

ON SPRING VACATION

Miss Mildred Waugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Waugh, 812 Ashland avenue, returned last Saturday from Oberlin college for her spring vacation.

COMING HOME SOON

Miss Phyllis Carleton, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Hubert Carleton, 1103 Forest avenue, will return on April 17, from DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind., for her spring vacation.

25 YEARS OF QUALITY RUG CLEANING

Spring Cleaning Time is here! Get the benefit of our quarter-century of careful service to the North Shore's finest homes.

« Expert craftsmanship from our modern plant devoted exclusively to rug and carpet cleaning and repairing is your guarantee of fine quality.

Kashian Bros.

1107 Greenleaf Ave.
Wilmette

CALL NOW
WILMETTE 1200

Girls' Basketball Team to Vie for Championship

The girls' basketball team of St. Francis school will meet the team from Our Lady of Sorrows this afternoon (Thursday) to decide the winner of the girls' grammar school championship of the Chicago Arch-Diocese. The game will be played at the Providence High school in the city, and no doubt will be a hard fought one. The St. Francis team is captained by Theresa Logan of Wilmette, and Anne Louise Koenig of Wilmette is team manager. Earl W. Kearns, athletic director of the school, is coach. The girls have been playing elimination games every Saturday since the opening of the season in the middle of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Panushka of Gering, Neb., are visiting Mr. Panushka's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dingee of 912 Lake avenue.

Mrs. Frank Cheeseman of the Orrington hotel, formerly of Kenilworth, will be luncheon hostess to her bridge club today.

Winnetka Play Group Appears Next Tuesday

Dramatic circles of the north shore are keenly interested in the play to be given by the Winnetka Drama club April 9 and 10 at Community House. "A Bill of Divorcement," by Clemence Dane, will provide an evening of dramatic entertainment and, given by a competent and experienced cast, it cannot fail to grip the interest of the audience.

Charles J. Eastman, the director, is well known to north shore audiences for the many parts he has played in all the various dramatic organizations. Directed by a Winnetka man, acted, lighted, costumed, and staged by local people for the sheer pleasure of working in a community project, the play carries out the Drama club slogan of "Let's all play."

Exceptional Cast

Marie Fischer Perkins, a player of rare ability, portrays the wife, anguished by her husband's incurable insanity and confused by his return after fifteen years in an asylum. Jasper S. King, as the husband, plays a difficult part with convincing sincerity. In the same skillful manner in which he has played former roles, Albert F. Weise portrays Grady, whom Margaret is about to marry. Following is the remainder of the supporting cast:

Sidney	Nancy Phillips
Kit	John Milton
Aunt Hester	Mrs. William J. Trout
Rev. Humphrey	Dudley L. Smith
Dr. Alliot	Francis Hinckley
Basset	Laura Browning

For the setting of the play, an English living room, designed by the architect, Theron Woolson, is given a realistic wood paneled effect by the clever painting of Ben Dollimore.

Others interested in production are: Construction—Clyde Peaster and John Beals.

Costumes—Helen English.
Properties—Mrs. Guy Watson and Mrs. Carl Easterberg.

Prompter—Mrs. Charles J. Eastman.
Co-director—Jack Halliday.

Lighting—Bob Eastman and Clyde Peaster.

Make-up—Mrs. Lyman Weld.
Ushers—First performance: Margaret Raub, Shirley McCoy, Betty Jane Weld; second performance: Jean Henning, Margaret Layer, Betty Layer.

Informal Reception

Following the play, an informal reception will be held. Mrs. W. H. Weber arranged for hostesses to preside each of the two evenings. Those on duty Tuesday night will be Mrs. Taliaferro Milton, Mrs. William W. Lloyd, and Mrs. W. L. Slater. Mrs. John C. West, Mrs. Gross Williams, and Mrs. John Monk will be Wednesday's hostesses.

This will be the last opportunity to use season tickets, the club announces. Additional tickets may be obtained at the door.

GUESTS OF EVANTONIANS

The girls' club of the Evanston High school has invited all New Trier girls to an open house to be held after school on April 11. There is to be a short play followed by a tea and a general social hour, it is announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo S. Hawxhurst, 1112 Greenwood avenue, returned recently from a week's vacation trip at French Lick Springs, Ind. The famous resort marked the opening of its thirty-fifth annual spring season on March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Burnet, 235 Warwick road, Kenilworth, returned Tuesday of last week from a motor trip through the east.

ANNIVERSARY SALE

1895

For forty years we have kept pace with the North Shore—meeting with interest and energy all that the North Shore has asked of us as a merchandising institution and as a factor in its community life. We have secured many outstanding values for this sale for every department in our store.

1935

NEO CLASSIC DAVENPORT

Full Web, Spring Tied Eight Ways. Hair and Cotton Felt Filled. Hard Wood Double Doweled Frame.

Finish can be had in walnut or fruit wood finish. A large variety of covers to select from.

Anniversary Special

$59.50

BUTTERFLY TABLES

Maple
or Walnut
Finish

$2.65

Furniture—Third Floor

This is

SPRING CLEANING for your typewriter

Bring them in! A clean typewriter writes better. We will air clean and oil your machine for only

$1

Typewriters—
Second Floor

Chandler's

Fountain Square

Evanston