SUNDAY SERVICES

Sunday school 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship 11 a. m.
Choir rehearsal Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At our service of worship next Sunday morning Luther Mueller will deliver the message. Mr. Mueller was the first young man confirmed in our church, having been confirmed with the class of 1922. He has just completed his theological training at the Chicago Lutheran Theological seminary.

Luther leaguers reserve June 2 for the Luther league hike. Instead of discontinuing the league meetings for the summer months the leaguers have decided to hold their meetings on the second and fourth Wednesday evenings of the month beginning with Wednesday evening, June 13, at 7:30.

We will begin our summer schedule of services on Sunday, June 17.

Early service 8 a. m.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Second service 11 a. m.

The early worship service is held for the convenience of those who wish to spend the day away from home but first wish to worship.

Sunday, June 17, will be Children's Day in our church. The Children's service will be held at 9 o'clock, which will be the regular Sunday school hour beginning that day.

An hour spent in the House of God on the Sabbath Day will make your week more joyous.

First Presbyterian

Ninth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister

"The Goal Lies Forward" will be the theme of the sermon by the pastor. This service will be specially for students who are graduating this year from our schools, high school, and colleges. They are specially invited, and their parents are urged to accompany them. The service will be at 11 o'clock. We cordially invite you to worship with us.

Miss Erma Rounds, director of music, has prepared the following musical program for the service: Prelude, "Largo" (Xerxes), Handel; anthem, "Spirit Immortal," Verdi, Mrs. McCormick, Mr. Rust, Mr. Otis, and the choir; offertory solo, "Recessional," De Koven, Mr. Edward Otis; postlude, "March" (G Minor Suite), Rogers.

Our Bible school meets in all departments at 9:30 o'clock.

Our Adult Bible class is still wrestling with the problem of Jonah. We invite you to the class session at 9:45 o'clock.

The Preparatory class for those who plan to join the church will hold its last session Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, led by the pastor.

The last meeting of the Christian Endeavor society before the summer vacation will be at 5:30 Sunday evening. The topic will be "How Best Use Our Leisure Time," led by Misses Ellen Jean Torrey and Helen Condit.

The Forum will have tea at 6:30, followed by its regular meeting. Mrs. Veneklasen will lead the discussion on the topic, "A Look at Bahaiism." This is the college and post-college group.

Boy Scout Troop No. 5 meets Monday evenings at Washington park.

The Board of Deacons will meet Monday evening at the home of the chairman, Frank Church, 610 Maple avenue, at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday evening at our mid-week service we will continue our study of the Messianic prophecies, using specially the topic, "Christ, the Priest-Mediator." The meeting is at 8 o'clock and we invite you to join us. The attendance has been very gratifying.

Girl Scout Troop No. 5 meets at the church Thursday afternoon.

The choir rehearses Friday evening at 7 o'clock. This Friday, May 25, the choir is presenting a Music Festival evening, to which you are invited. The program begins at 8 o'clock. There is no admission charge. An offering will be received.

Communion and reception of new members will be on June 3.

Children's day will be observed June 10. Little children will be baptized. The service will be at 10:30 o'clock.

Wilmette Baptist

Wilmette and Forest avenues
Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

Patriotic exercises will characterize the morning service on Sunday next at 11 o'clock, when Memorial Sunday will be observed. There will be appropriate music by the chorus choir under the direction of Miss Lydia Koch. Members of the American Legion, of the United Spanish War Veterans and of the G. A. R. are especially invited to attend. Citizens who are not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to join us in this religious service of remembrance and of hope. Dr. Allison preaches on "The Religious Significance of True Patriotism."

In the church school a similar emphasis on loyalty to our country will be made, along with an attempt to give the children a right religious approach to patriotism. There will be young people's meetings at 6:30, for both older and younger groups. Special attention is called to the current play, "Three Moss Roses," which these young people are presenting tonight (Thursday) at the church. On Friday evening, the Adult class of the Sunday school will have their annual banquet at the Library Plaza.

Great interest has been manifested in the series of studies of "Books That Left Their Mark," which have engaged our thought in our Wednesday evening's services. The next immortal book is Victor Hugo's masterpiece, "Les Misérables." The public is welcome at these gatherings, which begin at 8 o'clock promptly.

Organization and group meetings will be held this week at the usual hours.

Kenilworth Union

Kenilworth avenue and Warwick road
Dr. Herbert L. Willett, minister

Sunday, May 27, Dr. Willett's subject will be: "War and Peace." The church service is at 11 o'clock.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:45. Children between the ages of 3 and the high school are invited. The Junior and Senior departments will meet jointly at 10:15 in the Guild room for a memorial service.

Sunday, June 3, will be Children's day, the last meeting of the Sunday school for the season.

The final service for the church will be Sunday, June 10.

Methodist Church

Cor. Lake and Wilmette avenues
Rev. Oscar Thomas Olson, D. D., minister

The minister's sermon theme for the 11 o'clock worship service next Sunday morning will be "Spiritual Gravitation."

Still Life Painting Is Given Silver Medal

Mrs. Eugene Selleck (Margaret Hall) of Desplaines, daughter of the late Mrs. Lorin Hall of Wilmette, will receive a silver medal from the All-Illinois Society of Fine Arts this Friday at a luncheon at the Stevens hotel. The medal is being awarded for a large watercolor drawing of a jar of giant dahlias. The painting was first exhibited at the Woman's Club of Wilmette at a display of the work of women artists of the north shore held in April 1933, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Huff, chairman of the art department. It will be hung this summer in A Century of Progress exhibition in the galleries of the Stevens hotel. Mrs. Selleck has been invited to join the group of artists who will do portrait sketches at the Fair this summer.

CIRCLE MEETING

The North End circle of the Congregational church will have its last all day meeting and luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. Wallace Kerr, 707 Forest avenue, on Monday, May 28. Mrs. Charles Bixby, Mrs. R. E. Pattison Kline, Mrs. Lester Mee, and Mrs. T. E. Thompson will be assisting hostesses.

Ruth Suekoff, daughter of the Louis Suekoffs, 819 Chestnut avenue, left Wednesday of last week for Memphis, Tenn., where she will be the house guest of Dorothy and Katherine Levitch for two weeks during the cotton festival.
