

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Board of Wilmette Women Voters to Meet on June 20

The board of directors of the Wilmette League of Women Voters will meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 20, at the home of the president, Mrs. J. C. Baker, to complete its plans for the following year's work.

The board for 1934-35 consists of the following:

Mrs. Baker; Mrs. Fred E. Parry, first vice-president; Mrs. Shelby M. Singleton, second vice-president and membership chairman; Mrs. Donald Maxwell, co-chairman; Mrs. Murdo Ross, third vice-president and finance chairman; Mrs. Ira Reynolds, recording secretary; Mrs. I. R. Adkins, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. Warren Cozzens, treasurer; Mrs. Herman Reiling, program chairman; Mrs. H. B. Burnside, publicity chairman; Mrs. L. A. Bower, chairman of government and its operation; Mrs. H. E. Ringholm, village; Mrs. C. P. Evans, county; Mrs. H. B. Johnston, government and education; Mrs. J. D. Kinnear, government and child welfare; Mrs. Fred Rye, government and economic welfare; Mrs. F. W. Merrifield, government and international cooperation; Mrs. Earl E. Graham, co-chairman; Mrs. G. T. Hellmuth, publications; Mrs. S. E. Wells, social chairman.

The study group on government and international cooperation will meet at the home of Mrs. F. W. Merrifield, 1014 Elmwood avenue, Monday, June 11, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Lawrence Cole will speak on the peace movement and report on the recent National Peace convention held in Milwaukee. Anyone interested in the study of international cooperation is invited to join this group, and is asked to call Mrs. Merrifield, who lives at 1014 Elmwood avenue.

Mrs. J. C. Baker, Mrs. Murdo Ross and Mrs. Harry Burnside will attend the Annual Finance Field day held today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Frank Hixon, Rosemary road, Lake Forest.

The Illinois League of Women Voters will hold an important program meeting Friday, June 8, at the Harriett McCormick Y.W.C.A. at 1001 North Dearborn street, Chicago. This meeting is called to realign the Illinois program in accordance with the action of the national convention and to consider changes in the by-laws. Those attending from the Wilmette league are Mrs. J. C. Baker, Mrs. J. W. Merrifield, Mrs. Earl E. Graham, Mrs. L. A. Bower, Mrs. J. D. Kinnear, Mrs. S. M. Singleton, Mrs. H. T. Reiling, and Mrs. H. B. Johnston.

Monday, June 11, at 10:30, over station WJJD, Coleman Woodbury will answer the questions on Municipal Housing which were sent in.

Mrs. Charles R. Bull, 612 Warwick avenue, Kenilworth, will be hostess to the Kenilworth Garden club at tea Friday.

Hostess at Benefit

Photo by Toloff

Mrs. Wilfred Shaw of Wilmette, with the other members of the board of the Mary Crane league, will be hostess Saturday afternoon when the league has its Holland Dutch day at A Century of Progress from 2 until 6, benefitting by all food sales in the Holland Dutch village on Northerly Island.

Sunset Ridge to Have Junior Dance June 9

The first junior dance of the summer season, at Sunset Ridge Country club, will be held Saturday, June 9, with Miss Jessie Pocock as instructor and hostess of the party. Judging from the early reservations, the club expects a large attendance at this opening affair.

The women of Sunset Ridge opened their golf season Tuesday and will have their first regular bridge day Friday. Mrs. Richard Payne of Winnetka has charge of the bridge and Mrs. C. M. Graham of Evanston is in charge of women's golf this season. The Sunset Ridge women had one of the largest luncheon-bridge parties of any Memorial day, last week, with an attendance of sixty-two.

A golf tournament for the men was held at Sunset Ridge Memorial day. G. S. Montgomery won the directors' prize, for thirty-six holes low net. The winning low net foursome in the morning was composed of D. R. Matson, J. H. Lindeman, H. R. Walton and G. H. Dovenmuehle, and the first-named won the individual low net prize for the morning. The prize-winning afternoon foursome, for low net, was made up of W. F. Lochridge, Rial Rolfe, Harold Hurtt, and R. Chandler. G. W. Wait was awarded the individual low net prize.

Infant Welfare Luncheon

Mrs. Harold O. Barnes, 98 Indian Hill road, entertained thirty guests of the Junior board of the Evanston auxiliary of the Infant Welfare society at luncheon Monday of last week.

Infant Welfare Center Party at Sunset Ridge

Sunset Ridge Golf club was the scene of a lovely luncheon and bridge party Monday, June 4, when two-thirds or thereabouts of the membership of the active Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago met for this social occasion. A delicious luncheon was served to the guests seated at small tables on the porch which gave a delightful view of the course. Guests were placed in the order of the reservation which served as a get-acquainted method.

Ten were fortunate at the bridge and were agreeably surprised and most pleased with the lovely prizes the committee had provided.

The many present will long remember this affair so effectively arranged by the social chairman, Mrs. Knight Blanchard and Mrs. Conrad Frykman, president of Infant Welfare. (Contributed)

Hostess to Ex-Regents

Mrs. Vinton Sisson of Winnetka entertained the Ex-Regents' club of the fourth division, Illinois D. A. R., at her home on Friday, June 1. New members to be initiated were this year's regents of chapters of the division. Former regents of the Highland Park, Skokie Valley, Glencoe, and Fort Dearborn chapters assisted the hostess. Mrs. Melville C. Chatten of Winnetka is president of the ex-regents' club.

Hostess

Mrs. Knight Blanchard, social chairman of the Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago, was acting hostess at the membership luncheon and bridge at Sunset Ridge club Monday of this week. Mrs. Blanchard lives at 1015 Chestnut avenue.

Dinners, Cocktail Parties to Precede Dance for Gads Hill

With plans in readiness and with an active Evanston and Winnetka ticket committee at work along the north shore to make the third annual carnival dance for Gads Hill settlement the social success of previous record, it remains this week for us to announce dinner and cocktail parties to precede it.

Among the hosts and hostesses who are entertaining friends to help make the evening merry, are those giving dinners, Mr. and Mrs. J. Endicott Bradstreet, the Rev. and Mrs. E. Ashley Gerhard, Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Mitchell, and Robert Gordon of Winnetka and Indian Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hubachek of Glencoe.

Added to these is another group having cocktail parties before the dance begins: Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin W. Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Welsh, who are entertaining jointly; Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Price, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hendry, all of Winnetka, and Mr. and Mrs. Burdette P. Mast of Glencoe.

In Evanston Mr. and Mrs. John F. Price are giving a buffet supper for sixteen guests in honor of their daughter, Jill, later proceeding to the dance at Skokie. Many Evanstonians are to be guests at the parties in these villages.

The Winnetka and Evanston auxiliaries of Gads Hill settlement are collaborating in sponsoring the dance which benefits Chicago's oldest settlement. It is given Saturday, June 9, at Skokie Country club.

To Hear of World Journey Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) Anita Willets Burnham of Winnetka will speak at St. John's Lutheran church, Park and Wilmette avenues, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the church. Her talk, with its humor and charm and informality and originality, is based on her successful book, "Round the World on a Penny."

Paintings done by the author herself and her daughters, and costumes acquired in various countries visited in that world journey, will illustrate Mrs. Burnham's lecture.

All members of the Aid society have tickets to sell for the fair, and they plan to serve cake and coffee at the end of the evening.

Cocktails Before Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Burch, 163 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, were host and hostess at a cocktail party Saturday preceding the dinner dance at Exmoor Country club.