

On Vacation

Gordon Cutler, 207 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, a junior at Princeton, will not return to the north shore for his spring vacation, going instead on tour with the Princeton Glee club which sang in Washington Saturday, and will give a concert in Richmond and Pinehurst, and on Saturday it will sing at White Sulphur Springs. Robert Cutler, a younger brother, who attends Lawrenceville, left Saturday after his spring vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cutler.

For Birthday Club

Mrs. Clifford E. Ives, 1630 Washington avenue, will entertain her birthday club of eight members for dessert and bridge this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Elbert R. Herlocker, of Wilmette. Last Tuesday Mrs. C. Rollin Smith, 1728 Highland avenue, entertained the same group on the occasion of the birthday of Mrs. Paul Rensch.

On Vacation Jaunt

Nancy McCloud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley McCloud, 338 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, accompanied by Peggy Marsh, also of Kenilworth, left Saturday for Omaha, Neb., where they will spend their spring vacation visiting Nancy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olmsted.

In Dramatic Society

Spiro Mann and Irving Sloan, two graduates of New Trier High school, and now sophomores at Lawrence college, were honored recently when they were elected to membership in the Sunset Players, honorary dramatic society at Lawrence college.

Miss Vivian Lois Grisby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Grisby of 247 Maple avenue, a freshman at the University of Kentucky, is returning Wednesday, April 17, for her spring vacation.

Home From East

Mrs. Claude Burnham, 536 Roslyn road, Kenilworth, returned Monday of last week from New York where she visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Burnham, and her youngest son, Philip. She saw Mr. and Mrs. Burnham off on a cruise to Bermuda where they will visit David Burnham, who is spending the winter there. Mrs. Burnham attended the New York Flower show.

To Tour Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgeway, 207 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Clark of Winnetka, are leaving April 16. They will stop to visit the Ridgeways' other daughter and her family, the William Plumers in Waban, Mass., before sailing April 22, on the Georgic, for a six weeks' tour of Europe.

Reopen Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Benson and daughter, Miss Kathryn, who recently returned from a six weeks' visit to California and a cruise through the Panama Canal, have opened their home in Kenilworth. They spent the winter at the Lake Shore Drive hotel.

Visit Here

Mrs. Dale E. Brown and her small daughter, Susan, of Nashville, Tenn., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Arthur H. Howard, 1055 Wilmette avenue, this week. Mrs. Brown is the former Frances Howard.

Home Again

Mr. and Mrs. A.C. King, 532 Earlston road, returned to Kenilworth Thursday of last week from New York, where they went to attend a wedding. They also visited friends in Norwalk, Conn.
