Dorothy Dayton to Be Married Tuesday Evening

Next Tuesday evening in the chapel of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Evanston Miss Dorothy Dayton of Wilmette will become the bride of Beresford Ellsworth Beck of Evanston. A reception will follow at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt J. Denman, 21 Linden avenue, Wilmette. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. Ernest F. Tittle.

Miss Peggy Belden of Minneapolis will be Miss Dayton's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids are to be Miss Peggy Gillette, also of Minneapolis, Miss Jean Dunbar of Elmhurst, Miss Joan Walker and Miss Anne Mills of Highland Park. Joseph Beck will serve his brother as best man and the ushers are to be Lawrence Denman, Carl Kemps of Evanston, and Sidney Butz and Ford Stoddard of Wilmette. The ringbearer will be the five year old nephew of the bride, George Dayton III of Minneapolis.

The bride and bridegroom will be at home after July 15, at 736 Hinman avenue, Evanston.

Out-of-town guests who are coming for the wedding include the bride's grandfather, Dr. George D. Dayton of Minneapolis; The bride's brother and his wife and two children, Mr. and Mrs. George Dayton II, George III and Harriet of Minneapolis; another brother of the bride, Ward W. Dayton, and Mrs. Dayton of Newtonville, Mass., an uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Dayton; Mrs. Caroline Dayton Hayden; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snow of Charlottesville, N. C., (the bride's step-sister). Mr. and Mrs. Harlow I. Heneman (the former Avis Dayton) have cabled best wishes from London, England, and have expressed their regrets at not being able to attend the wedding. This summer Mr. Heneman will receive his Doctor's degree from the University of London, after which he will probably resume his teaching at the University of Michigan.

The ushers are giving a dinner party at the Drake hotel this Saturday for the bridal party. In the afternoon Miss Anne Mills will be hostess at a tea and shower for Miss Dayton. On Thursday Miss Joan Walker of Highland Park will be hostess at a bridge tea and kitchen shower; and on Friday Mrs. William D. Beck, the groom's mother, will entertain at a bridge luncheon for the bride and her bridesmaids.

Ward-Belmont Dinner

All former students of Ward-Belmont are invited to the annual Illinois-Chicago alumnae dinner to be held at 6:30 o'clock June 7, at the Chicago College club in Chicago. Dean Emma I. Sisson will be the guest of honor. Reservations may be made with Miss Cicely Cone, 1532 Fargo avenue, Chicago.

Their Home Is in Kenilworth

Wellesley Club Has Day at Fair June 13

The Chicago Wellesley club, through its president, Mrs. Ralph E. Church of Evanston, announces that Wednesday, June 13, will be its first hostess day at the Woman's College Board for a Century of Progress in its lounge in the Hall of Social Science on Northerly Island. Representing Wellesley that day will be Miss Emily Goehst and Miss Virginia Park from 10 in the morning until 4, and Mrs. Francis E. Broomell and Mrs. Frederick A. Peitzsch from 4 until 10 at night. Wellesley alumnae attending the fair that day and registering at the booth will find as a luncheon center upon that occasion, the Century club. At the luncheon Mrs. Earl A. White will give "Views of Tree Day of 1934."

Miss Theresa Rew of Evanston is in charge of the luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Robert T. Sherman of Winnetka, the former Jean Dawes. Mrs. Broomell is hostess chairman for the College board, as well as for the Chicago Wellesley club.

The last of the series of popular Dix teas given for alumnae of Wellesley in Chicago and its outlying villages was held last Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Church the hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Eugene A. Howard of Winnetka. Mrs. Dunbar Lewis of Glencoe and Mrs. Lambert Davis of Evanston poured.
