Hear Mrs. Lieber

Mrs. Gertrude C. Lieber of Winnetka will be the principal speaker at a district meeting of Odd Fellows lodges to be held in the Wilmette Odd Fellows hall Thursday evening, February 21, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be open to the public.

Mrs. Lieber's subject will be, "Citizenship and Current Events." She is a recognized authority on parliamentary law and current events and is well known to north shore audiences.

Entertainment to follow the speaking program will include selections by the Texas Blue Boys and several other musical and comedy acts.

The district is comprised of lodges in Evanston, Wilmette, Highland Park, Waukegan, Libertyville, Palatine and Barrington.

Mrs. G. C. Lieber*Prepare to Pick Kenilworth Slate of New Candidates

The Kenilworth Citizens' Advisory committee, composed of representatives of all of the civic, church, school and social organizations in the village, plans to hold a meeting the latter part of this week or early next week for the purpose of making recommendations for candidates in the Kenilworth Village election on April 16.

Arthur W. Wakeley, 234 Leicester road, president of the organization, stated on Tuesday that the meeting may be held tonight (Thursday) if it is convenient for the representatives of the various groups to assemble at that time.

The terms of the president of the Village and of all of the Village trustees expire this spring. Harry P. Harrison is the president. The trustees are Porter Fox, Chase W. Love, Harold F. Tideman, Herman G. Seely, Henry G. Zander, Jr., and Richard C. Johnston.

MALLINCKRODT
NEWS

The annual retreat for the students of The Mallinckrodt, (Catholic high school for girls in Wilmette), beginning on February 12 and closing on the morning of February 15, is being conducted by the Rev. Arthur B. Klyber, C.S.S.R. of Villa Redeemer, Glenview, Ill. In the afternoon of the third day the students assembled for solemn consecration to Mary. After Holy Mass and Communion on the morning of the closing day, the students, holding lighted candles, will solemnly renew their baptismal vows.

The Mallinckrodt Senior Dramatic club is preparing for presentation a series of three one-act plays which will be ready for the public on March 3.

LIBRARY TO CLOSE FEB. 22

The Wilmette Free Public library will be closed all day on Washington's birthday, Miss Anne Whitmack, librarian, announces.

Miss Mary Harvey, daughter of Mrs. F. W. Harvey, Jr., 1035 Greenwood avenue, returned Wednesday from Hanover, N. H., where she motored with friends to attend the Ice carnival at Dartmouth.

Reserve Officers
Invite Groups to Defense Program

National Defense Night sponsored by the North Shore chapter, Reserve Officers association, will be held Thursday, February 21, in Winnetka Community House at 8 o'clock.

The celebration is to consist of an evening of wrestling and boxing matches to which all of the north shore Chambers of Commerce, service clubs and Boy Scouts have been invited.

Arrangements are in the hands of the committee composed of Lieut. Ray Thorsen of Hubbard Woods, Major Frank Woods of Winnetka, and Capt. William Bray of Evanston.

An interesting program has been arranged and a speaker of national prominence will address the meeting.

Major Max Woldenberg of Hubbard Woods is president of the North Shore chapter, Reserve Officers association and is also a director of the Department of Illinois Reserve Officers association.

Mrs. Charles Sanford Clarke, 526 Washington avenue, is leaving today for the south. She will spend two weeks visiting Mrs. J. R. Rice in Birmingham, Ala., where her son, Guernsey Clarke, will meet her and motor her back to his home in Fairhope, Ala. She will visit there until April.
