Marjorie Horstman Becomes Bride of Howard A. Barker

The Wilmette Parish Methodist church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Marjorie Mabel Hortsman, daughter of the J. W. Horstmans of Evanston, to Howard Anson Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Barker of 431 Eighth street, Wednesday evening of this week at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Oscar Thomas Olson officiated.

The bride was gowned in heavy white lace made in empire style with a long train, and she carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. She wore instead of a veil, a half coronet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Mrs. Frank Heib of Evanston, her matron of honor, was in a gown of ice-green crepe and carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid, another sister, Miss Sylvia Horstman, wore flesh colored mousseline-de-soie, and carried bridesmaid roses.

Donald Barker served his brother as best man and Alfred Barker, another brother, was usher.

Inasmuch as the bride's family is moving to Glenridge, N. J., Saturday, the wedding reception was held at the Barker residence.

The bride and bridegroom are not taking their wedding trip now, but are deferring it until later when they take a cruise to Bermuda, probably in June. They are to make their home at 1812 Chase avenue, Rogers Park.

Entertaining for the young people included the bridal dinner given Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Evanston.

Among the parties for the bride were the showers given by Mrs. Fred A. Barker, and Mrs. Arthur F. Biser of Wilmette, and Miss Anita Parish of Evanston.

Wilmette Girl Is Not Superstitious About 13

Jacqueline Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Willis, 1606 Forest avenue, Wilmette, cannot afford to be superstitious about the number thirteen, inasmuch as her life centers around a combination of thirteens. She was born on Friday, April 13, 1921, and was the thirteenth grandchild. Incidentally, the total of the numbers 1921 equal thirteen. Jacqueline was 13 years old on Friday, April 13, and in celebration of the occasion she invited thirteen guests in for the evening for games and refreshments.

Aids St. Paul's House

Mrs. George T. Schuster, 854 Sheridan road, and her daughter, Mrs. Horace Grignon, were hostesses at a card party last Tuesday afternoon for the benefit of St. Paul's House of Chicago. There were about thirty-six tables in play.

Spring Card Party to Aid Mary Crane School Hostess Chairmen for College Board Booth at Fair

An early May party, an annual spring event which benefits the Mary Crane Nursery school at Hull House, will be given Friday afternoon of next week at 2 o'clock at the Evanston Woman's club. Its sponsor is the Mary Crane league of the National College of Education. On the success of this benefit depends the continuance of the Nursery school's support.

The committee in charge is headed by Mrs. Walter Clark Roberts. Mrs. J. Edgar Lee is in charge of tickets; Mrs. John Riechert, prizes; Mrs. Wilfred Shaw, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Spaeth, food sale; Mrs. R. H. Schmidt, table arrangements; Mrs. E. L. Ward, publicity.

Prizes will include those for tables, refreshments will be served, and the tickets are nominal in price.

The Mary Crane league through the Nursery school takes care of fifty or sixty children in the needy neighborhood surrounding Hull House. After carrying on its work for eight or nine years, the league feels that it would be a shame to be forced to discontinue it. For that reason its members are bending every effort to make the benefit a success.

Mildred Madison Bride of John B. Boddie, III

Miss Mildred Madison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Madison of Jacksonville, Ill., and John Bennett Boddie, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Boddie of Rogers Park, formerly of Wilmette, were married on Wednesday morning of this week in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's Episcopal Pro-cathedral.

The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by Dr. Hubert Carleton of St. Augustine's church, Wilmette, and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Orrington hotel. The bride was attended by Mrs. Gordon B. Shattuck, the former Anne Boddie, and the bridegroom had as his best man Fred S. James of Winnetka. The ceremony and wedding breakfast were attended only by the immediate families.

After a motor trip south Mr. Boddie and his bride will be at home after May 15, at 1369 Greenleaf avenue, Rogers Park.
