

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Wilmette Baptist

Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

During the month of July this congregation will join in worship at the First Congregational church, Wilmette and Lake avenues, with Dr. Allison in charge of morning services at 11 o'clock. He will interpret the great book of Isaiah, as its eternal principles apply in the present crisis. The topics for each Sunday are as follows:

July 1—"The Function of a Minority: Isaiah's Doctrine of 'The Remnant'."

July 8—"Woman's Responsibility for Social Justice."

July 15—"Can the Profit Motive Be Superseded?"

July 22—"Three Pictures of God: Wise, Strong, Kind."

July 29—"What is Coming?" or, "The Watch Tower of History."

The Religious Education board meets tonight (Thursday) at the church to reorganize and to set up functional committees for the fall term. This will complete the church organization for the coming season's work. Committees of trustees, deacons and of this board are reminded of the necessity of prompt action on the matters referred to them.

The Sunset club officers for the new year are Joel Dickerson, president; Ruth Phelps, program chairman, and Winthrop Richards, social chairman. Eleanor Williams is president of the Young People's union, the commissions of which will be announced shortly.

The social committee of the church is planning for an all-church get-together in the near future. The committee includes F. G. Guthridge, F. G. Sutherland, E. C. Carlson, Arthur Scott, C. H. Jones, Winifred Dingle, Mrs. H. N. Kerr and Mrs. Edward Meier.

The church worship committee has organized with Z. A. Parkhurst as chairman, Mrs. C. P. Dubbs, Mrs. F. G. Guthridge and W. O. Haas on music, W. C. Matthews and A. E. Batchelder on ushering and Mrs. P. H. Arden on flowers. Miss Lydia Koch will continue as organist and director of the choir.

Methodist Church

Rev. Oscar Thos. Olson, D. D., minister

The minister's sermon theme for the 11 o'clock worship service Sunday morning will be "Jesus and Patriotism."

The music for Sunday morning is as follows:

The organ prelude—"In the Cathedral" Pierre Dubois

"In Paradisum" Miss Marie Briel

Offertory Solo: "How Beautiful upon the Mountains" Harker

Miss Florence Farrar

The organ postlude: "Finale" (1st Sonata) Mendelssohn

The high school chapter of the Epworth league will meet Sunday evening at 6:30. Al Tucker will be the leader. Social hour will follow.

Thursday, July 5, at 8 o'clock, the High School league will have a garden party at the home of Annamarie and Julia Booz, 919 Forest avenue.

Small children will be cared for during the worship service throughout the summer.

Sunday, July 1, is the opening day of the seventy-fifth annual Des Plaines camp meeting. Bishop William Fraser McDowell will preach at 2:30 in the afternoon, and Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf will bring the message at 7:30 in the evening.

All Girl Scouts belonging to the troops sponsored by this church are reminded that the Wilmette Girl Scout Day camp opens Friday, July 6, and will be held on Tuesdays and Fridays during the month of July.

First Congregational

John G. Hindley, minister

We extend a cordial invitation to visitors and strangers in Wilmette to attend the union services of the Baptist and Congregational churches which will be held in this church during the month of July. The service is at 11 o'clock.

"The Function of a Minority" is the subject of the sermon which Dr. George D. Allison of the Baptist church will preach in this church Sunday morning. This will be the first of a series of interesting messages on "Isaiah and the Issues of Our Times." As a special student of the Old Testament pioneers of religion and social idealism, Dr. Allison finds the book of Isaiah teeming with marvelous insights into eternal principles which may be applied to the emergencies of today.

The musical program for Sunday's service will be:

Prelude: Aria from Tenth Organ Concerto Handel

Solo: Turn Thee to Me and Have Mercy Dvorak

Solo: Spirit of God Neidlinger

Postlude: Chorale and Variations Rogers

Mrs. Ethel Heide Wishover will be the soloist.

The church school will meet at 11 o'clock for a one-hour session, the beginners and primary departments under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Stevenson, and the juniors and intermediates with Mr. Mead.

First Presbyterian

Ninth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister.

Our worship service will be held at 11 o'clock. The minister will preach on the theme, "Lord, My Sight," suggested by one of the interviews with Jesus. We cordially invite you to worship with us and to bring your guests with you.

The musical program for the service will be as follows:

Prelude—"Etude" (E Major) Chopin

Solo—"Like As the Hart" Liddle

Mr. Otis

Offertory Solo—"O God, Our Help in Ages Past" West

Mr. Otis

Postlude—"Triumphal March" Verdi

Our Bible school holds its sessions every Sunday at 9:30 o'clock in all departments. The school will continue through the summer, and we welcome visitors.

Our adult Bible class will meet at 9:45 o'clock, led by the pastor. A new series of lessons on "The Life and Letters of Peter" will begin next Sunday. We cordially invited you to join us in this study.

The meetings of the young people have been discontinued for the summer months, to be resumed in the early fall.

Our church services will be continued through the summer. Worship with us.

The choir of the church will have a beach party and dinner on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock.

English Lutheran

Seventh street at Greenleaf avenue
"A House of Worship"
The Rev. David R. Kabele, pastor

SUNDAY SERVICES

Early service 8 a. m.
Sunday school 9 a. m.
Second service 11 a. m.

The Woman's society will meet this afternoon (Thursday) at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. G. S. Kingswood, 681 Willow road, Winnetka.

Our Sunday school will continue its sessions each Sunday morning during the summer months at 9 o'clock.

The Lutheran church once more will contribute a large share to the Sunday vespers of the National Broadcasting company during the summer months, the Rev. Frederick H. Knubel and the Rev. Paul E. Scherer, having accepted the invitation to speak during the Sunday vesper hour. The Chicago outlet for the Sunday vesper hour is WENR. The hour is 4 p. m., Chicago daylight saving time.

The Woman's society will hold its missionary meeting on Thursday afternoon, July 5, at 2 o'clock at the church. Mrs. Paul Johnson will present the topic, "Our Souls Catching Up With Our Bodies."

In the name of Jesus, the church bids you WELCOME!

St. John's Lutheran

Wilmette and Park avenues
J. H. Gockel, pastor

9 a. m.—Preparatory service for Holy Communion.

9:15 a. m.—First service, with Holy Communion.

9:30 a. m.—Sunday school and junior and intermediate Bible classes.

10 a. m.—Senior Bible class.

11 a. m.—Second service.

Continuing the series of sermons on the Lord's prayer, the sermon for next Sunday will deal with the fourth petition, "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread." This year there are not quite so many people who believe that we no longer need to acknowledge God as the giver of daily bread. But there is still much to be learned from this petition. Come and hear! You have St. John's hearty invitation.

Those desiring to partake of the

BIBLE CLASS MEETING

The Fundamental Truth Bible class (undenominational) will meet next Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church, Ninth street and Greenleaf avenue. The teacher is the Rev. Otis Q. Sellers.

Mary Jane Falvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Falvey, 1015 Ashland avenue, was awarded the Williams Memorial prize for drama at the graduating exercises on June 14, at New Trier High school. The prize winning play was entitled "Come Back to Sorrento."

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ward and their small son, Billy, Jr., of San Mateo, Cal., are to be guests this summer of the former's sister and family, the Albert B. Stalls, 119 Sixth street. While visiting they are also attending the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Witt and their daughter, Miss Genevieve Witt of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, are spending two weeks' vacation at Granton, Wis. They are expected home the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kollie and their daughter, Thelma, returned last Thursday to their home, 700 Laurel avenue, after a week's visit with relatives in Cleveland Heights and Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Dressel and their daughter, Miss Virginia Dressel, of 1046 Elmwood avenue, left last Tuesday by motor for New York to visit friends for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Weaver, 1020 Ashland avenue, returned last Monday from a three weeks' motor tour through the New England states.

Joseph Swan, 932 Lake avenue, who was graduated last Monday from Kenyon college, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drake in New York, and sails for Europe the last of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cunningham of Wilmette spent last week-end in Urbana visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Price.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris recently returned to their home at 944 Sheridan road from a fortnight's trip to New York and Washington.

Clifford E. Ives, 1630 Washington avenue, returned early this week from a business trip to Detroit.

Lord's supper in Sunday's German service will announce their intention at the parsonage between 4 and 9 p. m.

The picnic of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Lutheran Memorial hospital will be held July 4 on the campus of Concordia college, River Forest.

St. Augustine's

Rev. Hubert Carleton, D.C.L., rector

Sunday, July 1, will be the fifth Sunday after Trinity and the first Sunday of the month. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m. and Holy Communion with sermon at 11 a. m.

Next Sunday being the first Sunday in the month will be Corporate Communion Sunday for both the boys' and girls' communion leagues.

Tomorrow (Friday, June 29) will be St. Peter's day. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m.

Will Build Addition to Second Floor Solarium

The one building permit issued in Kenilworth during the past month was taken out by A. T. Kates, 206 Kenilworth avenue, for the construction of a second floor addition to a solarium, the addition to be used as a sleeping porch. The cost is given as $850.

ON CANOE TRIP

Bob King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. King, 914 Greenwood avenue, graduated on June 18 from Dartmouth and is now on a canoe trip in Maine with friends from Highland Park. Mr. King's parents and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. King, Jr., of Glencoe all attended commencement at Dartmouth.

Mrs. Albert G. Ackermann, 811 Park avenue, is driving this week-end to Plymouth, Ind., to get her mother, Mrs. David L. Roush, who returned recently from her winter place in Florida. Mrs. Roush will spend about a month with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole P. Olson, 736 Roger avenue, Kenilworth, had as their house guest last week-end an old friend and former neighbor, Mrs. W. H. P. Weston of Hollywood, Cal., formerly of Chicago. Mrs. Weston was on her way to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Howe of Stoughton, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rote of Madison, Wis., and Mrs. John Charles Brown of Sault Ste. Marie were all guests last week of Mrs. H. A. Whitman, 930 Greenwood avenue.

Miss Anne Whitmack, Wilmette librarian, is sailing July 7, on the Princess Charlotte for Alaska, stopping off in Montana on her way back to visit her family. She will return to the village about the first of August.

Janice Guthridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guthridge, 917 Greenwood avenue, is to be the guest for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ellis of Wilmette at their summer place at Waupaca, Wis.

Mrs. Reed Whitney (Virginia Bixby) was luncheon hostess to a bridge foursome at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charles Bixby, 1104 Ashland avenue, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Klunder, 909 Chestnut avenue, are leaving July 3 for Dawson and Fairbanks, Alaska.