

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Cuba Is Next Topic at Evanston School of Foreign Affairs

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Great Hall of the First Methodist church, the second in a series of lectures being sponsored by the Evanston School of Foreign Affairs will be given.

The subject, "Who Rules Cuba?" will be in the form of a discussion, between Chester Lloyd Jones, director of the School of Economics at the University of Wisconsin, and Isaac J. Cox, head of the history department at Northwestern university.

Dr. Jones was for many years a member of the educational committee of the Pan-American Union for International Conciliation to visit the universities of South America; member of the E. L. Dohney Research foundation; commercial attache, American Embassy at Madrid, Spain; member of the American Legation at Havana, Cuba, 1921-1923; representative of the United States at the International Roads congress, Paris, 1925, and also at the World Economic conference in Geneva in 1926; technical adviser to the Pan-American conference at Havana, Cuba, 1927-1928. In 1928, Dr. Jones was assigned to make a special economic review of conditions in Mexico for the Department of Commerce. He is professor of political science, and Director of the School of Commerce at the University of Wisconsin. He is author of "The Consular Service of the United States," "Readings on Parties and Elections in the United States," and joint author with H. K. Norton and P. T. Moon in "Caribbean and Prospects."

Dr. Cox, well known as national figure in the American History association, is also a member of the E. L. Doheny Foundation. He was for many years teacher and later principal of the San Antonio academy. He gave the Shaw lectures at Johns Hopkins university. He is the author of "The West Florida Controversy," "Nicaragua and the United States," "American Historical Review." He is a lecturer on Spain and Hispanic America. The public is invited. All lectures are without charge.

Former N. S. Girl Is Engaged to Glencoe Man

A former resident of the north shore is Miss Mary Lent, whose engagement to Curtis Clinton Tatham of Glencoe is announced.

Miss Lent attended Northwestern university where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Tatham attended the Universities of Rochester and Chicago, and is a member of Alpha Delta Phi.

The announcement was made at a luncheon and bridge at the home of Miss Charlotte Moody of Wilmette. No date has been set for the wedding.

To Give Music Program at Neighbors

The program to be presented before the Neighbors of Kenilworth at their first meeting in the new year will be given on January 16, by Norma Bosworth (at the left), soprano, and Evelyn LaSalle, pianist, both members of the North Shore Musicians club and well known on the north shore and elsewhere.

Dorothy Enchelmayer Names Wedding Party

At the marriage of Miss Dorothy Enchelmayer and John F. Romer, both of Glencoe, Friday evening, January 26, the bride's only attendant will be her sister, Mrs. Carl Herbst of Glencoe, the former Marie Enchelmayer. Carl Herbst will serve Mr. Romer as best man. A reception for sixty friends and relatives will follow the ceremony. After a short honeymoon Mr. Romer and his bride will be at home after January 29, at 1886 Burton avenue, Ravinia.

On Wednesday afternoon, January 10, Mrs. Thomas P. Mehlhop of Glencoe, entertained at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Enchelmayer; on the evening of January 15, Miss Dorothy Farrar of Wilmette will be hostess at a miscellaneous shower; Mrs. G. O. Yarger of Winnetka and Mrs. Herbst were co-hostesses at a hosiery shower at the former's home on the evening of January 10; also, there will be a pantry shower, the date of which has not yet been set, to be given by Mrs. Lawrence Sorrenson of Lake Forest.

To Give Valentine Dance

The North Shore Junior Welfare league is planning a Valentine dance to be held Saturday evening, February 10, at the North Shore hotel. Those who are on the committee arranging the affair are Mrs. Henry Lustgarten of Wilmette, Miss Margaret Caster of Evanston, and Miss Agnes Erickson and Miss Phyllis Dally of Winnetka.

For High School Friends

Margery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mintz, 50 Crescent place, entertained a group of twelve high school friends at dancing and ping pong Saturday.

Kenilworth Welfare Center Will Install Officers January 16

The regular monthly meeting and luncheon of the Kenilworth center of the Chicago Infant Welfare society was held Tuesday, January 9, at the Union church in Kenilworth.

A business session, at which the new officers will be installed, will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday, January 16, at the home of Mrs. Cedric Smith, 205 Essex road, Kenilworth. Mary Branigar is the incoming president; Mrs. Christian Schafer, vice-president; Miss Eleanor Lippincott, treasurer; Mrs. LeRoy McFaul, corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Griswold, recording secretary; Mrs. Cedric Smith, chairman of publicity; Mrs. Walter Glass and Mrs. Earle Bommersheim, chairmen of sewing; Mrs. Richard Clinton, Jr., volunteer chairman; Mrs. William Jenks, social chairman; Mrs. Claude Sanders, contribution chairman.

There are thirty-five new members in this organization who all spend considerable time trying to raise their quota for maintenance of the Seward Park station, a quota which has been increased from $2,700 to $3,000.

The young women go into town three times a week to the pre-natal station at Oak and Franklin streets where they weigh babies, and to the pre-school station at the Seward Park settlement house. This group, assisted by a near north side group of Infant Welfare workers, is the entire support of the Seward Park station.

Mrs. Bosworth is the possessor of a charming voice and is the soloist at the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, in Evanston. She appeared on the Illinois Composers' program given at the Illinois Host house at A Century of Progress last summer, also on the Illinois Composers' program at the Governors' mansion in Springfield in November.

Mrs. LaSalle is a gifted pianist and composer, but, although it is as a pianist and composer she is best known, her talents as an accompanist are by no means negligible. A singer herself, she understands the requirements of a singer and has played accompaniments for a number of them.

The program follows:

- I
(a) The Lake Isle of Innisfree—Liza Lehmann
(b) Wings of Night—Winter Watts
(c) I Hold Her Hand—Russell
(d) When I Go Alone—Buzzi-Peccia
The last two numbers are lyrics from Tagore.

Norma Bosworth

- II
Six songs written by Evelyn LaSalle
(a) Swans
(b) Peccie
(c) April Song
(d) Values
(e) The Boatman
(f) Green Mountains

Norma Bosworth

- III
La Rondine—Giacomo Puccini
Piano arrangement by Evelyn LaSalle
Soloist, Norma Bosworth

The afternoon is in charge of Mrs. Earl C. Moss, chairman of the department of music.

Kappas Meeting Jan. 17

The north shore alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. George K. Falley, 2440 Lincolnwood drive, Evanston, on Wednesday, January 17. Miss Juliana Holmes will be hostess, and luncheon will be served at 12:30, it is announced. For reservations call Mrs. Falley or Mrs. Richard Howell, 1768 Washington avenue, Wilmette. Bridge will be played in the afternoon.

Cook County Clubs in Session Next Monday

The Cook County Federation of Women's Clubs will have its regular meeting Monday, January 15, at 10:30 in the morning in the Eleanor Club rooms of the Stevens building in Chicago. The meeting will be in charge of the American Home department of which Mrs. Estelle B. Pitts is chairman.

Speakers will include Miss Myrtle Carpenter and Miss Frances L. Swain, director of the household arts department of the Chicago Public schools, who will present "The Homemaker Tomorrow." The third speaker, Miss Sue Wigley of the National Association of Life Underwriters, will talk on "Romance of Forward Planning."

Luncheon will be served at 12:45 o'clock. All federated club women are welcome. Mrs. D. Warner is president of the federation.

Reading Circle Hostess

The Reading circle will meet Monday, January 15, with Mrs. Louis Bruch of 1815 Chicago avenue, Evanston, at 1:15 o'clock.