HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Burt J. Denman, 21 Linden avenue, will entertain a number of out-of-town guests during the holidays. Among them will be Mr. Denman's father and sister, Charles A. Denman of Detroit, and Mrs. Harry W. Robison of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott of Charlotte, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Schadeldele and small daughter, Anne, of Lincoln, Neb. Mrs. Denman's daughter, Dorothy Dayton, returned Wednesday from the Erskine school in Boston.

ASSISTS AT YULE PARTY

A group of north shore girls assisted at the Christmas party given at St. Vincent's orphanage on Wednesday. They trimmed the tree, helped dress the children, and played games with them. Among those who assisted were Buddy and Helen Holden of Kenilworth, Betty Bayliss of Wilmette, Jean Henning and Mrs. Richard Fuller of Winnetka, and Virginia Hicks of Glencoe.

TO WINTER IN SPAIN

Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of Glencoe and her daughter, Miss Ishbel MacLeish, sailed from New York last Saturday on the "Conti di Savoia" for Spain, where they will spend most of the winter. Early next spring they plan to go to Italy, returning home in May.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Lill, 119 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, will entertain twenty-four guests at dinner Christmas day, including their respective families.

Robert Knauer, 166 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, who attends the University of Illinois, is returning Friday for his Christmas holidays.

TO GIVE SUPPER DANCE

The Juniors of the Big Sand Lake club of Wisconsin, which was organized last summer by William Gauger of Wilmette and several Chicago friends, will give its first party on Saturday, December 23. The affair will be a supper dance in the Boulevard room of the Stevens hotel. Among those who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson, and the following young men with their guests, William and Richard Gauger, Fred and Jack Heitman, and Raymond and Thomas E. Sullivan, all of Wilmette.

ROBBED IN DRIVEWAY

At about 1:30 o'clock Friday morning, December 15, as Dr. Katherine K. True was returning to her home at 418 Forest avenue, she was accosted by two young men in the driveway and robbed of a small amount of money. That the men were novices at the hold-up game was evidenced by the fact that they were so nervous that one of the pair dropped his revolver.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Mrs. J. A. Burrill, 813 Greenwood avenue, returned Friday from Grand Rapids, Mich., where she was called on account of her sister's illness. Her daughter, Jane Burrill, who is at the head of the art department at Colby Junior college in New London, N. H., also returned Friday to spend her holiday vacation with her parents.

WINS HORSE SHOW RIBBON

Ruth, daughter of the Louis Suekoffs, 819 Chestnut avenue, rode in the International Live Stock exposition and horse show at the stadium, and took the blue ribbon with her horse, Mood Indigo.

Sportsman Club Bowling

By defeating the Bungalow Tavern team in two out of three games last Friday, the Wilmette Tailors held first place in the Sportsman Club Bowling league at Bleser's academy. The Tailors won the first game, 909 to 714, but the Tavern boys came back to take the second, 919 to 846. The third game went to the Tailors, 892 to 806.

Meanwhile the Tailors' closest rivals for first place, the Kenilworth Market and Rapp Brothers (Winnetka), were battling for second place in the standings. Rapp Brothers moved into a tie with the market team in games won and lost by defeating the later in two out of three games. After Rapp Brothers had taken the first two games, 832 to 807 and 890 to 826, the Kenilworth Market won the third game, 928 to 873. Rapp Brothers had the high total for the evening, 2695.

The C. and R. Oil Men, last place team, upset Edelweiss in two of their three games, the final totals showing 2543 for C. and R. and 2524 for Edelweiss. Edelweiss won the last game, 881 to 839, after the oil men had taken the first two games, 803 to 760 and 901 to 883.

Hadden Hall won two games from Bleser's, although the later team had a higher total for the three games, 2397 to 2349. The first two games went to Hadden Hall, 826 to 799 and 759 to 732, and Bleser's took the last one, 866 to 764.

Among the high individual scores for the evening were Henry Rau of Edelweiss, 227 and 224, Carl Eggert of Bungalow Tavern, 227 and 213, Paul Bleser of Bleser's, 226, William Teichert of C. and R. Oil Men, 221 and 213, and J. Schmitz of the Wilmette Tailors, 220. High scores for the season remain the same.

Standing of the teams to date, including their game averages and their high game scores, follow:

| | W. | L. | Avg. | High |
|-------------------|----|----|------|------|
| Wilmette Tailors | 21 | 12 | 848 | 933 |
| Kenilworth Market | 19 | 14 | 854 | 1040 |
| Rapp Brothers | 19 | 14 | 849 | 952 |
| Hadden Hall | 15 | 15 | 830 | 951 |
| Edelweiss | 15 | 18 | 844 | 954 |
| Bungalow Tavern | 13 | 17 | 820 | 952 |
| Bleser's | 14 | 19 | 836 | 991 |
| C. and R. Oil Men | 13 | 20 | 832 | 929 |

SIGMA CHI PARTY

Homer Jenkins of Evanston, secretary of the Chicago Alumni chapter of Sigma Chi, announces that the annual Sigma Chi Christmas party will be held on Saturday afternoon, December 23, at 1 o'clock in the fraternity room of the Great Northern hotel. Judge Loren C. Collins, oldest living alumnus of Northwestern university, and one of the founders of Omega chapter of Sigma Chi at Northwestern will be guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Large, 1942 Thornwood avenue, will entertain Mrs. Large's family at Christmas dinner, her brothers, Richard and Robert Ward, coming from Sioux City, Iowa. Jackie Large entertained twelve little friends Wednesday of last week in honor of his second birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heicher and their daughter, Georgia, and the latter's fiancé, of Green Bay, Wis., were recent guests of Mr. Heicher's sister and family, the Thomas Sullivans, 336 Gregory avenue.

Ruth Solomon, 1118 Forest avenue, is leaving Friday for Pittsburgh where she will spend Christmas with her grandmother.
