National College Students to Give Play for Children

The students of the National College of Education will present "The Animal Theater," a most unusual and interesting play for children, on Saturday, February 17, under the direction of Miss Etta Mount. Two performances will be given, one in the morning at 10:15, and the other in the afternoon at 2:15. An attractive luncheon for both adults and children will be served at 12 and 1 o'clock, making it possible to entertain parties of children and grown-ups for luncheon and the play.

The North Shore alumnae of the college will again sponsor the performances and Miss Jean Forsythe, president, is in charge of general arrangements and has announced the following chairmen for the various committees:

Tickets and luncheon reservations—Mrs. Charles F. Anderson, Miss Mildred Dittman.

Luncheon arrangements—Mrs. Alfred Bates, Mrs. R. H. Schmidt.

Waitresses for luncheon—Mrs. Norman Clark.

Luncheon for cast of play—Mrs. George Theisen, Miss Katherine Tufts.

Afternoon refreshments—Mrs. Clive Bishop, Mrs. E. G. Kaupert.

Luncheon decorations—Miss Mabel Pierson, Miss Anne Kappes.

General publicity—Miss Marjorie Eismann, Miss Audry Shaad.

The proceeds of the play will be donated to the College Building fund.

Plays Own Compositions at Press Club Meeting

Dorothy Bell Briggs of Kenilworth is playing a group of her own compositions tonight (Thursday) at the Illinois Women's Press association meeting at the Cordon club in Chicago.
