

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Announce Sponsors for Demonstration of the Teletactor

The spacious log house of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Mergentheim at 1258 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, will be opened next Tuesday evening to the American Institute for the Deaf-Blind, which is presenting Prof. Robert H. Gault, its director-general, in his demonstration of the teletactor, an electrical instrument which teaches the deaf to learn a language through the fingers.

The demonstration will commence at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by a short musicale. Professor Gault is to have the assistance of a deaf student, Harry Goddard.

Mrs. Gault who, with Professor Gault and Helen Bulkley Lee, will receive with the Mergentheims, has asked the following north shore residents to be sponsors for the affair:

Kenilworth—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dix.

Winnetka—Miss Margot Atkin, Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell, Mrs. Frank J. Bersbach, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. Channing Coolidge, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Cresap, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Gaffney, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Lon C. Hill, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Douglas MacMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Mellen C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Holman D. Pettibone, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sidley, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dunlap Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Washburne.

Glencoe—Mrs. Oliver S. Picher, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ravenscroft.

Highland Park—Miss Elizabeth Bredin, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Robbins.

Lake Forest—Mrs. Francis Stanley North.

The philanthropy departments of the Woman's Library club of Glencoe, of the Neighbors of Kenilworth, and of the North Shore Catholic Women's league are sending delegates to the demonstration.

Miss Dodds Is Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thorpe Dodds of 507 Washington avenue, Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Alice Marie, to George Winchester Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Goff Beach of Evanston. Mrs. Beach graduated from New Trier, and studied abroad in Paris and Florence.

Mr. Beach attended the University of Illinois and the University of Maryland. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Mrs. John Carpenter, 2522 Orrington avenue, Evanston, formerly of Kenilworth, will entertain her sewing club at luncheon Friday.

Is Bride

Mrs. George Winchester Beach is the former Miss Alice Marie Dodds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thorpe Dodds of 507 Washington avenue, Wilmette. Mr. Beach is an Evanston resident.

E. M. Antrim Host at Stag Breakfast

E. M. Antrim of 1136 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, was host at a stag party last Sunday morning—an old-fashioned buckwheat pancake breakfast. His guests were John McCutcheon, Gaar Williams of Glencoe, Dean Ralph E. Heilman of Evanston, Major John Griffith of Winnetka, and W. H. Winterrowd of Lake Forest. The breakfast was an old-fashioned "Hoosier" one with sorghum and maple syrup, and pork sausages made by a farmer, and an old-fashioned buckwheat recipe was tried.

Infant Welfare Group Will Meet January 30

The annual meeting and luncheon of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago will be held at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, January 30, at the Blackstone hotel. Plans for the coming year will be made and discussed by the officers of the central organization, and reports will be read by the officers of the various branches throughout Chicago and suburbs.

Prepares Programs

Berenice Viole of 114 Third street spent her Christmas holidays in Lafayette, Ind., the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Viole, and of her sister, Mrs. James Cattell. She is soon to play a short piano program before the Lake View Woman's club in Chicago, and will also play an inter-chapter Sigma Alpha Iota program in February in the city.

Skokie Announces Plans for Parties, Carnival

Having asked all Skokie Country club members to save Saturday evening, January 19, the winter sports committee now announces that there is to be a formal dinner dance at the club that night. Lew Diamond is to provide the music. The committee urges that reservations be made immediately.

Future dates which the committee is asking members to reserve are February 9 and March 16.

By Saturday, February 16, the committee believes all Skokie young people will be glad of a break from the school grind. An after-dinner dance is being arranged for that evening.

Another event for the young people will be the ice carnival which is to take place as soon as the weather permits. It will be held on a Saturday afternoon, and prizes will be offered in various age groups.

Novelty features and surprises will be presented by the orchestra, and strolling musicians will render melodies to add to the gaiety of the party. Dinner will be served promptly at 8:45 o'clock, and there will be dancing until 1.

Dance to Aid Scholarship Fund of Junior School

Junior Friends, an organization of young people in Wilmette, is sponsoring an informal scholarship dance to be given on Saturday evening, January 19, at the Wilmette Masonic Temple, 1010 Central avenue. Entertainment has been planned in the form of a very unique floor show, and everyone is assured of a very pleasant evening, the committee declares. Bids may be obtained from the dance chairman, Miss Marion Hall by phoning Wilmette 2706. The benefits from the dance will go toward a scholarship for a boy at the Chicago Junior school in Elgin.

Members of the dance committee are: Miss Betty Webber, 1219 Elmwood avenue; Barclay Jones, 1002 Greenleaf avenue; Arian Delander, 1407 Gregory avenue.

The Dierks-Combe orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. This will be the last public appearance of the orchestra before it leaves on a Mediterranean cruise, said Charles Southward, head of the University Entertainment service in Evanston.

Pre-Wedding Parties

Prior to her marriage to Quintin J. Crawford of River Forest Saturday of this week at her parents home in Winnetka, Miss Dorothy Lorraine Moore has been the guest of honor at one more party. Tuesday of this week Mrs. Henry Schmidt and her daughter, Catherine, were hostesses at a tea at their home, 710 Washington avenue. Last Thursday Miss Moore's fiancé was guest of honor at a bachelor dinner at which the best men in the wedding party, Lewis Concklin, was host.

Herbie Kay to Give Concert for Arden Shore Boys Sunday

A great treat is in store for the boys of Arden Shore camp on next Sunday, January 20. Herbie Kay, now playing at the Edgewater beach, is taking his trio of songsters known as the Three Kays and his soloist, Kay Morton, out to the camp for a Sunday afternoon concert.

The affair has been arranged by Mrs. Samuel H. Clark of 135 Fuller lane, Winnetka, and Mr. Clark, who is an accomplished accordionist, is going along, taking his instrument with him. Mr. Kay is giving the concert because of his great interest in and love for boys, Arden Shore boys in particular. It certainly sounds as if it would be quite a party.

An appeal is being made for sleds and skates, and warm clothing to go with them, for the boys of the camp. At present two sleds have to do duty for forty-five boys. We are sure there must be lots of old sleds and skates around in garages and store rooms. If your children have grown tired of or outgrown theirs, please send them to the home of Mrs. R. B. Umberger, 220 Sheridan road, Winnetka, before Sunday noon. The truck that is taking Mr. Kay and his party with their instruments will pick them up and take them on out to the camp. Warm clothing is, of course, always in demand and anything you can send that will fit boys between 12 and 18 will be much appreciated.—A.K.

Monday Is Meeting Day for 5 Guilds

The five guilds of the Church of the Holy Comforter in Kenilworth will meet and have luncheon Monday, January 21, with the following hostesses: The Anderson guild to be entertained by Mrs. Harold Geisse of 512 Roslyn road; Chase guild, by Mrs. Henry Taylor, Jr., 431 Essex road; Stewart guild, Mrs. Harold Tideman, 138 Abingdon road; McLaren guild, Mrs. Tuthill Ketcham, 38 Brier street, Winnetka; Whitehouse guild, Mrs. Charles H. Nelson, Highland Park.

Philanthropy Party Is Brownson Circle Project

Brownson circle will hold its annual philanthropy card party at Rogers Park Woman's club on Monday, January 21, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Daniel B. Hayden, chairman of philanthropy, and Mrs. Edward W. Agnew, social chairman, are in charge. This party is for the benefit of the Loyola University Scholarship fund, which scholarship the club has sponsored for the past eight years. Prizes will include one for each table.