

Award Certificates and Letters to New Trier Cage, Swim Teams

Players Accorded Honors at Monday Assembly

Basketball and swimming letters and numerals for 1934 were awarded to New Trier High school boys at an assembly held Monday morning. The assembly was one of three similar ones held each year at New Trier.

Heavyweight basketball players who received letters included Don Anderson, who has been elected captain of the team for next year, Howard Ball, Clarence Dahl, Bob Davis, Loren Greenblatt, Edwin Horn, George Laing and Ed Mee. Five other heavyweights who had previously received letters were awarded certificates—Ralph Bucklin, Bob Halquist, Douglas "Duke" Scott, Jack Sinding and Tom "Bud" Thackery.

Two Get Certificates

On the lightweight team this year's captain, Richard Flynn, and Dick Umberger received certificates, while Bill Chichester, Bill Condry, Dick Cullen, James Fitzgerald, John Griffith, Louis Klein, Elister McMurry, Dave Miller, who has been elected captain for next year, Bill Robertson, Carleton Wilson and Elmer Young, were awarded letters.

Foster Gilgis received the senior basketball manager's letter, and Emil Anderson and Robert Rothschild were given numerals as junior managers.

received numerals were: Marvin Bland, Frank Borovicka, Michael Conley, Harold Finch, Byron Fisher, Bob Nevins, John Speredes, Joseph Franco, Leroy Kidder, Edwin Mahle, Arthur Nielsen, David Skillin and Burton Smith.

William M. James to Speak Monday, Mar. 26

William McGee James, 208 Eighteenth street, Wilmette, candidate for representative in the general assembly from the Seventh senatorial district, at the Republican primary on April 10, will speak at an open meeting at the Wilmette Village hall Monday evening, March 26. Mrs. James will discuss in detail four or five bills that will be presented for passage in the next two years, and will also explain the different planks of the platform upon which he seeks support. Mr. James has made a close study of the state constitution, revenue laws and probate practice, is on the faculty of Chicago-Kent College of Law, has been an extensive contributor to law magazines and is author of a recent book of note on "Illinois Probate Procedure and Practice."
