

man; Mrs. Hervey S. Knight of Evanston, Mrs. J. B. Olwin of Wilmette, and Mrs. J. Sherman Root of Glencoe.

Reservations — Mrs. William B. Manchester of Glencoe, chairman, with Mrs. William C. Miller, assistant chairman; Mrs. C. A. Whetstone of Winnetka, Mrs. E. R. Phelps of Highland Park, and Mrs. J. C. Sawyer of Evanston.

Entertainment and Music — Mrs. Ross J. Beatty of Highland Park, chairman; Miss Marjorie Leaming of Ravinia, Mrs. Samuel J. Lang of Evanston, Mrs. Ernest C. Burgess of Glencoe, and Mrs. George T. Leach of Winnetka.

Birthday Party for Neighbors

Members Are in Surprise Program for Anniversary Tuesday; Adelaide Love Writes Poem

As each year adds itself to the life span of The Neighbors of Kenilworth, the occasion is the cause of celebration. Thirty-eight years have been so honored, and now, as the thirtieth steps into sight, another birthday luncheon is scheduled. This season it will be on Tuesday next, with Mrs. Clyde P. Ross and Mrs. Thomas C. White in charge of the day with its luncheon at 12:30, and a surprise program in the afternoon.

The nature of that entertainment is not revealed, but those members taking part in it are announced as being:

Mesdames Charles Ware, Carolyn Ellsworth, William Taylor, Wendell Clark, Harry Weese, Ward Starrett, Leslie Blom, Leon Ellis, Frank Ketcham, A. R. Peterson, Alfred McDougal, Vernon Loucks, Henry Zander, Jr., Walter Anderson, Earl Moss, and the Misses Loretta White, Virginia Marshall, Nancy McCloud.

A poem has been written for the event by Mrs. Chase W. Love (Adelaide Love). Miss Isabelle Lovedale of Northwestern university is directing the program.

Mrs. Armand Peycke, social chairman, is in charge of the luncheon.

Luncheon and Program for Baptist Women Friday

The Women's society of the Wilmette Baptist church will meet Friday, February 9, at 12:30 o'clock for luncheon. The hostesses are members of Link S. Mrs. W. D. Millard chairman. Mrs. Harry Burnside will preside in the absence of the president.

The theme, "Venturing With New Americans," will be carried out with a playlet under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Jones, entitled "Where Love Is."

Mrs. T. R. Rawlings of Mission union, will give the talk on civic affairs, and the Rev. George D. Allison will bring his usual clever remarks on the topics of the day.

Mrs. C. W. Lerch will play a group of violin solos including "To Spring," by Grieg, and "Humoresque" by Roberts, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul W. Stade. Mrs. Lerch is a resident of Wilmette and a member of the North Shore Musicians' club and of the Evanston Symphony orchestra.

Dana Hall Alumna

Carlos Photo

Miss Caroline Roberts of Kenilworth, the acting chairman of the Kenilworth and Wilmette alumnae of the Dana Hall school at Wellesley, Mass., is accepting reservations for the annual Alumnae luncheon to be held at the Chicago Woman's Athletic club, Saturday, February 17, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John Weinstock, 333 Ivy court, Kenilworth, gave a small bridge luncheon Tuesday.

Garden Club of Illinois to Have Important Talk

Important to those interested in gardens and their beauty and development, is the lecture the Garden Club of Illinois is presenting at the Palmer House, Monday, February 12, with Mrs. Olive Beeman of the Teachers college of the University of Chicago the speaker. Her talk, which will be given at 2 o'clock, will describe "Spring Work in the Garden." Inasmuch as there is a meeting of the board of the Garden Club of Illinois that morning, a special luncheon will be served in a private dining room for any who wish to attend. Reservations for it are to be made, however, with Mrs. Lawrence Scudder of Lake Forest.

Anyone interested in hearing the program, though not a member of the clubs affiliated with the Garden Club of Illinois, may attend upon payment of a small fee at the door.

Sew for Children in Baptist Home

Wilmette women, whether club members or not, are invited to join members of the Woman's Club of Wilmette in its next day of sewing Friday, February 16, sponsored by its philanthropy department. Work on that day, commencing at 10 and lasting until into the afternoon, will be for the Baptist Children's home.

Mrs. W. C. Huggins is chairman of sewing and Mrs. Henry Beach is luncheon chairman.

R. M. Hillyer, the luncheon-hour speaker, will tell of the work at this home in Maywood where children from 5 years up to high school age are sent.

FINAL CLOSE-OUT SALE!

On May 1st, 1934, we must bring our business to a close — all stock must be disposed of.

Big Reductions on All Merchandise

20% DISCOUNT ON FRAMING

F.I.B. ART SHOP

1642 Orrington Ave., Evanston

UNI. 0770

Our maternity dresses

are designed by pretty clever people. They know that in this day and age, people don't expect you to hide just because you're going to have a baby... they expect you to have fun. That's why our maternity dresses are young dresses; with interest at the neckline; broad shoulders that make hips look slimmer and with surplice and lap effects taken care of so cleverly that lines are always straight. In sizes 14 to 20.

All reasonably priced.

Edgar A. Stevens, Inc.

1624 ORRINGTON AVENUE
EVANSTON