

Change Locale for Serve and Sell Day to Hotel Sherman

Because of the inadequate space, the Chicago section of the National Council of Jewish Women has found it necessary to change the place for its Serve and Sell Home Economics day on Tuesday, January 9, from the Gold room of the Congress hotel, to the Hotel Sherman.

The project will occupy all of floor 1, the Louis XVI, the Crystal, the Gray, and the West rooms, and the lounge. This is the announcement made this week by Mrs. Harry A. Kahn, general chairman of the Serve and Sell day, which will be in session from 9 in the morning until midnight.

Adding interest to the program is the fact that Princess Shalimar and Prince Chiro will be in charge of the Temple of Destiny, reading the past, present, and future by crystal gazing, palmistry, numerology, and graphology.

All the foods and merchandise for the Serve and Sell day have been donated by firms and individuals in Chicago and its suburbs, Mrs. Kahn announces.

The proceeds of this day will go to the support of the Council's model camp for mothers and underprivileged children at Wauconda, Ill. Other philanthropies that will be financed and assisted through the profits of the Serve and Sell day are the Service to the Foreign Born, Americanization and citizenship classes, work for the hard of hearing, and immigration work.

Many new and interesting features are to be introduced Tuesday. There will be demonstration booths for council members where they will prepare and make some of their famous dishes. Other demonstrations will be carried on by well known food concerns.

The restaurant, under the direction of Mrs. Samuel Alschuler and Mrs. Harry J. Myerson, will serve luncheons, teas, and dinners at reasonable prices, all the food prepared by council members.

Dinner hour guests will be entertained by Vincent Lopez, the well-known caricaturist, Shelia Barrett, and her accompanist, Sam Marshall.

The officers of the Chicago section are Mrs. Gerson B. Levi, president; Mrs. Benjamin I. Morris, first vice-president; Mrs. Sidney S. Pollack, second vice-president; Mrs. Benjamin Greenebaum, third vice-president; Mrs. Samuel Zucker, treasurer; Mrs. Mitchell Edelson, recording secretary; Mrs. Michael Hammer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Samuel L. Herman, financial secretary.

Among the many north shore women participating in the plans and activity for the Serve and Sell Economics day are Mrs. Harry A. Kahn of Glencoe, general chairman; Mrs. Harry L. Canmann of Highland Park, in charge of the noodle booth. Assisting are the following members, Mrs. Sylvan Hirschberg of Highland Park, Mrs. Isadore Schuman, Mrs. Irving Berlin, Mrs. Barnett Faroll, and Mrs. Nate Bederman of Winnetka, Mrs. Louis Suekoff of Wilmette, and Mrs. Max Woldenberg of Hubbard Woods.

To Give Masquerade

The Catholic Daughters of America will have their regular meeting on Monday evening, January 8, at Odd Fellows hall. They will sponsor a masquerade dance to be given on Wednesday evening, January 10, at Hoffman hall, and at which prizes will be given away for original costumes.

Kaskaskia D. A. R. Is Meeting Tuesday

Tuesday is the next meeting day of the Kaskaskia chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, with the members gathering for luncheon at the home of Mrs. John R. W. Sargent and Miss Florence Sargent, 2440 Lake View avenue, Chicago. Mrs. Armand J. VanThielen is the speaker of the day.

Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Frank Brust, Mrs. Lucius C. Pardee, Mrs. Charles H. Requa, Mrs. William B. Requa, and Miss Genevive Sedgwick. Reservations are to be made before 9 o'clock Monday morning to Mrs. C. Winslow Henkle, 5424 University avenue, Chicago.

Mrs. John Flint Dille, regent of the chapter, which has north shore members, gave a luncheon and linen shower January 2, at her home in Evanston, for Miss Priscilla Kellogg, who is to be married on February 24, to Major Corswell. Miss Kellogg met her fiancé when she was a page at the National convention of the D. A. R., in Washington last April.

At N. S. Woman's Club

The North Shore Woman's club, which meets at the Edgewater Beach hotel, is having its Juniors' tea today (Thursday) at 2 o'clock. First Vice-President's day will be observed by the club on January 11. The business session opens at 11:30 in the morning. Luncheon recess is at 12:45, the program begins at 2:15, with Mrs. James Henry Jackson commenting upon "At Home With Literature," and Gudmundur Kristjanson, Icelandic tenor, singing.

To Elect Officers

The annual meeting and election of officers of the North Shore branch, Friends of Chicago Junior school, will be held Wednesday morning, January 10, at the home of Mrs. Lansing B. Warner, 201 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods. The meeting is called for 11 o'clock, and at its close, luncheon will be served.

Chairman

Mrs. Richmond M. Corbett of Winnetka was elected president of the newly-organized Wrangler auxiliary at its November meeting. The auxiliary, consisting of the mothers, wives, and sisters of members of the Wrangler fraternity at Northwestern, has been formed to help solve the problems in connection with the fraternity house on the campus.

Reelected

Moffett Photo

Mrs. Hallett W. Thorne of 93 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, will serve another year as president of the North Shore Field Hockey association, having been reelected to that office at the annual meeting held December 13, at Miss Harriet Leonard's home in Winnetka. Mrs. Warner Washburn of Glencoe is the new vice-president; Miss Margaret DeLay of Winnetka, secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Lancot, treasurer.

Junior Dance

A junior semi-formal dance on Saturday evening, January 13, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Woman's club, is the second in a series of two affairs sponsored by the junior dance committee of the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Wilmette, of which Mrs. J. Welton Fisher, Jr., is chairman. The Ross Hildebrandt New Trier orchestra will play for the dancing and refreshments will be served. Tickets will be sold at the door.

To Hear of White House

The Young Mothers club of Wilmette will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul W. Stade, 1500 Washington avenue, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The speaker of the evening will be Edna Dean Baker, president of the National College of Education, who will include some of her experiences at the White House during her recent trip to Washington.

Welcome New Year

Mrs. George W. Hinman, 576 Oak street, Winnetka, opened her home last Sunday evening to a group of north shore young people for a dancing party. A number of dinners were given that evening before it, among them being the buffet supper at which Mr. and Mrs. Fergus Mead of 320 Oxford road, Kenilworth, was host and hostess.

Here for Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Potthoff (Jean Drayer) and their son Dickie, of Champaign, Ill., spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Potthoff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Drayer of Elmwood avenue. Mrs. A. B. Lambert, Mrs. Drayer's mother, arrived on New Year's day from Oberlin, Ohio, to spend the remainder of the winter here.

College Club to See Pictures of English Gardens

Pictures of Sulgrave manor and of English gardens will be among those shown at the Chicago College club at 8 o'clock Friday evening of this week by Miss Mary F. Willard, to illustrate her talk on "England in June." Miss Willard is one of the club's own members.

Tuesday of next week, at 10:30 in the morning, the club's Players will welcome all members interested in drama to the first meeting of a course under Mrs. Charlotte Barrows Chorpennig of Evanston on "Getting an Actor Into His Part From the Standpoint of the Actor and the Director." The course is to continue once a week for ten sessions, the meetings subsequent to that Tuesday of next week probably being held Saturday mornings.

At 11 o'clock Tuesday morning Prof. Herbert E. Dougall will continue the series of lectures on "Finance," his subject next week being "Reading the Corporation's Financial Statements." At the same hour Wednesday Mrs. Ethel M. Colson Brazelton will discuss current events and will also review the following books: "Mary of Nazareth," by Mary Borden; "De Wriedt Goes Home," by Arnold Zweig; "The Fault of Angels," by Paul Horgan.

A special program is planned for Friday evening, January 12, when Frederick Fursman will speak on "Contemporary Art in Europe." Mr. Fursman is director of the Summer School of Painting at Saugatuck, Mich., and is internationally known as a painter. He has exhibited in the Paris salon and in the International exhibition at Rome. A painting of his which won first prize at the Art institute will be included in the exhibition at the club during January.

Plans Father's Night

The Mother's club of St. Joseph's school will celebrate Father's night Tuesday, January 9, at 8:15 o'clock. Bridge, five-hundred, euchre, and bunco will be played, and a prize will be given at each table. Refreshments are to be served. Mrs. A. J. Rassenhoff, chairman and the members of her committee are planning to make this a very enjoyable evening for the fathers, members, and prospective members. "Don't forget the date, Tuesday evening, January 9, at 8:15," the committee emphasizes.

Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marquardt, 218 Woodbine avenue, will entertain Friday at a farewell party in honor of Mrs. William H. B. Stephens and her son, Brice, who are leaving January 10, for a three months' sojourn on the gulf coast of Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Doty of Geneva, Ill., will occupy the Stephens home during their absence.

Entertain Simultaneously

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Batter, 157 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, gave a buffet supper for fifty-five last Sunday evening. They entertained in the recreation room while their children, Gertrude and Dorothy, were having a dancing party in the drawing room upstairs.

Progressive Dinner

On Sunday night last, a group of north shore young people, Mr. and Mrs. H. McBain, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Humphrys, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Branch, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barclay, celebrated the coming of the new year by having a progressive dinner.
