

VISITS IRIS GARDEN

The Kenilworth Home and Garden club visited the iris garden of David Hall, 809 Central avenue, on Monday of last week. Mr. Hall gave a talk on iris and showed how he propagated iris. His iris garden is considered one of the finest around here. The club will have a special meeting next Monday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lindsley, 260 Oxford road, Kenilworth. The subject is to be "Lilies." Afterwards the club members will proceed to the home of Mrs. William Large, 370 Sheridan road, to have tea in her garden and to see her rhododendrons and lilies.

A daughter was born on Sunday, June 3, at St. Luke's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roeser of Chicago. Mrs. Roeser is the former Elizabeth Hannah of Kenilworth. The Roesers have a son 3 years old.

Hold Services Here for Mrs. Sarah A. Bradford

The remains of Sarah Alice (Mrs. S. G.) Bradford, 80 years of age, who died Saturday, June 2, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John E. Cole, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, N. Y., were brought to Wilmette by Mrs. Cole for burial. Funeral services, in charge of Mrs. Margaret Laird of Evanston, Christian Science reader, were held Monday, June 4, at Scott's Funeral home, 1118 Greenleaf avenue. Interment was in Memorial Park cemetery. Mrs. Bradford was a former resident of Chicago, moving to Brooklyn about six years ago with Mr. and Mrs. Cole. Two sisters, Mrs. J. H. McFarland and Mrs. O. C. Eastman, live at 1027 Elmwood avenue.

Mrs. Charles S. Clarke, 526 Washington avenue, was luncheon hostess to her foursome bridge club Monday.

KENILWORTH GIRL SCOUTS

GIVE PUPPET SHOW

A large attendance featured the puppet show given Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of Joseph Sears school by Brownie pack No. 1 of Kenilworth to close the Girl Scout activities in that village for the season. Proceeds of the show will go to buy equipment for the Brownie pack. Before the show started, Brownies sold candy which the mothers had donated.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford S. Holden of Kenilworth will give the bridal dinner for their daughter, Barbara, Friday, June 15, at Indian Hill club. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Searles, and Betty and Peggy, of Pittsburg, family of the bridegroom, will arrive June 13, and stay at the north Shore Hotel in Evanston until after the wedding.

Oakbrook Polo Team to Play Black Horse Troop

The polo games at Oakbrook Polo club 22nd street (Cermak road) and York road, Sunday, June 10, at 3:30 o'clock, will be a return game between Oakbrook Polo club and the "Famous" Black Horse troop of Chicago. Last Sunday's game was won by Oakbrook, by a score of 6 to 4, in one of the most exciting games played at Oakbrook. The bringing in of new ponies has speeded up the game, and brought many swift dashes to the delight of the fans. George Bates, Paul Butler, Captain Stockton, Lt. Keehn, are all superbly mounted this year. The line-up Sunday afternoon will be as follows:

Oakbrook	Black Horse Troop
Bowers & Shaffer	1 Lieutenant Kirby
James A. Hannah	2 Captain Stockton
George A. Bates	3 Captain Butler,
R. W. McIlvain,	captain
	4 Lieutenant Keehn

Mrs. W. N. Gillett, 533 Roslyn road, Kenilworth, was luncheon hostess to her bridge club Tuesday.
