CRASH AT RAIL CROSSING

Early Monday morning an automobile driven by George Milliken, 1115 Greenleaf avenue, a driver for the Berg Cab service, was run into headon by a car driven by Robert Rance, 2345 Devon avenue, Chicago. The accident happened as the two cars were crossing the North Western railroad tracks at Wilmette avenue. No one was injured, but both cars were considerably damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carnahan, 700 Central avenue, returned Tuesday from a week's visit to Battle Creek, Mich.

Greets New Year

Mrs. William Panushka, 84 years old, the only surviving charter member of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church, was among the worshippers in the large congregation attending the impressive Watch-Night services at the church on New Year's eve.

"Her mind and heart carried her far back to sixty-four years ago, when she sat with a little band of fifty worshippers in the little white school house of two rooms," muses an observer in conveying the spirit of Mrs. Panushka's impressions at Sunday's Watch-Night services.

"She has witnessed many changes... Today we worship in a beautiful new building with 600 members, but with the same spirit of loyalty and growing in a larger and deeper spirituality."

Mrs. Gordon Wilson of 415 Ninth street and her son, Tom, are leaving tomorrow for Lakeland, Fla., to remain until the winter is over. Mrs. Walter Joyce and her children of Wilmette will occupy Mrs. Wilson's home while she is away.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee McGowan, 197 Oxford road, Kenilworth, entertained eighteen guests at cards and dancing New Year's eve.

Ray Dunn, 225 Dupee place, left Wednesday, January 3, to resume his studies at Purdue university.

John D. Allen Gives Organ to Seminary

John D. Allen of Glencoe, a leader in Episcopal church circles, has purchased and presented to the Seabury-Western Theological seminary in Evanston the pipe organ which played to millions of visitors at A Century of Progress exposition last summer.

The three-manual Moller organ, a $15,000 instrument, is being dismantled in the Hall of Religions on the fair grounds and will be reinstalled in the Bishop Anderson memorial chapel at the seminary. Dr. Frederick C. Grant, dean of the seminary, announced.

Mr. Allen gave the organ to the seminary as a memorial to his daughter, Barbara. During the period of the fair the organ was used for programs within the assembly room of the Hall of Religions, as well as in the lobby and for broadcasting purposes.
