

"Lookin' Lovely," Three-Act Comedy, Is Play at Church

"Lookin' Lovely," a comedy in three acts will be presented by the Luther league of the Wilmette English Lutheran church Saturday evening, February 23, at 8 o'clock, in the church parlors at Seventh street and Greenleaf avenue.

The story of the production revolves about the trials and tribulations of a pretty maiden, Winnie Bordine, who is trying to keep her ancestral home, on a New England farm, which is heavily mortgaged.

Two clever and resourceful young men come to the rescue and as promoters in search of an opportunity discover some remarkable mud on the premises.

The role of Winnie is played by Helen Peterson. Other leading roles will be played by the following leaguers: Ruth Kerner, Ruth Jaehne, Lydia Streeb, Priscilla Soreneson, Chester Jaehne, Ernest Schaper, Jerome Nevins, Mel Augdahl, and Berger Jensen. The children's parts, Buddie and Clytie, will be played by David Melbye and Doris Lechler.

Donald Weimar, who is a student at the Boeing Aeronautical school in Oakland, Calif., flew from Chicago to California recently to visit his parents, the M. C. Weimars of 240 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, who had gone by train to Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Weimar returned home Tuesday of last week.

Louis Kunz of Manitowoc, Wis., is spending several weeks with his daughter and family, the James W. Alders of 931 Greenwood avenue.

HEALTH CENTER NEWS
