

Garnett Songs Will Be Recital Feature

Songs by Louise Ayres Garnett, distinguished Evanston composer and lyricist, will be sung by John Eliot, Chicago tenor, at a chamber music recital to be given by the Swigart Trio Sunday evening, June 17. The recital, which is open to the public at a nominal fee, is to be at the home of Rutheda L. Pretzel, 1035 Bluff road, Glencoe, and is the second in a series of music events for north shore music lovers, being arranged by Miss Pretzel.

Mrs. Garnett has composed a song to Victor Hugo's poem, "If There Be A Grassy Dell," and dedicated it to the late Peter C. Lutkin, and this will have its premiere performance on June 17, when Mr. Eliot sings it with trio accompaniment. Other songs by Mrs. Garnett to be included will be "The Sun Grail," to words by Julia Cooley; "God Is At The Anvil," to words by Lew Sarett; and "This Thing Called Death," to her own words.

The Swigart Trio, which is composed of George Swigart, violinist, and his sister Estelle Swigart, 'cellist, of Wilmette; and Pauline Manchester, pianist, of Glencoe, is to play part of the Tchaikowsky's A minor trio; "Russian Air," by Glinka; "Danse Characteristique," by Rebikoff, and short numbers. Mr. Eliot also will sing, with trio accompaniment, the Cavatina from "Faust," and Strauss' "Morgen."

Spanish Dance Concert Accorded High Acclaim

The Spanish dance concert of José Alvarez and Mira Soriano at the Chicago Woman's club theater last Saturday evening was attended by an exclusive north shore and Chicago audience. The numbers which were received most enthusiastically were the opening number, Fandanguillo; Jota de Concierto, which was portrayed in the spirit of the Aragonese.

In the Danza Presentacion, they appeared as "La Maja y el Torero,"—a creation of Francisco de Goya; their unique interpretation of the dance, combined with their elaborate costumes, was a delight to the audience.

In the Tango Flamenco, José Alvarez showed the fire and temperament of a true Spaniard. His skill in heel-work was that of a master.

Another outstanding number was Alegrias (Gypsy Dance), by Senorita Soriano. Her grace and style received immediate acclaim. The intricate Cuban Danzon was splendidly done.

Faymonville Is Named New Trier Track Leader

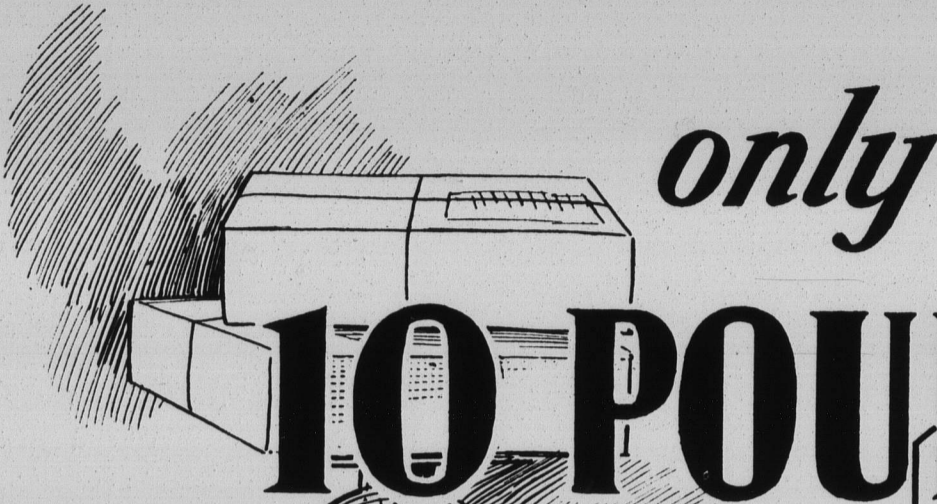

Bill Faymonville, one of the outstanding members of this year's state championship New Trier High school track team, will be captain of the team next year. He succeeds James Kingsley. Faymonville helped New Trier win not only the state meet this year, but other important meets as well, including the Suburban league championship. He set several records in the shot put and the discus throw at the various meets this season.

CONDUCT ART CLASSES

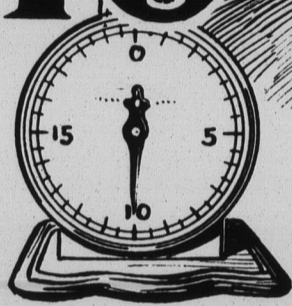

Glencoe, Winnetka and Wilmette classes in drawing, painting and sculpture for young people and children will be held in the studio of Mrs. Edward A. Brion, 181 Beach road, Glencoe, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings beginning June 18. Mrs. Brion will teach the drawing and painting, and Nancy Coonsman Hahn, the sculpture.
