

Shop in The L Terminal District

Where your patronage is desired and appreciated

It has been said that "the public does not so much require to be informed as to be reminded." The L Terminal Business Association takes this opportunity to remind the public that the best values in dependable merchandise at prices which afford the utmost in economy are here joined with a friendly personal service never experienced in the larger trading centers. Protected parking is an unusual courtesy of your neighborhood merchants that you will appreciate.
