilmette. Dr. Grassle, who is a graduate of the Northwestern University Dental school and who practiced dentistry in Oak Park for ten years, recently returned from a seven months' trip around the world. Before making the world tour he sold his practice in Oak Park to his brother, Dr. Ralph Grassle. Dr. and Mrs. Grassle are making their home at 512 Fifth street, Wilmette.

BAHA'I LECTURE

"The Return of the Sun of Truth" will be the subject of the talk to be given at the regular Sunday afternoon service, December 24, at 3:30 o'clock in Foundation hall, Baha'i House of Worship, Linden avenue and Sheridan road, Wilmette. Albert Windust of Chicago, a recent visitor to the Holy Land, will be the speaker.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Zander of 736 Cummings avenue, Kenilworth, entertained at dinner, with three tables of bridge following.

Miss Eleanor Moulding, daughter of Ralph C. Moulding, 1025 Elmwood avenue, came home last Friday from Carleton college for her Christmas vacation.

ECONOMY SHOP NEEDS

There is still time to bring pleasure to some unknown child by sorting out some of those older toys in anticipation of the new crop that Santa is sure to bring to your more fortunate child.

Let the children bring the toys, dolls, games, books or what they have to spare to Economy Shop. They will enjoy the giving and Economy Shop can dispose of all that are given.—Mrs. A. L. Grinnell, chairman.

Economy Shop is conducted by the Woman's Club of Wilmette.
