

May Festival at National College to Be on May 11

The annual May festival of National College of Education will be given on Friday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock in Harrison hall, which is the college building on Sheridan road at the boundary of Evanston and Wilmette.

This festival is a tradition of long standing, originated by the founder of the college, Miss Elizabeth Harrison, many years ago when the college was in Chicago. It is now the product of the year's work of Miss Etta Mount's classes in pageantry, assisted by classes in applied arts, and is unusual in creativeness and originality. It is the object of the course in pageantry to develop creative self expression on the part of the seniors and juniors, and the festival gives a fine opportunity to demonstrate their growth in this direction.

Opens With Dance of Youth

The festival program, this year, will open with a "Dance of Youth," an expression of the joy of spring-time and youth, full of grace, vigor and freedom of movement. The second number is a colorful Scandinavian scene, with gay folk dances and quaint folk songs, presented by the college choir under the direction of Louise St. John Westervelt. The third number is an artistic fanciful dialogue between the garbage man and the "lady of the house," as they together enjoy the beauty of a "red bird on a white tree" and both feel to an equal degree the poetry and inspiration of the sight.

The "Peeve Ballet" which comes next, is a humorous satire and includes the "Cynic," "Irritability," "Optimism," "Pessimism" and the "Professors and Students." This will be a very jolly number.

May Queen to Appear

The final scene marks the high light of the festival and the high light of the year, for in this scene appears the May queen who has been chosen by the students in secret ballot as the most representative girl in the senior class; the one who, in the estimation of her classmates most nearly represents the "Spirit of National." This year the scene will represent a grotto under the sea, and lovely mermaids, bearing branches of coral and garlands of sea weed will be attendants to the queen. As no one knows the identity of the queen until she appears upon the stage the excitement and suspense of the students is indescribable during this final number of the evening's program.

CONDUCT NOVENA

The Dominican missionaries, the Rev. Leo L. Farrell, O.P. superior of the Dominican Mission band, and the Rev. Henry A. Kelly, O.P. of Chicago will conduct the May solemn public novena in honor of St. Jude, "Helper in Difficult Cases," at the Shrine of St. Jude in charge of the Dominican Fathers on 19th street and South Ashland avenue, Chicago. During these nine days of prayer, starting May 7, there will be public services daily, at 10 a. m., 3 p. m., 6:30 p. m., and 8 p. m. The relic of St. Jude will be offered for public veneration at all services. The solemn closing exercises on May 15 will be in charge of the Rev. William A. Marchant, O.P.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dudley, 414 Warwick road, Kenilworth, returned last Friday from Orlando, Fla., where they had been since January 1. Their daughter, Katherine, who had been visiting in the east, spent the last month with them.

'C. Hahn for Stamps' New North Shore Shop

A new "industry" comes to the north shore with the opening on May 1 of a stamp shop, "C. Hahn for Stamps" in Suite 10 of the Boal building, 545 Lincoln avenue (corner of Elm street), Winnetka.

Mannel Hahn, journalist and author, will be in charge of the shop. He has been for some years conductor of a newspaper column on stamps and a contributor to the philatelic press as well as other magazines. The stamp business, from being a sideline has grown until it needs all of the energy of three people.

Both sources of supply and customers of the firm are scattered from Arctic to Antarctic all around the globe. Through years of residence in Europe and South America, Hahn has built up a personal contact with many important dealers and collectors in far-off places, which is reflected in the wide variety of the stock.

Besides stamps of all the world, "C. Hahn for Stamps" will carry a full line of albums and other accessories.
