

George Anna Gonsalves Weds Dion B. Poupeney

In the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gonsalves, 2011 Thornwood avenue, Wilmette, last Saturday afternoon, Miss George Anna Gonsalves became the bride of Dion Beers Poupeney. The Rev. J. W. F. Davies, formerly of Winnetka, read the service at 4 o'clock before the immediate relatives and a few friends.

Mrs. Ralph Thomas of Chicago and the bride's brother, Robert Gonsalves, were the only attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Poupeney are leaving May 5, to make their home in Detroit.

The bride attended Franklin college where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Poupeney is a graduate of Annapolis.

April Bride

In a dress of navy blue with white gardenias, Miss George Anna Gonsalves of 2011 Thornwood avenue, Wilmette, was married to Dion Beers Poupeney on Saturday, April 21, at 4 o'clock, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gonsalves.

Guests of Honor

Mrs. Harvey M. Dibble, 530 Lake avenue, and Miss Anna Dingee, formerly of Wilmette, were guests of honor at the meeting of the Tuesday luncheon bridge club at Shawnee this week. Mrs. Dibble, who is a charter member of the club, is leaving next week with Mr. Dibble and Miss Dingee for California.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Mons, 157 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, had as their dinner guests on two evenings of last week Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Little of Yokohama, Japan. Mr. Little is in the United States on business.

Entertaining

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Briggs, 1314 Greenwood avenue, will entertain at a theater party Saturday followed by a dinner dance at the Palmer House. Their guests will include all the salesmen of the middle west in Mr. Briggs' business, and their wives.

A Bow ON YOUR INSTEP
TAKES A SIZE OFF YOUR FOOT!

It's a flattering mode . . . this idea of BOWS! This one serves a double purpose . . . makes your foot much smaller . . . and conceals a gore that insures a perfect fit for even the most slender foot. This is one of the "hit-styles" of an entrancing collection of summer WALK-OVERS, now shown in our windows.
