

3 Towns Join to Boost FHA Program Here

Wilmette and Glencoe are to join Winnetka in the movement to foster the objectives of the home modernization movement on the north shore, it was announced at the second meeting of a temporary organization recently formed in Winnetka, and held at Community House Monday evening.

Karl Griswold, field representative from the Federal Housing administration, explained the method of organizing for the intensive campaign which it is proposed to wage to stimulate work of this nature in an effort to relieve the unemployment situation.

More than forty real estate men, lumber dealers, electricians, plumbers and others interested attended the meeting and pledged their support in perfecting the organization and in getting its working plans into operation.

Mr. Griswold promised to return to Winnetka the following day and to devote his entire time in the promotional work, which it is hoped will be completed in time for the next meeting was set for Thursday evening of this week.

Robert F. Doepel is Winnetka chairman of the Federal Housing administration; H. C. Wienecke is serving in that capacity in Glencoe, and H. A. Dornbos, in Wilmette.

A committee headed by Earl Weinstock is directing the preliminary organization of north shore forces to put on a general campaign to stimulate building activity.

Wilmette Girl Joins Scribes at Carleton

Eleanor Moulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Moulding, 1025 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, was elected to membership in Scribes, women's literary society at Carleton college. Miss Moulding, who is a sophomore at Carleton this year, was chosen on the merits of an original composition which she submitted. All the old members of the society act as judges of the manuscripts which are presented and select new members. The group holds monthly meetings at which they read and discuss each other's writings.

Initiation will take place at the annual formal dinner of the organization, at which Dr. Charles Mierow, professor of biography, will make the address. Officers of the club are Gretchen Ann Magaret, Omaha, Neb., president, and Ann Hartman, Duluth, secretary.

Others who were chosen include Dorothy Diehl, Bellingham, Wash.; Helen Jane Millen, Northfield; Charlotte Otten, Sheboygan, Wis.; Rosemarie Gregory, Minneapolis; Jane Davidson, Louisville, Ky.; Ruth Ravn, Merrill, Wis.; Mary Bagley, Duluth, and Ruth Schacht, Rochester.

Democratic Women Will Hold Meeting Today

Mrs. Howard J. Hickey, president of the Naw Trier Democratic Woman's club, is calling a meeting of the executive committee and the board of directors for Thursday evening December 6, at 8 o'clock, in the office of Dr. Rosanna N. McKenney, 52 Center street, Winnetka. Mrs. Joanna E. Downes, district committee woman, will be the speaker of the evening. Mrs. Marshall V Kearney by-laws chairman, will present the newly completed by-laws on which the committee has been working.

Mrs. George Birkhoff of 329 Warwick road, Kenilworth, gave a family Thanksgiving dinner party.

EARLY IN OCTOBER WE MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT—

DON'T BE Alarmed

At that time many had advertised heavily in an effort to frighten the consuming public into "loading up" with certain lines of food products. This, in our opinion, was not justified.

Conditions since then have proved our judgment correct—that it was not necessary to overload your pantry in anticipation of a shortage later of certain foods. There IS plenty of everything and the threatened high prices have not materialized as shown by the many unusual offerings listed below.
